ECONOMY

The Council's Slogan The new city council was duly inaugurated last evening and the new regime of Economy was immediately put into effect. The cutting off of one police office and the consolidation of the offices of the street commissioner and building inspector will effect a material saving. Every taxpayer is in sympathy with any plan of economy, providing it proves a real economy in the end. Economy should be the watchword in every home. One of the first economies to practice is the elimination of the rent problem by owning your own home. This is now made possible by the small monthly payment plan.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Tuesday January 4 — Sun rises at 7:53 and sets at 4:39.

Reduce Phone Rate.—The Coos and Curry Telephone company has reduced the extra charge on desk telephones from fifty to twenty-five cents per month.

Postpone Meeting.—The business meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Aid which was announced for tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. F. E. Wheeler, has been postponed.

Kloster Club Change.—The meeting of the Marshfield Kloster Club, which will be entertained this week by Mrs. W. A. Reid, has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday afternoon.

Swedish Lutheran Aid.—The Ladies Aid Society of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 5th, in the church hall. Mrs. C. J. Hillstrom and Mrs. Wm. Hagquist will entertain.

Christian Church Meeting.—The annual meeting of the congregation of the Marshfield Christian church will be held Thursday evening when officers will be elected for the ensuing year and a banquet enjoyed.

Officer Fails to Come.—Though police have four boys rounded up and ready for the juvenile court at Coquille the probation officer, Hark Dunham, has not yet put in an appearance. County Judge Watson said over the telephone late yesterday that he would take the matter up at once.

Several On Speedwell.—There were eight passengers aboard the Speedwell when she sailed this morning for San Francisco and San Diego. They were Jack Fuller, Martin Webber, Tom Beck, E. W. Gould, Mrs. R. J. Galbraith, Mrs. F. W. Worthington, E. Karvin and E. J. Peters.

Relief Came Too Late.—In the hold of the steamship Kilburn are some 50 cases of liquor that was to have arrived in Portland to relieve the drought before the state went dry. The vessel was bar bound at Eureka and arrived in Portland on New Years day. The cases are now being returned to San Francisco.

Returns to North Bend.—Miss Dorothy Kibler, who has been in California for many months past, has returned to North Bend and is again hnotype operator at the Coos Bay Harbor office. On her way home from the South she stopped at Point Terrace on the Siuslaw River to spend the holidays with her parents.

Now at Alhambra.—Colonel William Grimes writes to friends from Alhambra, California, from the address of 212 South Cordova street, and it is expected that he and Mrs. Grimes will remain there for quite a visit. They have been gone now for several months.

Again We Are Mentioned.—In the copy of the Trade and Crop Bulletin of Seattle, the Coos and Curry counties are given good mention and described as sections which are now on the eve of becoming known to the world through the opening of the railroad.

Much Parcel Post Comes.—The shipment of parcel post arriving on the Kilburn today was almost as large as the shipment received the day before Christmas. There were about 300 sacks and big parcels. Much of this consists of delayed Christmas packages, arriving in Portland too late to catch the Kilburn on her last trip.

Mill Starts Again.—The Porter Mill started up again this morning after being broke down since 11:30 yesterday. A pin in the large band saw gave way and the saw was broken. The millwrights went to work at once on the repairing. Foreman Clyde was on for his first day and was hoping to make a good run, but the accident interfered.

Is Still In Bad Shape.—Milton Hirst was still in a bad plight today, suffering from delerium tremens. For years he has been a heavy drinker. He told the doctor that he had had nothing to drink since Friday night. An attendant is necessary in Hirst's room at the Central Hotel. He created a big furore before a doctor was summoned yesterday. There is a possibility that the attack may prove fatal.

Making Carl Room.—Herman Hillyer is making some extensive improvements at his cigar store. He has taken the two rooms above the store and will throw them into one large apartment and make a comfortable card room for his patrons. The second story will be reached by a stairway from the inside of the cigar store. The stairway is now being built and the second floor of the store fully equipped will soon be ready to open.

Firemen to Banquet.—February 22 has been set as the date for the annual banquet of the Marshfield Volunteer Fire Department. The proceeds of the dance given recently will go into the fund which provides for the banquet, for the uniforms and other expenses of the firemen. They will have something like $70 which will be put into a fire alarm system whenever the city shows an inclination to aid, say the firemen.

Called to Portland.—Rev. Father Hogan who has been rector of the Catholic church at North Bend has been called to Portland and will be assigned to another place. For the present Father Michael Wallace, assistant to Father McDewitt in Marshfield, will temporarily take charge of the North Bend mission until another priest is sent to North Bend. The three priests are needed on the bay on account of the extensive territory which they must cover, there being missions both south and north of here which must be looked after.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. F. R. Kirk is under the care of a physician today, suffering from the grippe.

Lawrence Koontz was kept home today from school on account of an infection on his knee.

