After four years of married life she is suing him for a divorce on the grounds of incompatibility, alleging that he is shiftless and a spendthrift. She has long been wanting a home close in town, which has recently been made possible by the small monthly payment plan, in Perham Park, but he continues to spend his money foolishly. The hearing will take place before W. A. Reid in the near future.

Inside Facts

"I am convinced that the daily newspaper offers to a general advertiser of an article of home consumption the best medium and the one of the greatest known value. It affords the best means to accomplish the most essential thing in advertising, which is the establishment of a permanent mental impression in the minds of a large number of individuals.

"The newspaper is the best and surest medium for making this kind of an impression, because it permits the most frequent repetition of the merits or claims the advertiser wishes to advance. Day after day he can bring his facts to the minds of readers who are consumers, never permitting them to forget."

This statement is made by the ndvertising manager of one of our most successful food prod-

ATTACKED BY DEER

With a Big Buck

ROSEBURG, Ore., Dec. 15 .- John W. Hogg, an electric lineman of Sutherlin, was chased out of the are expecting to leave on the Ade- Luse deer park there, and had a line tomorrow or Saturday for narrow escape when the big king peatedly, tearing his clothes and wounding him in a number of placeer, returned to Bandon this morn- es. Hogg escaped from his predica-ing after a hurried trip to Port- ment by suddenly seizing the deer's antlers when it had butted against land to report the completion of the tree with the horns extending of the government jetty at Bandon, each side, and then kicking the imal in the head. The deer dislik-ed this treatment and fled when it finally broke loose, and Hogg went just as fast the other way.
