Shipments Over Coquille Bar Were Large During 1915

Nearly 160 million pounds of products were shipped out over the bar of the Coquille River during the year 1915. The figures which have just been compiled and which are published in the Bandon Recorder, make a fine showing for that harbor. The figures in detail are given below, and were prepared by C. M. Spencer, who has kept track of all the shipments: OUTWARD BOUND.
