

Clearance Sale On Overcoats & Raincoats 1/3 off on all Men's Overcoats & Raincoats

$30.00 now $20.00
25.00 now 16.65
20.00 now 13.65
15.00 now 10.00

Woolen Mill Stores
Marshfield North Bend

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONALS

Summer Club.—The Summer Sewing Club is being entertained by Mrs. Lulu Gray at her home there today.

Will Give Dance.—F. E. Conway and wife have issued invitations for a dance at the Myrtle Arms Friday evening.

Gets Out Log.—The McDonald & Vaughn camp at Daniels Creek, moved to Summer today and will take a position in the new logging camp there.

Play Here.—The Coos River High School basketball team will play the Eighth grade basketball team at the Marshfield gymnasium Thursday night.

Moves to Summer.—Fay Matson, who has long been with the McDonald & Vaughn camp at Daniels Creek, moved to Summer today and will take a position in the new logging camp there.

To Sanitarium.—Judge Watson was today requested to send Fred Aasen, formerly of South Inlet, but located at Camp One for the past year, to the Oregon Hospital for tubercular patients. Aasen has a wife and two children and they have been cared for by the Smith-Powers Company for the past year and it is feared that unless he is sent away, his wife and children may contract the disease.

Curry Pioneer Ill.—M. Doyle, a prominent pioneer of Wedderburn and well known on Coos Bay, has been quite ill according to reports received here.

Starts First Edition.—Ronald McGeorge is starting the first edition of a new trade publication that he will call The Chatterbox and which he is getting out in connection with his typewriting business.

Mail Comes In.—All of the mail was able to come through this morning, so that now Coos Bay is caught up to date again in its deliveries. The mail carriers this morning had their bags carrying loads about the city.

Gets Pla's.—Fred Magnusson has about completed his plans for the $3000 residence which W. T. Still will erect in Perham Park. The plans will be ready for the contractors in a few days.

Eastside Council.—The Eastside city council will meet next Tuesday night to take up various matters. It was stated by Eastside parties today that the much talked of election contest there would be dropped.

Case Was Expensive One.—The cost of hearing the trial of William Shook, in Portland, cost the government in the neighborhood of $3,000, it is estimated. On the last trial four witness came from Gold Beach and they received something like $102 a piece for coming, and the

MEN WANTED

To see our MILWAUKEE KING BOOTS, 16-inch high top, made of Smoke Veal tan leather, with Good-year Welt; made as near waterproof as any leather can be made. They have been selling from $9.00 to $9.50. We now offer them for $7.00

Men's heavy double-sole Napa tan winter shoes that are selling elsewhere for $5.00. We are offering them now at this store for $3.95

Mining shoes for men, made up in good solid leather, plain toe and double soles. This shoe sells most everywhere for $3.50. We now offer them for $2.75

Boys' School Shoes, lace, bellows tongue. This shoe is absolutely all leather. The very shoe for boys, that are hard on shoes. Price... $2.00 to $2.00.

Come in and let us show you before buying elsewhere. : : : : : : : : : :

Electric Shoe Store

Shoes Repaired While You Wait
S. J. IMMEL, Prop.
180 South Broadway

Dr. Leslie, Osteopath, Marshfield

85 Fourth Street
HOTEL ST. REGIS
J. E. Schilling, Prop.

A Select Family
and Commercial Hotel

Headquarters for Coos
Co. people sojourning
in San Francisco

THE BUSY CORNER
Phone 298
We Deliver Promptly

same in the previous trial. This does not include the other witnesses from Eureka and Coos Bay.

Plan Big Dance.—Leonard Masters, who was down from Summer today said that they were planning for a big dance in the Summer Hall next Saturday night. A large number from Marshfield and Coos River are expected.

Teacher Resigns.—Mrs. Simonsen, teacher of the Intermediate grades in the Bunker Hill school, has resigned, effective the latter part of this month. Mr. Simonsen recently went to California and she wishes to join him. Her successor has not yet been chosen.

A. K. Arkley Speeding.—A charge of exceeding the speed limit in his automobile last night at North Bend was placed against A. K. Arkley. This morning Mr. Arkley appeared before Recorder Maybee and said he did not know there was a speed limit. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5.00.

Vote for Chief.—Members of the Marshfield Volunteer Fire Department are taking considerable interest in the election of tomorrow evening of fire chief and assistant fire chief. Fire Chief Dan Keating and Jack Davis are running for chief, and Vince Pratt and William Sleep, for assistant. The ballot boxes will be open between seven and nine p. m. tomorrow night.

Burns' Birthday.—At a meeting of the Caledonian Club at Allan Todd's office, it was decided to hold the annual observation of Lebbie Burns' birthday January 29, when a banquet and suitable program will be provided for honoring the memory of the famous Scotch poet. Committees will be appointed to arrange the details and an elaborate affair is planned.

Supreme Court Cases.—C. R. Peck will go to Salem next week to appear in a couple of Coos county cases before the Supreme court. One of the cases of Jeffreys vs. Weekly involving the purchase of a ranch near Myrtle Point and the other is the case of Foulks vs. Sengstacken et al involving the sale of tideflat near Eastside by Mr. Foulks' mother some years ago.

