GERMANS HAVE DONE MUCH FOR CHINESE

British Pay Tribute to Fact That Merchants and Traders Have Made Foreigners Tolerant

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]
LONDON, Nov. 25.—A tribute to the work of the Germans in China has just been sent out by the British government.

It is part of a report from Consul V. L. Savage of Changsha, capital of the province of Hunan. To German traders, men of tact and persistence he said, is chiefly due to the fact that the Chinese native traders are becoming more and more tolerant of foreign commercial methods and merchandise. "New firms who enter interior China," he adds, "will no longer have to break through the opposition of their old-established connections among the Chinese, and institute new and unpopular methods. The building up of trade connections in China is just now easier than in any other country."

Credit is also due the Germans for opening up the mining fields of China to foreigners. Consul Savage says:

"Native prejudices, vested interests and the greed and power of the Chinese gentry have, no doubt, raised great difficulties in the past in the way of successful exploitation by Europeans of the vast mineral wealth of China. In that respect the province of Hunan, which had great mineral resources, was one of the worst to deal with. Yet these same difficulties have been overcome, in some measure, and the export of certain ores and metals is now a principal feature of the trade of Changsha. But to whose efforts is this due? The answer is to those of German firms. British enterprise has had practically nothing to do with it."

PARIS WILL AGAIN OPEN THE OPERA

Has Been Long Delayed in French Capital Because of the War Troubles

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]

PARIS, Nov. 26.—The long delayed opening of the Opera is now promised for next month. Monsieur Rouché, the new director, says he will give only two matinees a week on Sunday and Thursday with French operas to begin with followed by works of the "Allies." Monsieur Albert Carre of the Comedie Francaise, adopting the same idea of favoring Ally authors, is preparing a production of "Gloconda," by Gabriel d'Annunzio to be followed by "Le Cloître" by the Belgian poet Verhaeren. New pieces are not lacking, Monsieur Carre says, but the national theatre will rely mostly upon revivals of old favorites until the staff, depleted by the mobilization, has been brought to its full strength. The Opera Comique, laboring under great difficulties, has succeeded in supporting all of the company not mobilized. Out of seven leaders there remained but one after the mobilization.

BROWN MAY ARGUE WEST VIRGINIA CASE

Oregon Attorney General Asked to File Brief in Case in Supreme Court

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 26.—Attorney General Brown announced that he had been invited to file a brief in a case now pending in the United States supreme court from West Virginia in the question of whether or not the importation of liquor into a dry state can be enjoined under the Webb-Kenyon law.

Proceeding under this law, the West Virginia authorities sued out an injunction against the importation of liquor into that state, and such action was held valid by the circuit court of appeals. Recently it was argued in the United States supreme court, but that tribunal has asked a re-argument of the case. Attorneys general from a number of dry states are to file briefs supporting the contention of West Virginia, according to the attorney general.

FORM COMPANY TO GET FOREIGN TRADE

Concern Will Reach Out to Markets of World and Has Big Capital

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Seeking to reach out in world's markets and establish America as the foremost trader of the world, Morgan, Rockefeller, National City bank and Kuhn, Loeb & Stone and Webster interests this afternoon filed papers at Albany, N. Y., to incorporate a $50,000,000 organization to be known as the American International company.

This concern proposes to dabble in vast enterprises all over the world. The world war furnished its opportunity. End of the war will increase this, its sponsors believe.

Europe is partially bankrupt; its financial condition will be worse before it is better. In such circumstances, the organizers of this giant organization expect to reap a harvest financing enterprises which might otherwise be put out of business.

ALLEGED MURDERER KNOWN IN DOUGLAS

Man Living Near Sutherlin Was Acquainted With George Bartholomew Whom Officers Seek

George Bartholomew, the alleged murderer in the Portland trunk mystery, is known in Douglas county. The Roseburg Review says:

"Among the men living in the West who are personally acquainted with the alleged murderer is G. C. Raitt, who lives on a small fruit tract a few miles from Sutherlin. Raitt, it will be remembered, is the person who a few years ago was awarded the first prize for being the tallest Elk in attendance at the National convention of the order held in Portland in 1912.

"When called by telephone Mr. Raitt said he was acquainted with George Bartholomew, when the two men were living in Aberdeen, South Dakota. Mr. Raitt said Bartholomew was considered somewhat of a weakling and was not overly bright. It was Mr. Raitt's recollection that the alleged murderer spent much of his time loitering about saloons while a resident of the South Dakota City. At the time Mr. Raitt came west, Bartholomew was still living in Aberdeen.

