CASE HARD FOUGHT

WIFE SEEKS SEPARATE MAINTENANCE FROM HUSBAND

Mrs. Prewitt, of Bandon, Secures Monthly Sum of $25 Pending Further Order of the Court

For a day and a half and with a late night session thrown in Judge Coke heard a separate maintenance case in the Circuit Court at Coquille. The action was brought by Mrs. Lillie Prewitt, of Bandon, against her husband, David H. Prewitt, asking $50 a month. The man and wife are not living together.

The action comes at the end of 20 years of married life. Mr. Prewitt is a prominent and well-to-do dairyman from below Bandon.

Mrs. Prewitt had been granted a separate maintenance of $25.00 a month pending the suit, and the court ordered the continuance of this sum until the further order of the court. There was no divorce granted.

There are two daughters, and the younger was given into the custody of the father, the other daughter, only 16 years of age, having been married a short time ago.

The case was particularly hard fought and family skeletons were dragged in for the inspection of the court.

Judge Coke tried six divorce cases, all of them from points in the Coquille Valley.

GLENADA ELECTS

Siuslaw Town Selects Officers for the Next Year

A city election was held at Glenada, the town opposite Florence, on the Siuslaw River, says the Florence West. The total vote cast was 83. The vote for different candidates was as follows:

For Mayor, L. E. Johnson, 42;
J. W. Windom, 36.
For Councilman, second ward, H. G. Nute, 26; Wm. Pool, 10.
For Recorder, C. E. Harwood, 47; Ed. T. Maher, 31.
For Treasurer, N. B. Hull, 59; W. S. Hatch, 18.

PLENTY OF TURKEYS

BUTCHERS LAY IN THEIR SUPPLIES—PRICES ARE STEADY

One Man Combs Coos and Curry and Finds Supply Not Much in Advance of the Demands

There will be plenty of turkeys to supply the Christmas market and the same prices will prevail that were in effect at Thanksgiving time, is the announcement of the butchers. But in stating this, they say that there will be none too many of the birds in the market, the county having been practically combed for the needed supply.

J. E. Ford is back from a long horseback trip. He said that he rode something like 300 miles. Down in Curry he was able to get hold of only about 30 turkeys, getting the remainder of his 200 from along the Coquille River and east to the Douglas County line.

For Thanksgiving hundreds of turkeys were shipped in here from the surrounding sections and also many came up from the Ten Mile section, but at no time has the supply been much in advance of the demand.

AMONG THE SICK

Thelma Wilson, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson, has been quite ill of the grippe.

Glen Kinney, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kinney, is quite seriously ill of pneumonia.

F. V. Catterlin is confined to his home by an attack of la grippe.

Wayne Harris who has been quite ill of pleurisy and heart trouble is reported improving.

Mrs. Jas Bering who has been confined to her home for a week by la grippe is improving.

Back from Fair.—J. W. Tribbey, city building inspector, returned last evening on the stage from San Francisco where for the past five months he has been on the grounds of the Panama Pacific Exposition exhibiting a patent gate. He says that there is a chance of his disposing of the patent to some manufacturing company, but nothing is definite.

WIND HALTS STAGE

NO PASSENGERS THROUGH IN TWO DAYS

Heavy Southwest Winds Making Northward Traveling Easy, but Coming Back Is Hard Job

High southwest winds for two days have prevented the beach stages from getting through from the Siuslaw. It is expected that the stage will be through today however and should arrive here about seven o'clock.

Drivers on the stage route claim that the wind blew so heavily from the south that the machines could travel northward at a lively clip but could make but little headway on the return trip. On neither day were the autos able to wait long enough for the stages to come through from the Siuslaw.

It is said that the seas this time were not pounding high on the seawall, as they did two weeks ago during the heavy storm that swept the Oregon coast from the south.

It is expected there will be many passengers through this evening from Gardiner, where they have gathered for two days.

Wind Blows Hard

Passengers who left Florence day before yesterday said that on the trip to the Umpqua the wind blew so hard that the machines were slowed down and often had to shift from high to low gears in order to get their speed started up again.

Sand blew about them like an eastern snowstorm and made driving particularly difficult. These passengers waited over in Gardiner waiting for the stage that brought them to Coos Bay last evening.

HUB STORE NEWS

The Hub Clothing and Shoe Company is now operating three stores in Marshfield—the Front Street Hub, the Central Avenue Hub and the Lando Store.

Each store is distinct from the others, although under the same ownership and management. Each has its individual features and attractions, but all are similar in policy—to give the public the most and the best for their money.

The Hub Clothing and Shoe Company has been operating for years in Coos County and everyone is familiar with its methods of business. The success that we have enjoyed and our rapid growth and extension to meet the needs of the communities we serve is absolute evidence that our policies and business methods are correct.

A short time ago we found a demand and an opportunity for opening a new men's store on Central Avenue in the Irving block adjoining our ladies furnishings and dry goods store—opening up and connecting under one roof everything for men, women and children to wear. This new store—The Central Avenue Hub—is now open for business and a little later we will announce the formal opening of this store—the most attractive in fixtures, merchandise and convenient in arrangements to be found anywhere—a store that everyone in Marshfield and Coos County, as well as ourselves can feel proud of.

The Lando Store on Front Street, which we are now operating and closing out came upon us unexpectedly. We are closing out the large Lando stock as rapidly as possible, and the bargain prices are accomplishing this quickly.

We are talking over the matter with you now because the time is most opportune and because we want you to appreciate to the full extent our methods and share with us what they mean to you.

At this time of heavy buying when getting just what you want for gifts and effecting a saving thereby, the three stores of the Hub Clothing and Shoe Company and their large stocks of serviceable, stylish goods, mean much to every one of you.

Therefore, avail yourself of our superior facilities and stocks and do your Christmas shopping at a Hub Store.
