The Pantry Raiders

School's out. The children are home raiding the pantry for something to eat, sweets preferred. Their health demands that you give them nourishing food easily assimilated.

A cup of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate—made in a minute, a tablespoonful to the cup, a cent's worth—is the solution.

For growing children Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is just the thing—richer in tissue building material than any other food you can give them.

PLEASANT SOCIAL

One of the happiest social events of the holiday season took place on Tuesday evening when a large company of friends gathered in the Lutheran Hall to give a public reception to Rev. Albert F. Bassford, who was formerly for several years the well-known pastor of the local Baptist church.

A delightful spirit of good fellowship pervaded the reception as the occasion was a kind of reunion of old friends. A splendid and highly entertaining literary and musical program was given by some of the friends present to the manifest pleasure of their auditors.

The ladies served an elaborate and satisfying spread which left nothing to be desired in that respect. Late in the evening Rev. Bassford brought a happy and long to be remembered evening to a close with a short remittance address followed by prayer and the benediction.

The program and names of those present were as follows: Hymn by audience. Invocation... Rev. W. N. Lyons Instrumental music... Mrs. C. S. Hoffman.

Reading... Miss Carrie Ross Music... Miss Myrl Cox Reading... Miss Bessie Flanagan Reading... Miss Rilla Ross Reading... Mrs. John Nagle Solo... Miss Bessie Ayre Reading... Mrs. Harris Trio... Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ayre and Miss Bessie Ayre. Dialogue... Mrs. Chas Doane and Clifford Doane.

Address and benediction by Rev. Albert F. Bassford. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoffman, Rev. and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Patchett, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ayre, Mr. and Mrs. C. O.