AMONG THE SICK

Dr. A. L. Houseworth is confined to his home with an attack of the grip.

Eugene O'Connell, the well known Coos Bay pioneer who has been quite seriously ill, is reported somewhat better today which will be gratifying news to his many friends.

Mrs. E. N. Smith of Flagstaff who underwent an operation at Mercy hospital yesterday is reported to be doing nicely. However it will be about two weeks before she will be able to return to her home.

C. W. Kaufman who has been confined to his home by illness for several days is reported much improved and will soon be able to be out.

Stop at The Myrtle Arms for tea Saturday afternoon and enjoy the musical program. Invitations extended to all. Refreshments 15 cents.

Libby Coal, $5.00 ton. Phone 72.

WATERFRONT NEWS

About 3:30 this morning the steam schooner A. M. Simpson arrived in from San Francisco and today is loading lumber at the Porter mill.

The Yellowstone docked early this afternoon from San Francisco. She will load lumber for the Swayne & Hoyt Company.

Last evening the gasoline schooner Rustler arrived from Rogue River and will probably get away tonight or tomorrow morning for the same place.

VESSEL MOVEMENTS

Arrived
Yellowstone, San Francisco, at noon.

A. M. Simpson, San Francisco, 3:30 a. m.

Due to Sail
Rustler, Rogue River, tomorrow morning.

Dr. Leslie, Osteopath, Marshfield

PERSONAL MENTION

MRS. ELLA BOWMAN was among the visitors here shopping today. J. W. MITCHELL of the Fixup store at North Bend was in the city today.

L. KRANK, of the Coast Guard station at Bandon, was in the city today on a visit.

JACK BEATTY was here on business this morning from his home on Coos River.

DR. HORSPALL was called to Myrtle Point on the morning train to attend a case.

O. Z. THORNTON was down today buying supplies, from his home on Haynes Inlet.

V. D. SANFORD and G. W. Sanford, of Haynes Inlet, were here today on a short visit.

CEO. E. TONNEY of Myrtle Point came over last evening to look after business on the Bay.

CHAS. FENSLE returned to Powers yesterday after a short stay here on business and pleasure.

MRS. J. C. McCULLOCH and son, Charles McCulloch, of Haynes Inlet, were among the visitors here today.

MRS. V. G. HINDMARSH and little daughter came in yesterday from Ten Mile to visit with H. J. McKeown.

FRED KELLY, representing the Cliff line of wholesale groceries, left yesterday to visit the Coquille Valley trade.

MRS. W. P. M'KENNA and Miss Marie Conlogue, of Lampa, came in last evening for a short visit in the city.

MRS. W. P. M'KENNA of Prosper and her guest, Miss Marie Conlogue of New York, came over yesterday for a short stay.

HARK DUNHAM, Probation Officer, was here today to take several youngsters out to the state training school in Salem.

GEORGE R. SAILOR, of Portland, who owns timber in this vicinity, arrived yesterday from Portland to look after his interests here.

JAMES WATSON, County Judge, is over from Coquille today, having come to conduct the hearing of five boys and attend a meeting tonight.

DELBERT BENSON and Capt. John Monson, of the Messenger, tramped from Templeton to Haynes Inlet this morning through 14 inches of snow.

S. C. ROGERS and wife of South Coos River will leave on the Adeline Smith for Monrovia, Calif., where they will spend the balance of the winter.

FRED POWERS left yesterday for Powers to assist in getting the logging camps under headway again after a few days shutdown on account of the snow.

J. T. VASEY, foreman of one of the Smith-Powers camps near Powers, was in yesterday to visit his family while the camp was closed down on account of the deep snow.

A. F. RAPP, manager of the Wells-Fargo Express Company in Oregon south of Albany, arrived here yesterday from Eugene to look after the company's interest on the bay for a day or two.

JACK SASSER, formerly with Engineer Bradford Wheeler in this city, has taken a position in the office of Engineer Broughton, at North Bend. Mr. Sasser has been in San Francisco during the past year in the employ of the Southern Pacific.

CAPT. O. P. BRITT, of the Coast Guard station was here yesterday on business. The new station is just receiving the finishing touches and the crew will move in within a few days. The plumbers finished their work yesterday.

W. E. FORD of the Union Market went to Myrtle Point today to ascertain if a dog killed on the track near there was a valuable collic which he lost. He left the dog with a friend at Myrtle Point and he got away. Mr. Ford had recently refused $100 for the dog which is declared to have been one of the best cattle dogs in this section.

ALFRED FLEISBERG left today for Portland where he will take a position in the Victrola department of the Wiley B. Allen Company. He has been for some time with L. L. Thomas. Last evening the Episcopal choir gave a party in his honor at the Guild Hall.

