SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Monday
December 13.—Sun rises at 7:45 and sets at 4:26.

To Hold Examination.—Notices have been given out for the holding of a civil service examination on January 8, 1916, at the local Post-office, for a rural mail carrier.

To Play Basketball.—The first basketball game of the season in Marshfield will be played on Thursday evening in the local gymnasium when the high school five mixes with the North Bend team.

Takes Several Passengers.—Aboard the Adeline when she sailed south yesterday were the following passengers: C. H. Ross, A. A. Lezy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis, E. M. Peterson, C. H. Lloyd, Bert Nelson and A. Luberch.

No Council Tonight.—There will be no meeting of the city fathers this evening, as they adjourned for two weeks at the last meeting, at which time there are several matters of importance coming up for consideration.

Bar Survey Not Done.—The making of the Coos Bay bar survey, in charge of C. R. Wright, government engineer from Bandon, has not been completed, but it is expected that it will be very shortly and the maps made showing the present depths of water on the harbor entrance.

Had Excess Baggage.—H. Runonilla put too much freight and baggage on his forward deck Saturday night and the officers found him when he was within a stone's throw of going on the beach. He was declared intoxicated and put in the Hotel de Carter until yesterday morning.

Packages Pour in.—These are busy days at the Marshfield Post-office. Packages are coming in by the dozens to be weighed and stamped, getting ready for shipment north when the Kilburn goes on her return trip from San Francisco. From all indications there will be a heavy shipment of express from here to San Francisco and eastern points tomorrow morning.

School Meeting.—According to the announcements of the Kentuck Inlet school clerk there will be a meeting of the district patrons this evening to discuss various measures, one of them whether or not the ninth grade, that has been added to the curriculum this year, should be retained. There are other matters of importance that in all probability will be discussed.

Go To Sand Hills.—Frank Laise, J. Albert Matson and Sol Israel made a trip to the Sand Hills yesterday expecting to bring back a big bag of ducks but their expectations went awry. Mr. Laise says that Sol insisted on fitting different style and shaped hats on each of the Waupetas and once Sol, when he saw a flock of ducks about a mile high became so excited that Laise thought that he had fallen out of the boat.

Hooray! Raise Own Lemons.—Coos Bay can raise lemons, regular great big, honest to goodness lemons. This morning A. J. Harris brought a monster lemon in from his home on 10th street, a lemon that he had just picked off a tree in his yard. The exhibit was placed in the Chamber of Commerce and is as large as a good sized apple. Mr. Harris says the tree was planted by his father and that he sees no reason why lemons can not be raised here on Coos Bay.

Driftwood Fills Lake.—Deputy Game Warden Thomas says driftwood and branches brought down by the railroad graders has literally covered North Lake and filled the Passage into Ten Mile so that to get a boat through is practically an impossibility. He took up with C. P. McKnight, attorney for the S. P. the proposition of having the trash boomed during high water and burned in the summer. Mr. Thomas says it is dangerous to run a boat on North Lake at present.

Court Opens Today.—The regular term of the Circuit Court opened today at Coquille and this morning there were many attorneys going over on the train. The docket set for this term is a light one. The new grand jury meets today, the old one having been discharged Friday afternoon. The body will find there is little criminal business also. Among the attorneys going to Coquille this morning were Judge John S. Coke, Charles F. McKnight, J. T. Brand, A. S. Hammond, John D. Goss and Court Reporter A. B. Loud.

Court Sees Good Roads.—Chas. Hall, of the Coos and Curry Telephone Company, returned this afternoon from Portland, where he had been for several days on a business trip. He said that he attended one session of the county Judges and Commissioners held in Portland and that the Coos County delegation was given every opportunity to see and learn, first hand, what good roads look like and how they are made. On Friday evening Mr. Hall attended a banquet given the commissioners at the Commercial Club by the implement dealers of Portland.

Body Goes East.—The funeral of Arthur Hansen, who died Thursday at the Mercy Hospital, was held yesterday morning at the Dungan Undertaking Parlors and the body was shipped east via the beach route this morning. Hans Hanson, a brother, is accompanying the body East. There was a large number of friends in attendance yesterday morning to pay their last respects to the young man who in his two years' residence here had become very well known. The Ows attended in a body and the Odd Fellows took charge after the Rev. Foskett spoke.

Has Big Family.—Mrs. Brugi and eight children from Waupeta, North Dakota, arrived here today en route to Gold Beach. She lost her husband a year ago and said that the six months winters made it too hard and too expensive to live there. A son-in-law, Earl Thomas, and a nephew named Ralph live at Gold Beach and she is going there. The oldest of the eight children is eighteen and they attracted considerable attention here this morning. She said that they had money enough to get to Gold Beach so that the aid of people who volunteered to assist them was not required.
