IF YOU ARE WELL BRED

- You will be kind.
- You will not use slang.
- You will try to make others happy.
- You will not be shy or self-conscious.
- You will never indulge in ill-natured gossip.
- You will never forget the respect due to age.
- You will not swagger or boast of your achievements.
- You will not measure your civility by people's bank accounts.
- You will be scrupulous in your regard for the rights of others.
- You will not forget engagements, promises or obligations of any kind.
- You will never make fun of the peculiarities or idiosyncrasies of others.
- You will never under any circumstances cause another pain if you can help it.
- You will not think that "good intentions" compensate for rude or gruff manners.
- You will be as agreeable to your social inferiors as to your equals and superiors.
- You will not have two sets of manners, one for "company" and one for home use.
- You will never remind a cripple of his deformity or probe the sore spots of a sensitive soul.—Irish World.

GUILD OPEN MEETING.

Last Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock a very successful open meeting of the Episcopal Ladies' Guild was held in Guild hall, which was prettily arranged for the occasion with huckleberry and daffodils. The paper "Associated Charities" read by Ben Fisher was both interesting and instructive, and the Guild ladies hope that later on the suggestions might be applied locally. A splendid musical program arranged by Henrik Gjerdrum was rendered. This was published in The Times earlier in the week. The speaker and the members on the p. m. were announced by F. W. Payne. At the close of the evening, dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. S. C. Small, Mrs. Charles Stauff and Miss Mildred Ripley.

Next Tuesday the Guild will meet in the afternoon as usual. The ladies are asked to come promptly at 2 o'clock. Mr. McNair will be here to demonstrate aluminum ware.

RECEPTION AND MUSICAL.

The following from a San Francisco paper will be of interest in the bay as Mr. Wickman at one time made his home here:

"Mr. Frank Wickman is sending out invitations for a delightful reception and musicale at his Piedmont avenue studio on Saturday evening, January 29. Mr. Wickman, who is one of the prominent members of the musical contingent in the college town, has a charming and picturesque studio, where he frequently entertains. It is lighted entirely by soft candle light from numerous candles set in quaint brasses about the walls. Costly Persian rugs cover the floor, and the furniture is of antique mahogany, most of it collected in Europe by Mr. Wickman, who lived there several years. A splendid musical program will contribute to the diversion of the hour, and Mrs. Lewis Chase, the well known lecturer, who has extended her visit in California, will give a talk regarding her travels abroad."

PLEASANT GATHERING

Last evening, Miss Ruth Allen entertained a few friends informally for Mrs. Fred Lamon, of Bay Point, formerly Miss Frances Williams, who is spending a short time on the Bay. The affair was an especially enjoyable one, the guests passing the time in music and reminiscent chat. Miss Allen gave several pretty vocal selections. Delectable dainties were served at a late hour by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. F. E. Allen to the following guests: Mrs. Fred Lamon, Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mrs. D. E. Muloney, Miss Margaret Shaw and Miss Gwynedde Tower.

as the boys expressed it, they proved themselves "game." The hall was artistically decorated, the color scheme of yellow and green being carried out. A canopy of interlaced yellow streamers formed a very pretty ceiling from the center of which was suspended a basket of huckleberry branches, while here and there bunches of the same decorations added much to the effect. Screens were placed in the various corners. The evening opened with a lively game in which every one got acquainted. A few guessing games followed, and after these, Miss Anna Cox gave two pleasing vocal selections and Miss Eva Hansen an excellent reading. Miss Cox was accompanied by Miss Mabel Immel. The baskets were then put up for auction, and the boys looked on with interest, and often shouts of laughter filled the room as the young ladies enthusiastically bid against each other for the baskets. The young people enjoyed a hearty "sing" before departing for their various homes at, expressing themselves as having an especially pleasant evening.

PRISCILLA CLUB

Mrs. Fred Sandberg was hostess this week on Wednesday afternoon to the ladies of the Priscilla club at her home in Bunker Hill. The afternoon's entertainment was furnished by Mrs. H. M. Albee. Each lady was allowed ten minutes in which to compose a verse suitable for a valentine. Many pretty little rhymes were read at the end of the given time. Special guests out were Mrs. Dubay and Miss Violet Roberson. The members present were: Mrs. Wm. Phillips, Mrs. Dan Orr, Mrs. L. Roberson, Mrs. A. B. Snow, Mrs. Fred Grinolds, Mrs. R. F. Bush, Mrs. G. Johnson, Mrs. E. Duncan, Mrs. T. C. Young, Mrs. H. M. Albee and the hostess. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Grinolds assisted Mrs. Sandberg in serving delectable refreshments.

In two weeks, the club will meet with Mrs. Kai Branner, and the entertainment will be furnished by Mrs. L. Christensen.

BASKET SOCIAL.

Last Saturday evening, a most delightful leap year basket social was given in the Christian church hall by the Young People's society, which was attended by about 30 young people. The young man bought the baskets, the girls bidding in and paying for them; and

"What Perfection Due to Simplicity"

That was the explanation of one of our wealthiest customers. And she bought one of these Simmons Steel Beds, not because it was inexpensive, but because it was so graceful in appearance and simple in design. If you considered the price alone, you would hardly believe that such a bed so remarkable in strength and appearance, could be sold at the price of an ordinary iron bed. But the price is extraordinarily modest. This Simmons Cold-Rolled Steel Bed is one-third lighter, vastly more attractive, stronger and better in every way than any iron bed. We're showing many artistic designs, both plain and elaborate, in these new Simmons Steel Beds. See them on our floor by all means, whether you intend purchasing or not. We will not urge you to buy unless the bed itself makes the sale.

Here's a Good Salesman
 People passing cannot help but see your show windows—make them so attractive that they will stop. No clerk, however efficient, can work as does a well-illuminated window. It sees everybody on the streets—it makes sales at a lower cost and never tires of working.
Electric Light
 will help you display your goods so as to do this. The latest Mazda C type of lamp is even more efficient than anything heretofore offered. It will allow you to illuminate your windows brighter than ever before at no greater cost. We will be very glad to advise you regarding any kind of illumination. This service is offered without obligation.
