ANNA BELLE'S Society Visits a Poor Family

—Dear Friend:—I wish you could have been with us the other day when our Society visited a poor family, as I know it would have made your heart glad to hear their words of praise for our great band of good girls and boys. There are so many worthy people who somehow seem to have every kind of misfortune to hold them down. The poor people we visited want to pay us back just as soon as they can, but of course, we can't accept a thing, as we are only too glad to help them when they are in need.

If you haven't sent for your Certificate in our great SEWING SOCIETY now is the time to do so. Just sit down and write me care this paper, and enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and I'll be glad to send you one. Or, if you're an officer in your Society will send as many as you wish for yourself and members. Lovingly,

Anna Belle
