

Around the Clock with GHIRARDELLI'S

A Fitting Finale to the Completed Day

The show is over. You have been whisked home through the keen night air and your appetite calls for a lightsome yet satisfying food before retiring—something with a taste-appeal that will give warmth and nourishment.

A cup of Ghirardelli's Chocolate answers the purpose. It is a beverage; it is a food; it is made in a minute—a tablespoonful, a cent's worth, makes a cup. There's nothing so delicious, nothing so good—a most fitting finale to a completed day of work and pleasure.

Always have a can on hand.

The Times Want Ad Columns

Every day THE TIMES goes into nearly 2000 homes—and an average of five people read each and every TIMES that is printed. This makes a total of 10,000 people who read THE TIMES want ad columns daily. This is more than half the population of Coos County and surely you will find in such a multitude just what you want. The cost of a want ad is small—an advertisement not to exceed 15 words will be run in two consecutive issue of THE TIMES for 30 cents.
