Elks Memorial Services

OMORROW afternoon at one o'clock the members of the Marshfield Lodge Benevolent and Protective Order of Ellis will hold their annual memorial exercises. This beautiful custom of paying a tribute to their "Absent Brothers" is a National one and in every city where there is an Elks lodge tomorrow there will be held a lodge of sorrow.

For the first time since the organization of the Marshfield lodge there appear two names on the memorial tablet who will never again answer the earthly roll call. They are Dr. C. C. Taggari and W. S. Turneti,

The exercises tomorrow will be held at Noble Theater and the public is invited to attend. The following is the order of oxorolaes:

The plano anyone can play artistically with personal expression

OF frequent concern to the hostess is the enoyment of her guests. When there is an ANGELUS in the home, an inexhaustible fund of entertainment is always at hand. A musical program that will please everyone can at once be arranged-elassical, operatic and popular selections-the repertoire of the one playing the ANGELUS being limited only by personal preference.
