NEW ORLEANS, LA., Jan. 18.- Judge Garsay Belligerents are Expects of Men and Money - MRR. 3881

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.- Judge C. W. Smith, of the United States Court of Claims, said a statement made by the plaintiff would show that the poor conditions in the steel industry, which are the cause of the strike, were not due to the fault of the defendant.

The credit in the United States is in the condition of the banks, Judge Smith said, and the credit of the banks is in the condition of the steel industry.

The banks have the funds to give credit to anybody if the condition is right.

The banks are not going to be able to make the industry prosperous if the condition is wrong.

But the banks are willing to give credit to anybody if the condition is right.

The banks are going to be able to make the industry prosperous if the condition is right.
