

It is a Man's Gift—Get it at the Man's Gift Store—
That means The Woolen Mills Store.

For the Ladies---

This list of helpful suggestions—but the men will find it useful, too.

Every gift is a practical one for a man—that's what insures true appreciation.

Pick any one of them and you can almost hear him say, as he opens the package on Christmas morn: "Well, here is something I can use."

When you've decided on the nature of the gift, you'll need our services to help you determine size, patterns, colors—all the little details must be carefully thought out to make his satisfaction complete. Only experience makes possible settling every question of detail just right—and we've had lots of experience.

Northern Pacific bound from San Francisco to Portland, where they will spend part of their honeymoon. Mr. Wolcott will return here about the first of the year, but Mrs. Wolcott will probably go East to visit relatives.

Husband Is Served.—Constable William Cox this morning served divorce papers on Edward A. Hamilton, an employee at the C. A. Smith mill. The papers come from York county, Maine, and are from Mrs. Hamilton who is suing for a separation on the grounds of desertion and cruel and inhuman treatment. Hamilton has been away from home about two years, it is said.

Secret Service Man Here.—W. A. Glover, government secret service operative, was here yesterday on unannounced business and left in the afternoon on the Kilburn, returning to Portland. Mr. Glover is the man who came here months ago when several men were arrested on the charge of counterfeiting over at Eastside, and later were sentenced to terms in the federal prison at McNellis Island on Puget Sound.

Making Final Proof.—Two Lakeside men were before Land Commissioner Arthur Peck today to make final proof on their homesteads in the Ten Mile district. One was John F. Verring, and his witnesses were O. V. Thornton, J. P. Davis, H. B. Fulton and J. E. McCullough. The other making final proof was Charles Ollef and his witnesses were Fred P. Krick, J. V. Magee, Charles St. Dennis and Harry Wilkins.

Council to Meet.—The city fathers are expecting to meet in the city hall at eight o'clock this evening, after a vacation of a couple of weeks. There are some street matters that will be up for action, though possibly very little other business. In all probability the next meeting of the city dads will be on January 3, 1916, when the new Council members take their positions and Mayor Cople will then announce his appointments.

"Snoot" Is Overloaded.—On Saturday Arthur Porter felt so very sorry that the new year will be a dry one that he started laying in a supply to carry him through at least a part of the drought. He made the mistake of laying it away inside and so overloaded his "snoot" that he wasn't able to walk a chalk line when the officers took pity on him and also took him to the Hotel de Carter. He had no money for a general fund contribution.

Goes Back to Mexico.—Friends here have received word from Rudolph Cople, who for more than a year was employed as a bookkeeper with H. W. Painter Company. He left here a few weeks ago to join his brother in Los Angeles. Mr. Cople writes that after a visit to the San Diego Exposition he is now on his way to his home in Matzalan, Mexico, where he expects to remain for a time. Because of the revolution and continual unrest in his home country, Mr. Cople left there for the States until quiet had been restored. His father owns extensive interests in and about Matzalan.

PERSONAL MENTION

MRS. T. J. MACGENN and daughter of Empire were in the city today. R. P. DANIELS was in from Bridge over Sunday on a short business visit.

JOHN D. GOSS went over to Coquille this morning on court matters.

MISS JANE SIESTREEM, of Lakeside was a shopping visitor here today.

L. B. LARSON, of Lakeside, came in this morning on the North Star on business.

C. W. GIBES, prominent farmer of the North Inlet section, was here this morning.

MRS. E. C. ARCHER, of North Inlet was here today doing some Christmas shopping.

CAPTAIN A. H. OLSON, of North Inlet, was down this morning on some business matters.

MISS NELLIE BARTON, of Myrtle Point, was a passenger north on the Kilburn yesterday afternoon.

J. L. AASEN was among the Coquille visitors who spent the week end in the city.

MRS. J. E. PAULSON, of Coquille, came over on Saturday to spend yesterday with friends.

FRANK DENNING left for Roseburg on the morning train, being called there by the death of his father.

HENRY SENGSTACKE returned Saturday evening from a trip to Portland to meet with the government engineers.

MRS. OLE SEVERSON, wife of the proprietor of the Lakeside Hotel, and two children, came in this morning on a shopping trip.

FRANK H. PAGE returned to his home in Portland on the Kilburn after visiting through his territory in Coos County.

T. J. THRIFT, County Assessor, returned to Coquille again this (thing the same as at the main Postoffice. F. M. Parsons has been named as Postmaster at the branch office.

Home for Christmas.—After an extended Eastern trip Herbert Lockhart telegraphs Mrs. Lockhart that he will reach Marshfield Thursday, coming home in time to spend Christmas 'mid the green hills of old Coos.

Home From College.—The Coquille Sentinel says: "Miss Naomi Knowlton and Miss Edna Harlocker, who are students at the University of California, came home for the holiday vacation, arriving on the Speedwell."

Will Move to Rauch.—F. A. Sacchi will next week move to his Catching Inlet ranch and personally take charge of his dairy herd there. He will retain his milk depot in this city and the place will be in charge of R. J. Sacchi.

Court In Session.—Court is in session this morning at Coquille where Judge Coke has a grist of divorce cases coming up before him, in addition to the hearing of demurs. There is no criminal business this week and no jury cases until January 4.

Opens Store At Powers.—Mrs. M. E. Raymond this morning opened a book, stationery and variety store at Powers in the Raymond building which has just been completed by S. Raymond, of Marshfield. The location is very close to the new bank of E. J. Loney.

Get Host of Ducks.—The bag of 38 ducks reported by John D. Goss, I. R. Tower, Ray Kaufman and J. C. Kendall from Beal Lake on Saturday and Sunday is one of the largest of the season. They say there was not a mud hen in the bunch. The party returned last evening.

Had Accident.—Mr. Burton who lives on a ranch above Camp One was in town Saturday night and reported that they had a bad accident Friday at Smith-Powers Camp One on South Coos River. The lowering machine was broken and two cars badly wrecked on the steep incline.

Visits His Son.—Fred J. Smith, of San Francisco, representative of the Mergenthaler Linotype Company, arrived in the city on the Kilburn. He is here partly on business and also to visit his son, Fred W. Smith, advertising man on the Record. He will leave Thursday for his home, expecting to arrive there in time for Christmas.

It Doesn't Come on Sunday.—The pessimist has one thing for which he is truly thankful and this is that tomorrow, the shortest day of the year, falls on a work day and not on Sunday. December 21 marks the end of the dark mornings and the darkness of the late afternoons, and from then on the sun will start coming northward again.

Trip North.—C. W. Wolcott yesterday received a wireless from his brother, Dwight Wolcott. Mr. Wolcott and his bride were on the

How to Find The Finder

Assume that the finder of your lost article is honest, and nine times out of ten you'll be right. Want Advertise for it promptly, and nine times out of ten you will recover it. Indicate your ability to prove ownership, and desire to reward finder. This reward should be a fair one, and named in your ad. You see now and then a valuable article is returned by the finder—who may be poor—and a mean and miserly "reward" tendered. That discourages some finders from trying to find the losers of jewelry or money—especially, so, make your ad definite.
