Postpone Bazaar.—The Bazaar which was announced for next Saturday by the ladies of the Episcopal Guild, has been postponed for one week.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET Wednesday December 1—Sun rises at 7:33 and sets at 4:27.

Birthday Dinner.—J. Albert Matson, Dr. Dix, Arno Meehan and Frank Laize left today for the Sand Hills to celebrate Dr. Dix's birthday with a little dinner. Just what birthday it is, Dr. Dix did not state.

Seeks Money.—Mrs. Ida Paterson today, through Constable William Cox garnished the Daily Tide office in North Bend for $70 claimed to be due for board and lodging from M. O. Hamilton, an employee.

Will Meet Tomorrow.—The Municipal Christmas Tree committee appointed last week will meet at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Guild Hall. All members of the committee are urged to attend.

Now in Alaska.—J. A. Pattison, who is here from Portland, says that F. E. Westerberg and family, formerly of Marshfield, are now in Alaska, where Mr. Westerberg has engaged in the dairy business.

Reduces Schedule.—Captain John Monson, of the Messenger, is this week reducing his run from Haynes Inlet to five days a week, eliminating his trip here on Thursday, at least until after the holidays.

Mill Closes Down.—At 2:30 p. m. the Porter Mill was closed down until tomorrow morning on account of log shortage. There are plenty of logs in the rafts, but the tide being out, it was impossible to get them inside the big boom, it was said at the mill this afternoon.

The Ladies of the Methodist Aid Society will hold a "Parcel Post Sale," and a hot tamale lunch on Friday, December third in room next to Wolcott's new store on Market Avenue. Lunch beginning at 11:30 a. m. and sale at 2:30 p. m. Parcels 25c and all worth it, lunch 25c.

Arm is Better.—Captain N. J. Cornwall, of Gardiner, was down this morning looking after the business of his beach stage. He said that his son, Lloyd Cornwall, is much better. His arm was broken a short time ago at Winchester Bay while cranking a machine.

Tickets Are Going.—A strenuous effort is being made to have the largest number of men at the banquet of the Fellowship Club next Tuesday evening that ever sat down to one of these "feeds." Systematically the men of the city have been divided into groups of 10 and a Fellowship Club member appointed to see a group.

Pictures Co's River.—In the current number of The Spectator, published at Portland, there is an advertisement of the Southern Pacific, which contains a large picture of the Stephen Rogers farm on Coos River, which is given as an example of pastoral life in Oregon. It is a fine picture and is a good boost for the county.

Wrestling in Portland.—Jim Wilson, Greek wrestler, who threw most of the boys of the county at will and was advertised here as "the 19-year-old boy wonder," is now wrestling in Portland. This evening at the Rose City Athletic Club he is expected to throw four wrestlers. He is going under the name there of Jim Londas, his regular Greek name having proved a jawbreaker to the wrestling fans.

Biggest Log Drive.—Clarke Fensler, who is over from Myrtle Point for a few weeks, said this morning that the log drive of Lawhorne and the Aasen Brothers, down Middle Creek, a tributary of the North Fork of the Coquille, was the biggest drive ever sent down the North Fork. Between 14,000 and 20,000 logs were caught at the Cedar Point boom for the Smith Mill. He worked for several days on the drive.

HAD HARD WEATHER NORTH

During the heavy southwest gale of last week, pilots at the mouth of the Columbia River had exceedingly hard times boarding ships coming into port.

Captain Parsons, a bar pilot, made three attempts to get aboard the sailing ship Park, and the last time was successful, but his small boat swamped alongside of the vessel. Because of the rough water some ships were forced to lay outside, waiting until pilots could get aboard.

WATERFRONT NEWS

Ready for sea, the steam schooner Hardy made too wide a swing near the Standard Oil dock this afternoon and stuck in the mud at the edge of the channel. She will float off at high tide and get away for San Francisco. The tug Flyer was unable to get her off.

The Rustler went down the bay today for Rogue River. The steam schooner Speedwell will get away at 3 p. m. tomorrow from North Bend for San Francisco. This afternoon the steam schooner Yellowstone left San Francisco for Coos Bay.

The Westerner is loading at the Smith mill and will soon be ready for sea. Tomorrow morning early the steamship F. A. Kilburn is due in here from Portland with a large shipment of freight. She will sail in the afternoon for Eureka and San Francisco.

From San Francisco the steamship Adeline arrived in about five o'clock this morning and is loading again at the Smith mill. The little gasoline school Relief came in this afternoon from the Siuslaw, bringing empty oil drums and is loading merchandise for the north.

ASK HELP TO RELIEVE FREIGHT CONGESTION

Secretary Powell of the Business Men's Association states that this evening night letters will be wired to the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the state business men's association asking these organizations if they cannot bring some pressure to bear or co-operate in some way to aid in relieving the congestion of Coos Bay freight at Portland.
