SOME PEOPLE THINK THAT hats in the extreme of fashion are stylish. Our idea of stylish hats are those that show refinement in every line, that are becoming to the wearer and show their aptness in the turn of the brim, the shape of the crown and the position of the bow.

Mallory Hats

combine these qualities in the most attractive manner. They are invariably THE style. Your new Spring hat should be a "Mallory."

Injured in Mill.—Louis O. Anderson, who is employed as engineer in the Porter mill, injured one finger while using a power drill.
Miss Shaw Resigns.—Miss Margaret Shaw has offered her resignation as teacher in the Central school at North Bend. Her successor has not been named.
To Move From Gardiner.—Dr. Pratt, of Gardiner, has been at North Bend making arrangements to move to that city. He will be associated with Dr. Ira B. Bartle.
Father Is Dead.—N. H. Welling has received word of the death of his aged father in Denmark. He had hoped to make a trip abroad to see him, but was not able to arrange it in time.
Suit Is Filed.—Schroeder & Hildenbrand, in the justice court, have filed a suit for $38, claimed to be a balance due them for equipment sold to the Ash Valley Cheese company several months ago.
Relocate Road.—The county court has relocated seven miles of road between Coaledo and Davis Slough on the highway to Coquille. The stretch is to be made permanent. County Roadmaster Murchison will have the supervision.
Going to California.—J. C. Clark, of North Bend, is preparing to leave for California, where he will take a position as foreman of a crew which will rebuild oil derricks which were damaged by the storm. He formerly followed that business.
Judge Goes to Coquille.—Judge John S. Coke will leave in the morning for Coquille for the purpose of hearing petitions for the parole of Archie Madden and V. M. Smith, both of whom have now completed 30 days of their sentences.
Farmers Suffer.—A letter from Camas Valley to E. L. Hemingway, of North Bend, states that the farmers there have suffered much from the stormy weather. Much damage has been done, cattle raisers have sustained losses and feed is scarce.
Will Go South.—Otto Groke, who has been manufacturing cigars at North Bend, plans to leave within a month for northern California, where he will engage in business. He states that he cannot find sufficient sale for his cigars on Coos Bay.
Loggie Getting Better.—C. F. McKnight today is in receipt of a letter from James Loggie, in Tacoma, stating that George Loggie, who has been seriously ill, is better now and will recover. For a time it was thought he could not live.
Will Hold Smoker.—Cards have been sent to the members of the Millcoma Club advising them of

ELECT OFFICERS
The Myrtle Point Cow Testing Association will have a big membership according to the Enterprise. At a recent meeting the following officers were elected:
President, F. L. Lundy; Vice-President, Wm. Slingsby; Secretary-Treasurer, Verne Lundy; E. Arneson and A. R. Davenport.
Members present signed up for approximately four hundred cows to be tested through 1916, and these with other herds that were in the association last year as well as new herds where the owners have signified intention to sign up, will probably bring the number cows in the association up to between six and seven hundred.
County Agriculturist J. L. Smith who was at the meeting stated that the Bank of Myrtle Point would probably offer $100 in cash prizes to be divided among the best herds in the association.

Help Your Body To Resist Disease
"I find Foley Cathartic Tablets to be the most delightful cleansing cathartic I have ever taken. They are just the thing." G. W. Robeson, Wichita Falls, Tex.
Use Foley Cathartic Tablets to cooperate with nature in her efforts to resist disease. They keep your bowels regular and active, and they prevent poisons from lodging in your intestinal tract, thence being absorbed by your blood into your system. They relieve constipation ever night. There is no unpleasant nausea or griping in the use of Foley Cathartic Tablets. Instead, there is freedom from headaches, dizziness, sluggish gut feeling and nervous irritability. There is for you energy and ambition, ability to enjoy your work and your pleasures. They relieve the unpleasant, greasy, full feeling, and give you a comfortable clean feeling instead. Stout people do so enjoy them.
