

Duke Helps Dear Old Santa Claus

I heard an awful commotion Christmas Eve

-on the house roof, I investigated-

-and found old Santa stuck in the chimney-

-I pulled him out in a jiffy-

He said he was so late that he'd like to have me put

-the Christmas presents on the tree for the family - It was great fun, except-

-when I hung mama's new pony coat, that made me feel as if I was at a funeral-

Next morning Andy and Wendy thought my tracks were reindeer tracks

PLAY THIS INTERESTING CHRISTMAS GAME

ANNA BELLE Enjoys Christmas

Dear Friends:—I always enjoy the Xmas holidays more than any other time of the year and I think all of us should be thankful that we can have a happy Xmas when lots of little children in Europe and all over the world won't get a visit from Santa Claus on account of the terrible war. I feel so sorry for them as I know how it would be for me if I should wake up on Xmas morning and find nothing had been left in my stocking. Last year I tried to send a bunch of toys to the poor European children, but so many of them were lost that I haven't attempted it this year.

Have you written to me lately and are you interested in our ANNA BELLE SEWING SOCIETY work? If you haven't gotten your Certificate of Membership now is the time to do so by writing me care of this paper, enclosing a two-cent stamp for postage and I'll be only too glad to send you one. Or, if you're an officer in your society will send as many as you wish for yourself and members. Remember we want to make our Society grow and grow and grow, and it takes all of us pulling our very best to do it. This is the time of year when we can do the most good and make poor boys and girls know that they have friends in need. Write me all the news in your next letter, for I'm always interested in everything you do. Lovingly,
Anna Belle
