

Say this to yourself: "I'm going to save money this year." It's one of the best New Year resolutions that we know of, and here's a good way to start right:

Wear Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

If you've been going to a good tailor, your savings on suits alone for a year will be about like this: 3 tailor-made suits at $50.....$150 3 Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits equal or better in quality, style and fit 75 Your saving$ 75	If you've been buying low-priced clothes, your saving for a year will be about like this: 3 suits at $17.50 $52.50 2 Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits at $20 will outwear the three $17.50 Suits, and you'll have more style and a better fit 40.00 Your saving$12.50

And in addition to this we keep your clothes pressed free of charge

We're ready to show you

North Bend

Will Close Tomorrow.—The library will be closed tomorrow in observance of New Year's Day.

New Teacher.—Miss Margaret Gill of the San Jose Normal School has arrived in North Bend to fill the vacancy in the teaching staff there caused by the resignation of Miss Pauline Bahr.

Real Hard Cider.—Deputy Sheriff Laird came over last night on business. He said that the fishtrap escapade resulted from the men making some hard cider by mixing in corn juice.

New Year's Service.—There will be a New Year's service tomorrow at the Swedish Lutheran Church in Marshfield, at 11 a. m. At two o'clock in the afternoon the confirmation class will meet.

No One In.—In spite of the fact that the wet season is closing, there was no one in the city jail last night for being drunk. The streets were quiet throughout the evening and what little crowd there was about kept very quiet and orderly.

Community Sing.—Sunday evening the first of the monthly community sings will be held at the Marshfield Presbyterian Church. It will begin at 7:30 and continue for fifty minutes and will be in charge of Miss Volz and Miss Mary Kruse. The public is invited and the songs sung will be chosen by the audience.

Makes Bad Mistake.—E. L. McClure got hold of the wrong kind of pills by mistake last night and not until he had swallowed two bi-chloride of mercury tablets did he make the discovery. At once he used first aid measures and Dr. Horsfall was hastily summoned. This quick action possibly saved his life as these tablets are deadly poison.

Craft is Quite Nautical.—A model of a four-masted bark has been placed in one of the windows of the Blanco Hotel. The craft is made with a hull of wood and sails of tin. The rigging is neat and furthermore is quite correct and to fit the fancy of any old tar. A model of this sort generally takes weeks of very careful work in the making.

Get Mail at Window.—There will be no mail deliveries in the city tomorrow. The carriers are going to take a rest. The general delivery window will be open between 11 and 12 o'clock. Patrons who ordinarily have their mail delivered may get it during this hour by calling at the office. Christmas is the only legal holiday during which the carriers and Postoffice forces work the greater part of the day.

Died in LaGrande.—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Jas. Schilling at LaGrande. She was the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Glazer of Bap Park and a sister of R. F. Smith, A. J. Smith and O. P. Smith of the Mercantile Cafe, Mrs. Schilling formerly lived at Eastport, moving from here about five years ago. R. F. Smith who went to La Grande to attend the funeral is expected home soon.

Firemen to Give Hop.—"First dance of the year" is the slogan of the Firemen's Dance to be given tomorrow evening at Eagles Hall. The fireboys have been working industriously and already have sold about 150 tickets. They have secured Martin's Orchestra for the evening. This is one of a series of dances to be given by the fire department in the interests of the fire alarm system. They already have several hundred dollars accumulated for this purpose.

Are Expected to Move.—J. A. Walker, who conducts the Walker Studio, at the corner of Front and Central, expects to move January 1 to the Williams Building. His place of business will open on Curtis Avenue, in the rear of the postoffice. J. H. Stadden is also expected to move his studio to the same location, having secured a portion of the big room for his photographic business. The Coos Bay Stationery company will also move from the building on Central avenue around to the Blanco building on Front street. It is said R. M. Sarter is figuring on leasing the vacated quarters for his confectionery store.
