SOCIETY NOTES

W. C. T. U. SOCIAL

A social was given for Mrs. S. Frithross at her home in Bangor in honor of her birthday, Tuesday afternoon, by the members of the North Bend W. C. T. U. A short program was prepared by Mrs. A. G. Raab, and interesting papers were read by Mrs. W. Nelson, Mrs. W. Chappell, Mrs. R. McCann and Mrs. Raab on important topics. The ladies present were: Mrs. George Ha-zer, Mrs. W. Nelson, Mrs. W. Nel-son, Mrs. F. W. Stephens, Mrs. Chappell, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Rit-chie, Mrs. F. Lyster, Mrs. Covey, Mrs. W. Laird, Mrs. Schaaster, Mrs. R. Helm, Misses Ora Lyster, Leora Chappell, and Lorena Lyster. Ap- petizing refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

JUNIORS PLAN DANCE

About 500 invitations were issued this week by the Juniors of the local high school for their "prom" which will be given Friday evening, Dec. 17th in Eagles hall, and which promises to be one of the most bril- liant affairs of the season. The in- vitations are purple and pennant shaped with gold lettering, carrying out the high school colors of pur- ple and gold. They were artistic and cleverly designed. Music will be furnished by Martin's orches- tra. The Chairmen of the different committees follow: Punch, Clarence Burrows; Patronesses, Lillian Cook; Invitations and programs, Ruth Cowan; Music, Mable Immel; all the girls of the class comprise the decoration committee.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Pres- byterian church met for business Wednesday afternoon at the church and settled up all matters of finance of the recent sale and tamale lunch which proved such a decided suc- cess. The ladies will not meet un- til the first Wednesday in January. Those present were: Mrs. J. S. Stub- biefeld, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. D. A. Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, Mrs. Duncan Ferguson, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman, and Mrs. Eva Gammill.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Word has been received that Miss May Preuss and Leslie and Chester Janacson, students at Berkeley Uni- versity will leave there about Dec- ember 18th for Marshfield for a three weeks' Xmas vacation at their homes.

M. E. GAME SOCIAL

Last evening, the young people of the Methodist church entertained delightfully with a game social and general good time, about thirty-five being in attendance. Rook, check- ers chess and flinch were played un- til a late hour, and then everybody joined in eating delicious pop corn.

INFORMAL DINNER PARTY

Last Monday evening, Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus entertained inform- ally at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell, the other guests present be- ing Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reid. Mr. and Mrs. Russell left this week for their new home in Diamondville, Wyoming.

ELECT OFFICERS

The Modern Woodmen of North Bend met last Tuesday evening in Joggie's hall and elected the fol- lowing officers: Past Consul, C. F. Chase; Consul, Richard Frye; Ad- visor, Walter Livingood; Banker, S. Rogstad; Clerk, J. H. Greaves; re- cort, August Hoelling; Watchman, Everitt Burgess; Sentry, L. A. Loomis; Manager, Peter Joggie; Physician, Dr. Phil J. Keiser.

INFORMAL CHAT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kruse of North Bend have returned from a two weeks' visit in San Francisco.

Miss Laura Ruth, primary teach- er of the Millington school, left to- day for her home in Eugene to spend the Xmas season.

Mrs. H. Roswell and baby of North Bend will leave the middle of the month for a visit with her par- ents in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell and lit- tle daughter Ruth of Beaver Hill left this week for Diamondville, Wyoming where they will make their home in the future. Their many friends on the Bay regret their departure very much, and wish them joy and success in their new location, which is the former home of both Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

THE NEW CHRISTMAS JEWELRY

Is here and ready for your inspection. Leisurely inspec- tion is possible at this time but not for long. Already the early shoppers for holiday gifts are quietly choosing and buying while the selection is at its best and the lines un- broken.

This is essentially a store of service and it is for this reason that we urge upon you the advantage of choosing in advance of the usual holiday rush.

Artistic designs in silverware and jewelry give lasting pleasure. The large variety in our stock will enable you to find something suitable for your gift at a moderate cost.
