BORN

RITZ—To Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritz, of this city, on Sunday, November 28, 1915, a girl. Both mother and daughter are doing very well.

Receives Diploma.—F. M. Parsons today received his diploma as a registered pharmacist in Oregon, having passed the examination at a recent meeting of the board.

Gallery Moves.—The shooting gallery which has been located in the Lloyd hotel building has closed up and will open in new quarters after the first of the year, taking one of the rooms which the saloons will vacate.

Cannery Men Go North.—On the steamship Kilburn yesterday afternoon there sailed 27 Japanese and Chinamen, who have been working in the salmon canneries of Coos Bay and the Coquille River, returning to Portland, now that the season is closed.

Comes to Local Office.—L. G. Cushing, recently in the San Francisco office of the North Pacific Steamship Company, arrived on the Kilburn yesterday from the South and is now connected with the local office of the company, as clerk with Agent A. P. Nott.

Council Meets Tonight.—There will be a meeting of the city council this evening at eight o'clock when several street matters will come before the city fathers for final settlement. It is said there are other matters of city business to be attended to at this time.

Bring Back Ducks.—With their hunting bags showing a goodly haul, John D. Goss and William Ekblad returned on the Union last evening from the head of North Inlet. They had spent the day hunting on Beal Lake with a fairly good success.

Damages Sidewalk.—One of the Condon & McDonald logging trucks ran amuck coming down the Central Avenue hill Saturday and broke up the sidewalk on the south side of the elevated street. The truck did not go over the grade but did considerable damage to the old plank walk.

Have Two Joyful Time.—Andrew Tors and J. E. Wasson were both given berths in the city jail Saturday night on charges of being drunk. Each one had taken aboard a goodly amount of fire liquid, all of which affected their machinery and the Takes Vacation.—N. J. Oswald of the Palace Meat Market is taking a few days vacation. The first he has enjoyed in the twelve months he has been in business here. In fact he has not been off the job a half day. Mr. Jones of Myrtle Point, who recently sold his market there, is assisting at the Palace while Mr. Oswald is enjoying his layoff.

Wanted to Try Water.—L. K. Grey was given a room in the Hotel de Carter because his friends feared he would jump in the bay, they explained to the officers. A charge of drunkenness was levied against the man. It was said that he had made two attempts to jump into the bay at the foot of Market avenue, but had been restrained by friends. He was released yesterday morning.

Move to Powers.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burton left this morning for Powers where Mr. Burton assumes management of the Lockhart & Parsons branch drug store at that place. Mr. Burton has been pharmacist at "The Busy Corner" for some time. During their stay in Marshfield Mr. and Mrs. Burton made many friends who will regret their leaving and hope for their return here some time in the future.

Left For Home.—The entire squad of the University of Oregon freshmen football team left on the Atlas yesterday morning and the beach stage for Eugene, returning after the Turkey Day game here. It is not believed they made the trip through yesterday for some of the party had not arrived in Eugene last evening when an attempt was made to get them via the long distance telephone.

Stage is Delayed.—The stage north on the beach yesterday morning was delayed on account of engine troubles. The treatment of the machine by the wind and the sea of the past week had put some of them dangerously close to the point where they needed a rest in the repair shops. Under the odds the drivers did their best to get the autos up the beach in time to catch the afternoon train from Cushman for Eugene. The seas have gone down and beach traveling is again resuming its normal atmosphere.

PERSONAL MENTION

C. M. MEEKER and C. E. Baird are in from Elkton on a visit.

R. C. CHASE, of Coquille, was a visitor in the city over Sunday.

AL NICHOLS was here today from Empire on business.

NEIL WATSON, of Isthmus Inlet, was a Marshfield visitor today.

CAPT. C. E. EDWARDS was among the visitors here today from Allegany.

MRS. J. BLUFORD DAVIS was down this morning from her Coos River home on a shopping trip.

V. K. ROOD and son were visitors here today from North Coos River on business.

T. R. SHERIDAN, of North Bend, was a Marshfield business visitor today.

JAMES FERREY and wife came in today from their Isthmus Inlet ranch.

JUDGE A. E. SHUSTER, of North Bend, left on the steamer Kilburn yesterday afternoon for Portland.

MR. AND MRS. A. E. KELLEY, of Bandon, left yesterday on the Kilburn for Boise, Idaho, where they are intending to locate.

BEN FISHER left this morning via the beach stage for Portland where he is being called in connection with the Shook case.

HARRY BULTMANN left on the morning train for Valley points, where he is today calling on the trade.

MRS. JOHN DASHNEY and children came back last evening after spending Thanksgiving with Mr. Dashney at Powers.

DEPUTY SHERIFF LAIRD returned Saturday evening from Lakeside and went over to Coquille yesterday morning.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE BAINES and daughters returned on last evening's train from Riverbank where they spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Baines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harrison.

DAN MAGEE left Saturday on the Adeline Smith for San Francisco, but will probably be back soon.

HARRY NASBURG and family are expected in on the next Adeline Smith.