C. W. Brown was able to return to the McDonald and Vaughn camp on Coos River today after being sick for several days.

Claude Tucker, auto driver, went to the hospital again today. Some time ago he had his leg broken and he has since been lame and the intention is to operate in the hopes of entirely eliminating the lameness.

C. C. Pratt is down with a bad case of the grippe. He has just recovered from another illness.

Now at Alhambra.—Colonel William Grimes writes to friends from Alhambra, California, from the address of 212 South Cordova street, and it is expected that he and Mrs. Grimes will remain there for quite a visit. They have been gone now for several months.

TRUCK SINKS DOWN IS MARRIED TODAY

LOGGING WAGONS MAKE OWN HOLES AND GET STALLED

Paving Gives Way and Loggers Delayed for Hours—Big Hole Is One of Many on Streets

Logging trucks have worn such a deep hole, corner of Central and Fourth streets, that they fell in this morning and stuck there for several hours. All sorts of jacks and timbers were placed under the heavy wagons in efforts to get the wheels raised.

This is one of many holes made along the streets. Councilman Cook declared that the wagons have been stuck there many times.

Heavy weights of the loads gradually wore the hole deeper and broader. Rock was thrown in as a filler, but this was crushed into mud. Street Commissioner Carl Albrecht at once started work to aid in getting the truck out and filling the hole.

PENDELTON—The Indians at Umatilla reservation at their New Years' celebration had a feast of jackrabbit stew.

MISS MYRTLE SMITH, DAUGHTER OF C. A. SMITH A BRIDE

The Groom is Phillip Rodgers, of Philadelphia — They Met in Hawaiian Islands

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Smith, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, and Phillip Rodgers, of Philadelphia, takes place today at Berkeley, California, where the Smith family has a home on Avalon avenue. Miss Smith has visited in Marshfield and is known to a number here, and has been prominent in social circles in Berkeley since she came with the family from Minneapolis four years ago to reside on the coast. The wedding is the culmination of a romance which started in the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their daughter visited there last year and Miss Smith became acquainted with Mr. Rodgers, who was then in charge of a large sugar plantation on the islands. He has recently been in Philadelphia, and came West for the wedding.

It is understood here that the couple will reside in Hawaii.

YOUNG FOLKS PARTY

One of the most delightful of Young Folks gatherings on New Year Eve was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Woodring. The rooms were attractively decorated with greens in keeping with holiday season.

Delightful games were played and at midnight luncheon was served. The invitation list included Misses Gladie Marshall, Clara Sargent, Augusta Michlem, Zola Woodring, Civa Woodring, and Vie Mickleim, and Messrs: Edgar Dungan, Bill Woodring, Roy Fuller, John Marshall, Dud Hill and Howard Edwards.

PECULIAR CASE

Mrs. S. V. Epperson of Coquille, was nursing her left hand the first of this week with a case of blood poisoning resulting from a singular cause. The circulation of the finger on which she wore her wedding ring was interfered with when the ring became too tight, and she had to get it sawed into by V. R. Wilson. But she didn't get rid of it quickly enough, hence the blood poisoning.—Coquille Sentinel.

ATTENTION EAGLES

There will be installation of officers in Eagles Lodge Wednesday evening in the lodge hall. Big time and a big feed. Be sure to come. F. R. KIRK, Worthy President.

FINED FOR ASSAULT

L. D. Payne of North Bend Accused of Making Attack

L. D. Payne, a longshoreman of North Bend, was before City Recorder Maybee of that city today to answer a charge of assaulting Charles Helsen. It was alleged that Helsen was a sickly man and that the assault took place in the Helsen home. Recorder Maybee fined Payne $25, and suspended the fine on the understanding that Payne stay away from the Helsen home.

The North Bend Longshoremen's union voted unanimously to expel Payne from the union, it was stated today.

WILL MINE GOLD

Company Starts Operation on Coast Above Bandon

The Gold Beach Metal Company, which has been preparing to operate at Cut Creek, a point on the coast above Bandon, has been working eight men for the past three months, installing machinery and making ready a pump and ground sluice for mining, says the Coquille Sentinel. The company expects to take out gold and platinum. They have a steam engine that will throw a hydraulic stream from a 2 1/2-inch hose with a pressure of 150 pounds to the square inch, and it will tear out enough sand to warrant about 100 yards each day. The company expects to start active operations immediately after January 1 and will work the remainder of the winter. The mine will employ five men when it starts.

WATERFRONT NEWS

At eight o'clock this morning the steamer schooner A. M. Simpson crossed in from San Francisco and is loading again at the Porter Mill. The steam schooner Hardy expects to be loaded sometime this evening and to get away in the morning for San Francisco. The steamer Speedwell finished her cargo at North Bend and sailed this morning at 10 o'clock for San Francisco.