JACKSON COUNTY GETS MANY HONORS

Makes Fine Showing With Rest of Oregon at Exposition Fruit Exhibit

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Jackson county is the banner county of Oregon, the banner horticultural state of the Union, according to awards made by the Panama-Pacific exposition. Oregon secured 115 prizes ranging from medals of honor, through gold, silver, bronze and honorable mention. Of these 115 prizes, Jackson county captured 43. Second in rank came Hood River with 29 awards.

There were 26 medals of honor awarded of which Hood River took 10 and Jackson county the same number. Wasco county took two, the Willamette valley 3 and Klamath 1. This gives Oregon victories in almost all fields which it is pushing. Grains and grasses and agriculture generally brought home many special awards earlier in the season. General exhibits have been prize winners in every competition. Among those awarded prizes was W. E. Hartley of Myrtle Point who exhibited Gravenstein apples. The state of the sick girl, furnished the rabbits. Dr. Cathay, who has had more laboratory experience than most physicians in Oregon, made the serum. The serum is being administered and the little sufferer will recover.

SERBIANS ARE BEING DRIVEN FROM COUNTRY

Teutonic and Bulgarian Armies Capturing or Dispersing Remnants of the Defenders

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Teutonic and Bulgarian armies continue steadily the work of capturing or dispersing the remnants of the Serbian forces. Berlin announces that the Serbian troops offering rear guard actions to the Teutonic advance near Milovitz and Sienica have been driven back by Von Mackensen's forces. In southern Serbia no important developments are reported and it is presumed the invaders will wait until territory north is cleared of the Serbian armies before concentrating on an attack in the south. In the east, Petrograd reports Russians attacking successfully along Dvinsk front. Relative positions of the opposing armies, however, is little changed.

CRUISER IS SUNK

German Boat Sent to the Bottom by a Submarine

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The German protected cruiser Frauenlob was sunk by a submarine of the entente allies, according to semi-official announcement at Petrograd. It was 2672 tons and built in 1901. It was reported to have been sent to the bottom off the south coast of Sweden near where her sister ship the Undine was recently lost.

SAYS SUNDAY CLOSING LAW DISCRIMINATES

Attorney Hume in Case in Portland Court So Claims It Is Not Constitutional

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 27.—That Oregon's ancient Sunday closing law conflicts with the national and state constitutions because it is discriminatory was contended in federal court here by Attorney W. T. Hume, representing the Brunswick, Blake-Collender company, which is seeking a permanent injunction restraining the peace officers of 25 counties from enforcing it.

The arguments were heard by Judge Wolverton, of Portland, Judge Cushman of Tacoma, and Judge Gilbert of San Francisco. Three judges are necessary because the constitutionality of a law is in question.

Attorney Hume declared that the law was discriminatory in that it allowed certain businesses to remain open on Sunday, but compelled others, just as legitimate, to close.

RABBITS SAVE LIFE OF A LITTLE GIRL

Supplied to Her Blood the Serum Needed to Prevent the Child From Dying

The Klamath Falls Northwestern prints the following interesting story:

Rabbits contributed by friends of little Frieda Scheisel have saved the life of that little girl, through the efforts of Dr. George A. Cathay. The little girl was taken to the Blackburn hospital last Sunday morning suffering from hemorrhage from nearly all parts of the body, caused by lack of coagulin in the blood. Dr. R. R. Hamilton, who attended the little girl, called in Dr. Cathay and Dr. Johnson who diagnosed the case and told Dr. Hamilton that one of the most efficient remedies known was the injection of steril serum made from blood of rabbits, to supply the lacking coagulin. Dr. Hamilton telephoned the schools and Leonard Ford, a school

"700 Orders Behind"

"I am 700 orders behind because of newspaper advertising."

"I have never tried to reach customers by other mediums."

Thus writes an automobile manufacturer in the presumably dull August of 1915.

He has found more business than he can take care in these disturbed times. There are others like him and their names will be found among the newspaper advertisers.

Business comes to those who go after it.

Of all practical, pleasing and lasting gifts, furniture stands most prominent. Then, again, the fascinating feature is, it costs so little and lasts so long, besides it fits the purse of everyone. The enjoyable evenings that are spent around a fireside can be made doubly so.
