

TRACY IN MIXUP WILL COME TO BAY TAKES GREAT SKILL OFFICERS ELECTED

FORMER COOS BAY MAN IN SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Motor Car Which He Was Driving Runs Down Two Men, Perhaps Fatally Injuring One

Mr. Ernest Whiteside, of 977 Cordero Street, Vancouver, was seriously and probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock, when he stepped from off the curb on the east side of Government Street, in front of the Empress Hotel, and was knocked down and run over by a motor car driven by Edward Tracey and conveying Lieut-Col. Henniker, O. C. of the 103rd Regiment, Major Spurgeon, Capt. N. A. Foster and Private Brockhurst, of the same regiment.

Mr. Whiteside, with a friend named Mr. Ross Jones, also of Vancouver, were on their way to the C. P. R. wharves to board the boat for Vancouver. The inmates of the motor car were also bound for the boat. Evidently Messrs. Whiteside and Jones failed to notice the approaching car and they stepped off the sidewalk directly in front of it. Both were struck and knocked down, but Mr. Jones apparently was not injured for he was promptly upon his feet. The front wheels of the motor ran over Mr. Whiteside as he lay on the pavement and to release him the machine had to be backed. He was unconscious and was promptly picked up by soldiers nearby and the officers, placed in the motor and rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Raynor.

Spectators of the accident stated that the motor was not proceeding more than eight or nine miles an hour, and Tracey, the driver, reported to the police that the machine was in good working order and stopped immediately he put on the brakes, which he did when he saw the two men step out in front of the machine. But the momentum carried the car forward and it was absolutely impossible to avoid the accident. He had time only to sound his horn and apply the brakes when the collision occurred.

Besides a fractured collar bone, the victim of the accident is suffering from internal injuries, which are serious, and while Dr. Raynor last night expressed the hope that he would pull through, he stated it would be impossible to arrive at any definite conclusion until today.

Mr. Whiteside's father, who is a resident of Nanaimo, was notified yesterday of the accident to his son.

J. T. SULLIVAN OF BANDON WILL MOVE TO MARSHFIELD SOON

Will Take Charge of Central Avenue Hub Store Here—Was Formerly in Marshfield.

J. T. Sullivan, a former well-known Marshfield man, but for the past few years a resident of Bandon, where he has had the management of the Hub Clothing & Shoe Company Store, will move to Marshfield next Sunday to take the management of the Central Avenue Hub Store here. Ted Peterson, formerly of Marshfield, but for the past few years associated with Mr. Sullivan in the Bandon store, will be in charge there for the time being and later Joe Roberts, now in charge of the closing-out sale of the Lando Store, will probably be transferred there.

The news of Mr. Sullivan's return will be gratifying to his many friends on Coos Bay.

Nearly all of the stock for the new store has arrived and it is planned to have a big formal opening of the new store before long.

WAR AIDS FARMERS TO PAY MORTGAGES

Corn Prices Soar and Cotton Also Booms Says Lew Price Who Has Been Through Middle West

War in Europe has been a direct boon to the farmers of the middle west, according to Lew F. Price, who is just back from there. He said that farmers got a better price for their corn than in years and that now most of the crop has been sold off.

Cotton, that last year went begging on the market at 10 cents and sometimes as low as six and seven cents, this year is selling way above the former prices and already is scarce.

These conditions have enabled many farmers to pay off mortgages on their places and have put them back on solid financial foundations.

OPERATIONS FOR DOUBLE CLUB FOOT FIRST OF KIND HERE

Little Maid May Be Enabled to Walk Correctly Through Efforts of Three Local Surgeons

Two operations for double club foot, said to be the first operations of this kind on Coos Bay have just been performed. The patient is Miss Nadene Armfield, the 11 year old niece of Mrs. J. T. Colver, of Catching Inlet, and the surgeons are Drs. Houseworth, L. G. Johnson and E. E. Straw.

The little patient is now lying in bed at the Mercy Hospital. For three months probably both her feet will remain encased in plaster casts. At the end of that time the casts will be removed. Then, and not until then, will it be known whether or not the operations have been successful.

Expect to be Successful If they are, and the doctors believe that they will be, the little girl will gradually become able to stand on her feet and walk the same as do other children.

Before the operations both of her feet turned in so that she practically walked on her ankles. A brief explanation of these highly technical operations is that the main tendon leading down to the big toe, there are two in fact, was severed and crossed over to the inside of the foot there to be joined to another tendon. That this new cord might be strong enough to stand the strain of walking, a part of the main tendon that comes down the forepart of the leg was split off and joined to the other two.

There were several other things done, so the doctors state and now they think that after the plaster cast period is finished the little miss will gradually be able to get about without any difficulty.

The two operations were on two days, the surgeons attending to one foot at a time, taking about 60 minutes to each.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. A. Z. Dowas is recovering and getting along nicely after her operation this week at Mercy Hospital.

Wayne Harris was able to return to school today after a very serious illness.

John Dashney was able to be down town this week in his machine. He was seriously injured in a logging camp at Powers several weeks ago when a cable tightened suddenly and struck him in the back.

Jack Guyton is confined to his home today on account of an attack of the grippe.

L. G. Meeks is reported quite sick at his home in Coonston. He is suffering from a complication of influenza.

RECEIPTS FALL OFF

Not So Much Taken In At the Post Office

The receipts of the Marshfield post office for this last quarter were $4,497.22, according to Postmaster Hugh McLain. This is about $200 less than the receipts of the quarter before that. Because of the European war and the cutting down of mail shipments to the warring countries the receipts for the year will be considerably less than what they were last year.
