Donates Telephones

On the Christmas tree of the telephone operators Friday afternoon hung many little telephones, one for each of the guests.

License Tags Appear

Owners of autos are responding to the appeal of the Secretary of State, that they renew their license tags at once.

No Alarms Sent In

Despite the hundreds of Christmas trees in the city during the week end, and the hundreds of lighted candles, there was not a single fire alarm sent in for the fire department, which is surveyed by the firemen with satisfaction.

No School Today

These next five days are to be holidays for the pupils of the local school, thus giving them plenty of time to try out and break up the new toys brought by Santa Claus and also to allow others to get over the effects of the Christmas turkey and its trimmings.

Spent a Happy Day

Andrew Luckwater got tangled up with a "bunch" of firewater, and for his mistake in judgment, spent a portion of yesterday in the Hotel de Carter. But, nevertheless, Luckwater was a happy mortal.

Aid Tariff Legislation

Many inquiries are being received here from the National Chamber of Commerce regarding the sentiment toward the establishment of a permanent tariff commission.