PAY YOUR DOG LICENSE
Notice is hereby given that it is unlawful for any person or persons to keep a dog or dogs, within the corporate limits of the City of Marshfield of the age of more than four months, unless the owner or keeper of such dog or dogs shall procure a license for each dog, and have the number of the license stamped or engraved upon the collar upon each dog, and any person shall upon conviction for each offense be subject to a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

All dog licenses are due and must be paid at once at the office of the City Recorder and all dogs within the corporate limits of the City of Marshfield without license plate attached to collar will be impounded. Dated this 17th day of January, 1916.

—J. W. CARTER
Marshal

Overalls

The ONE DOLLAR ($1.00) grade are still 83c at the J. C. Penney Company
Heavy Denim in Boys' Overall, 49c
Regular 75c grade

"Underhill" Overalls are Better

"American Prints" Calico in blues, grays and white 5c
"Red Seal" Gingham 10c
3-in-1 Oil, 10c size 8c
Williams Shaving Soap 4c

We Lead, Others Follow—The Originators of Low Prices
Next Door to Postoffice

Golden West Coffee

Just Right
Per lb. . . 40c
3 lb. can . . . $1.10

WE SAVE YOU MONEY.
GETTINGS' CASH GROCERY
130 NO. BROADWAY, NEAR CENTRAL

If Your Grocer does not Handle

Palace Rendered Lard

Call us 406-J

THIS IS ABSOLUTELY THE BEST LARD IN MARSHFIELD

We Also Carry the Best Line of Meats Obtainable

Palace Meat Market

N. D. OSWALD. Central Ave.
Phone 406-J.

WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

OREGON—Fair, continued cold variable winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., January 19, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:
Maximum . . . . . 41
Minimum . . . . . 23
At 4:43 a. m. . . . . 24
Precipitation . . . . . 0.00
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1915 . . . . . 42.43
Precipitation same period last year . . . . . 42.69
Wind: East, clear.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Wednesday
January 19 — Sun rises at 7:46 and sets at 4:58.

NEW TODAY

WANTED—Woman or girl for general housework. Mrs. Frank Rogers, Phone 3167, South Coos River.

FOR SALE—10-12 H. P. heavy duty Buffalo gasoline marine engine. Complete equipment including Posh Magneto. Used only about 18 mos. in fine condition—Price $400. Inquire of L. R. McDonald, Reedsport, Ore.

LOST—Pearl brooch. Reward. Finder please phone Mrs. Alice Hall, 418-J.

FOUND—Pass book No. 44 on the Scandinavian Bank, Marshfield. Owner may get same at Times office by paying for this notice.

FOUND—Ear-ring on Front street, Friday. Owner can have same by paying for this ad and identifying property. M. A. Sweetman, Chandler Barber Shop.

WANTED—Place to work at house-work or washing by hour or day by experienced and thoroughly reliable woman who can furnish references. Address R. A., care Times.

WANTED—Small farm. Address "X" care Times.

WANTED TO BUY—Cash registers for cash. Call or phone L. V. Bridges. Lloyd Hotel.

FOR SALE—Cheap if taken at once. Cabinet sewing machine, almost new. Apply 353 Third and Highland.

FOR RENT—A furnished apartment in the O'Connell building; hot water and heating. Phone 113-L.

THE WHITE IS KING
Of all Sewing Machines
Now located at 256 Market ave. West. Phone 193-J. We have also got big bargains in all kinds of used machines. All machines sold on easy payments.

SAVE MONEY
by ordering the famous
HENRYVILLE COAL
Nut coal, per ton . . . . . $4.00
Lump coal, per ton . . . . . $5.50
Or half ton of both . . . . . $4.75
D. MUSSON, Prop.
Phone 18-J or leave orders at Hillyer's Cigar Store.

ST. LAWRENCE HOTEL
Corner Market and Broadway
We solicit all our old patrons of the Lloyd and assure them the same reasonable rates.
E. W. SULLIVAN

THE LLOYD FAMILY HOTEL
Housekeeping Apartments
Two rooms, $8.00 month
Electricity and Gas. Free baths
Sleeping rooms, $1.50 wk. up

YOU WANT GOOD MEATS

That's the kind you get when you trade at the Union Market. Our line of fresh meat is complete. We have some choice beef now and you ought to try our breakfast steaks if you want a really delicious cut.

Everybody who tries our home-smoked hams and bacon, keeps on ordering them. Better enjoy some yourself.

PHONE US YOUR ORDER

J. E. Ford & Co.
174 South B'way
Phone 58-J

Union Market

Noble Theater

TO-NIGHT

FAMOUS PLAYERS—CHAS. FROHMAN CO. PRESENTS

John Barrymore in "The Dictator" written by Richard Harding Davis.

—It's a Paramount feature comedy in five reels. Every one will remember John Barrymore in the Paramount feature "Are You a Mason?" The picture tonight is made by the same cast of players—comedy that will make you giggle through the entire show. Be a regular patron of this theater and see the greatest plays in motion pictures. This picture will positively not be repeated.

Usual Prices Lower floor . 15c
Balcony . . . 10c
Children . . . 5c

Friday is funny night—Charles Chaplin in "This Trysting Place." Two reels of the usual Chaplin funny pictures.