EUROPEAN WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

February 10, 1915. The Austro-German forces are repulsed by the Russians in a battle in the Carpathians. The Russians abandon Cernovitz, the capital of Bukovina.

CLAIMS SHOULD BE PRESENTED

ASTORIA is still keeping up its campaign to secure a naval base at that place. The committee having the matter in charge is sending broadcast throughout the state circulars urging everyone to help in the movement and now the information is given out that Congressman Hawley has introduced in the house a bill to appropriate $3,000,000 for the establishment of a naval base at Astoria.

AGAIN THE CLIMATE

THAT was a needed and proper reminder and rebuke to critics of Coos Bay climate which Bob Stanley contributed to The Times last evening. A brief spell of weather like that of the last few weeks finds too many ungrateful for the long months of sunshine and roses.

A MESSAGE TO YOUNG MEN

YOUNG man, life is before you. Two voices are calling you—one coming from the avowals of selfishness and force, where success means death, and the other from the hilltops of justice and progress, where even failure brings glory.

Coos Bay Times Want Ads are of direct and practical usefulness to all readers, in finding a congenial and suitable place in which to live, persons having houses to rent should avail themselves of the opportunity offered by these small ads.

Times Want Ads are the one medium which reaches ALL the people. They engage public attention every day—Always on the job.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING Give me the liberty to know, to think, to believe and to utter freely according to conscience, above all other liberties.—Milton.

OVER AND OVER AGAIN

Over and over again. No matter which way I turn, I always find in the book of life, Some lessons I have to learn. I must take my turn at the mill; I must grind out the golden grain; I must work at my task with a resolute will.

WE CANNOT MEASURE THE NEED

Of even the faintest flower, Nor check the flow of the golden sands That run through a single hour; But the morning dew must fall, And the sun and the summer rain Must do their part, and perform it all.

OVER AND OVER AGAIN

The brook through the meadow flows; And over and over again The ponderous mill wheel goes. Once doing will not suffice, Though doing be not in vain; And a blessing, faith us once or twice, May come if we try again.

THE ONLY WAY TO GET SOME COOS BAY

men to the front is to kick them in the rear.

WOMEN, SAYS A PROFESSOR OF WELLESLEY COLLEGE, will be a drug on the market after the war. But let them console themselves with the thought that a great many men will acquire the drug habit.

THERE IS ALWAYS AN EVEN CHANCE that what is put off will not be done at all.

NOW AND THEN CONSCIENCE WHISPERS,

"Just wait till I get you alone to-night."

THE TEACHINGS OF EXPERIENCE ARE

on a par with those of other experience comes along and spoils them.

THERE IS PROBABLY NO FOOL LIKE AN old fool, with the exception of a young fool.

SOME COOS BAY PEOPLE CARRY

gossip around and others use a telephone.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who had warts on his hands?

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY

A gargle a day Will keep the grip away.

A COOS BAY MAN IS A QUEER CUS.

If his neighbor's wife had been the bride he married and his own wife had been the bride his neighbor married he would imagine that the woman his neighbor married was much superior to the woman he landed.

TELL A LIE TO SAVE A WOMAN and she will always remember you as a gentleman, tell a lie to save a man and he will always remember you as a liar.

DO NOT GET THE IDEA THAT A COOS

Bay man is a fire eater just because he spouts hot air.

WHEN FATHER HAS TO ECONOMIZE

he tells mother to quit buying the articles of food that other members of the family like and he doesn't.

IT ISN'T AS EASY TO BULL THE PEOPLE

now as it used to be. The people do not fall for big words nowadays because they know what the big words mean.

IF YOU LEAVE IT TO A COOS BAY MAN

he will tell you what a high sleeper he is. But if you leave it to his wife she will tell you that the children could bowl all night and he would never hear them.

MOST COOS BAY MEN NEED LESS

starch in their shirt bosoms and more in their backbones.

AN ENGAGED MAN IMAGINES THAT

it is sentiment that makes his girl tie baby ribbons about his love letters and save them. But it isn't.

PLAN FOR THE FAIR

COOS AND CURRY ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Several New Members Added to Directory Board—Many Improvements Made During Year

(Special to The Times)

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., Feb. 10.—The stockholders of the Coos & Curry Fair Association held their annual business meeting here and elected directors for the ensuing year and made general plans for further improvements in the annual exhibitions. The reports showed that on account of many improvements made the past year in the fairgrounds, the association had a deficit of $150. However they really had a profit as considerable was expended in permanent improvements.

Several changes were made in the directory board which is now composed of Henry Schroeder, Ellis Dement, C. Milton Schulz, James R. Clinton, of Norway, Jas. C. Whitaker, J. O. Stemmler and Lew Price.

The directors elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President . . . . . Henry Schroeder Secretary . . . . . J. O. Stemmler Treasurer . . . . . Lew Price

PEOPLE'S FORUM

The Coos Bay Times will be pleased to publish letters from its readers on all questions of public interest, giving his or her address, and so far as possible limited to 250 words. In publishing these letters The Times does not indorse the views expressed therein; it is simply affording a means for the voicing of different opinions on all questions affecting the public welfare.

DEFENDS COUNCIL

Editor Times: In an open letter Dr. Mingus takes the City Council to task for insisting that the McDonald & Condon logging company pay for the damage done the city streets.

McDonald & Condon tell the City Council that they have found a way of distributing the weight of logs on their wagons, which will cause much less injury to our pavement.

That should be a sufficient answer to Dr. Mingus and a justification of the stand taken by the City Council in that matter, even if we conceded that a justification were needed.

I personally believe that we were about to pay too much for the payroll which the logging operations brings to us.

I believe that these logs should pay for the damage and I am certain the doctor would have a hard time to convince the average property owner who has just finished paying for street improvements that it was up to him to pay any part of the resultant damage.

The very fact that logs can be transported in a better way proves to me that it was high time that the abuse of the pavement was stopped.

—E. BANDEL.

THE EASTSIDE TROUBLE

Editor Times: An illogical article written by an Eastside Citizen was published in the Coos Bay Times Jan. 28th which made me an object of ridicule, calling me "an old feeble and white haired man," consequently I sought space to answer.

As he gave the name of the woman, why did he not give the name of the man? viz. Uncle Sam Archer.

In opposing that unlawful practice of aliens voting without a government license, he says, "Unfortunately, the law was on their side," meaning that the parties joining with me won their case.

In the last sentence we have a sam-Cavanaugh, being a native of Canada, sided with those from the same country; and, not being a citizen himself, he was putting forth bercelean yet asinine efforts to win. A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind.

He says, speaking of the lady that was trying to obtain a position: "She got him up a tree." In this case he was alluding to me. What did she want with me up a tree? Slung is out of place in the case, as she lost. My advice to him, he favoring slung, is to "Pull his freight" towards the next Circuit Court, and get naturalized, then he will, after a term, be able to vote at school elections and all others. If he votes minus his papers, he does so unlawfully, and is liable to prosecution. When that healthy situation is reached we may all pull together at Eastside.

—SAMUEL ARCHER