RAY BURNS, a freshman at the University, went to his home at Coquille, where he had a short stay over Thanksgiving, leaving on the stage yesterday morning for Eugene again.

JAMES T. BRAND and Claude C. Thompson returned on the Union last evening from Ten Mile, where they spent the week-end hibernating. Both declared that they cooked a mutton, ate it and enjoyed it hugely, though Thompson's dog refused the delicacy.

CORONER FRED WILSON is expected home on the next trip of the Adeline Smith. His mother who has been at San Francisco is much better, but his wife has been quite sick. It is expected that he will bring both home.

TO RUN FOR JUDGE

MANY ASPIRANTS FOR THREE VACANCIES ON DISTRICT BENCH

Judge Coke, Judge Hamilton and Judge Skipworth Will Seek Re-election

Already there is considerable talk concerning the campaign for district judge. The terms of the three incumbents, Judges J. S. Coke of Marshfield, Judge Hamilton of Roseburg and Judge Skipworth of Eugene, will expire and all will seek re-election. Judge Skipworth was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge L. T. Harris who was elected to the Supreme court. It is likely that he will be a candidate to fill the two years unexpired period of Harris' term. This will leave the two full terms for Judges Coke and Hamilton.

Concerning the matter, the Roseburg Review says:

"According to articles carried by the Eugene newspapers, Attorney J. A. Buchanan, of the law firm of Buchanan & Porter, of this city, has decided to become a candidate for circuit judge at the Republican primary election to be held next May. Mr. Buchanan has lived in Oregon for a number of years, and when a young man taught school in this county. He later studied law and was admitted to practice in Oregon about 15 years ago. He has since conducted offices in Roseburg. Attorney Buchanan is a member of the Douglas County Bar Association, and is popular in military circles. For two terms he served the people of Douglas County in the House of Representatives at Salem, and was considered one of the influential men in that branch of the state government.

"It is admitted here that Attorney W. W. Cardwell, of Roseburg, will also be a candidate for circuit judge at the Republican primaries. Mr. Cardwell is a well known lawyer of this county and has been involved in many of the more important criminal and civil actions tried in this section of the state. At the last general election Mr. Cardwell was elected a member of the State Legislature by a big majority over three other candidates. He conducted his campaign on a tax economy platform.

"Another avowed candidate for circuit judge at the Republican primaries is John S. Coke, of Marshfield. Mr. Coke is one of the younger judges of the state and is a man of exceptional ability as a jurist. He has presided over the Circuit Courts of Coos and Curry counties for a number of years and has won many friends throughout his district. "It is also stated that certain Marshfield persons are grooming Attorney C. A. Sehlbrede for the office of circuit judge at the Republican primaries. Mr. Sehlbrede formerly lived in Roseburg, but for several years past has been a resident of Coos County. He is practicing his profession at Marshfield, where he conducts offices.

"Judge J. W. Hamilton, present incumbent, will be a candidate for circuit judge at the Democratic primaries. Judge Hamilton has been circuit court judge here for a number of years and has made an enviable record in keeping the expenses of the court down to the minimum. He is an able lawyer, and few of his decisions have been reversed upon appeals to the Oregon Supreme Court. Judge Hamilton has a wide acquaintanceship throughout the district, and already many of the newspapers are mentioning his name as one of the logical men for the place.

"Judge G. F. Skipworth, of Lane County, will also be a candidate for circuit judge at the Democratic primaries, according to an announcement made by him several weeks ago. Judge Skipworth is well known in Douglas County, where he presided over a number of important criminal actions during the past few years. One of these cases was that involving Roy Farnam, accused of manslaughter in connection with the death of Edna Moran, of Cow Creek Valley. Judge Skipworth also rendered a decision in favor of the city of Roseburg in the case instituted by a few people of the town to enjoin the council from issuing bonds or entering into a contract with Kendall Brothers for the construction of a railroad from this city to the Umpqua National forest reserve. Judge Skipworth is a son of Rev. Skipworth, one of the pioneer ministers of Lane county.

"The district is composed of Lane, Benton, Douglas, Lincoln, Coos and Curry counties. There are three judges to be elected.

"For district attorney of Douglas County there will probably be two candidates. George Neuner, present incumbent, has already announced that he will be a candidate at the election in some circles. It is admitted in some circles that he will be opposed by Attorney G. E. Baird, of the law firm of Buchanan & Porter."

State Biologist Finley Will Lecture in Connection With Movies at the Noble

The famous moving pictures of Oregon wild bird and game life taken under the supervision of the State Fish and Game Commission are to be shown at the Noble Theater on Thursday, December 2nd under the auspices of the Ladies guild of the Episcopal church. State Biologist Finley will arrive in Marshfield on that day and at eight o'clock will lecture at the theatre.

The pictures will be shown at a children's matinee Thursday afternoon and it is expected that large numbers of school children will be in attendance. Manager Maraden of the theatre has arranged an interesting program of pictures for the evening to be shown in conjunction with the bird life pictures and the lecture will commence at eight o'clock. The theatre will open at the usual hour and regular prices will prevail.

These pictures are unique and many were taken under great difficulties.
