

Lando Sale

EXCEEDS all expectations. We have had to lock the doors both days in order to handle the crowds properly. There are plenty of experienced salespeople to give service, and with all the enormous selling that has been done, it shows very little impression on this large stock.

Next week we will begin to enumerate prices in the different departments.

Store opens at nine, and closes at five-thirty, except on Saturday, remains open until nine, until further announcement. This is so stock can be arranged by the help properly for quick selling and for your convenience.

Cottners, Mr. and Mrs. J. McCutcheon Honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell.

After the repast was over the guests were given a musical program by Mr. Hackwood, Mr. Moffett, Mr. Ballantyne and Mrs. Holmes. The feature of the evening being a song, entitled "Going to Wyoming" composed by local poets:

I've met lots of jolly fellows traveling far and near
And I'm proud to say that one of the best is right here
He's the sort of chap that always makes you feel yourself
And we're gathered here this evening to bid him farewell.

Chorus.
Going to Wyoming and it is there he will reside
Going to Wyoming no matter what betide
And we hate to see him leave, his departure we will grieve
We hope he has success in Wyoming.
He has always done his best for the folks in Beaver Hill.
And he gave to us that pretty school house on the hill.
To give us that he had a job for he had to grab more land
Now his great task is to collect taxes from Batan.

POSTPONE MEETINGS

The Chalmade Club, which has been meeting regularly on Tuesday of each week for rehearsal and a short literary program, has postponed its sessions until after the holidays. The next meeting will be the first Tuesday in January at the home of Mrs. W. S. Nicholson.

GIFTS FOR ALL

Christmas is drawing near and the old problem of selecting gifts confronts you.

A visit to our store will settle the question for you. Our stock contains gifts suitable for all—father, mother, sister, brother or friend.

No matter their age or station in life, one of our pretty, useful pieces of jewelry will carry Christmas cheer to them.

It need not be expensive, either.

Useful Gifts For Christmas

Our store is replete with things for Christmas. Pretty, pretty and practical, pretentious ones and those less expensive. All of them appropriate and excellent value for the money. At least come in and look around.

Little rockers and chairs are the delights of the home. A doll and a rocking chair will make any little girl's Christmas happy.

Stuffed Chairs and Rockers are the cozy spots of the home. Ours are designed right, made right and priced right, with a view of comfort and durability.

In addition to the momentary thrill of pleasure the gifts from our store give, they add the lasting joy of usefulness, of permanent beauty and service to the home. The cost is little more than is often spent for trifles that are of no real service and which last only for a few days or months.

Make your gifts the sensible kind—useful articles that will be of real service. We are mentioning only a few of the good things to be found here.

GUILD OPEN MEETING

The open meeting of the Episcopal Ladies' Guild Tuesday evening in Guild Hall was attended by a large number and was a decided success. In the receiving line were Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. J. W. Bennett and Rev. Brownings.

The program was carried out just as it appeared in The Times the first of the week, and following this the hostesses, Mrs. Claude Nasburg and the Misses Evelyn Anderson, Mildred Ripley and Laud Reed, assisted by Mrs. A. T. Lagerstrom and Misses Alice Curtis and Inez Johnson, served sumptuous refreshments. The hall was very prettily decorated with an abundance of greens and yellow shaded lights. Among those present other than the ones assisting in receiving and serving, were: Mrs. George Ayre, Miss Edith Ayre, Miss Bess Ayre, Miss Preston, Mr. Frank
