BORN

BAILEY—Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bailey of North Bend, at Mercy hospital, Feb. 12, a daughter. Mr. Bailey is a railroad engineer employed by the Southern Pacific and is now in Canada.

ROVER—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rover of Coos river, Feb. 12, a son. Mr. Rover is employed at the Frank Rogers place.

Is in Portland—B. A. Baxter of Marshfield is registered at the Hotel Benson in Portland.

Will Entertain Club—Mrs. Israel Lando will entertain the A. N. W. club next Thursday afternoon instead of Mrs. Alexandra Lando, as announced in Saturday's social calendar.

Will Attend Meeting—Assessor Thrift of Coos county and Assessor Tolan of Curry county have left for Salem to attend the meeting of the assessors of Oregon. Mr. Thrift is president of the organization.

Club Meeting Postponed—On account of so much la grippe, the Alert club meeting was postponed from Thursday of last week to next Thursday, when Mrs. V. K. Rood will entertain at an all-day session, at her home on North Coos river.

Many Are Sick—People on the North Fork of Coos River report that there quite a number of persons in that neighborhood suffering from the grippe, so much so that some of the social events were postponed on account of the illness in different families.

Council Will Meet—The city fathers of Marshfield will hold a session this evening at eight o'clock in the city hall. There are several routine matters to be taken under consideration, but for once it is believed there will be no logging dispute to settle, this matter having been disposed of at the special meeting last Monday evening. Mayor Copley is still absent in the East, and it is not probable he will return before early in March.

Logging Right Along—A. H. Powers went back to the camps this morning. He said that yesterday three or four cars of logs came in from Powers and that the camps are working there full blast, getting out the logs as quickly as possible. In this way it is probable that enough logs can be accumulated here to keep the C. A. Smith mill from closing.

Mail Is Caught Up—On the train yesterday there arrived two days' back mail and the morning shipment of Uncle Sam's sacks from the Coquille valley was the regular daily delivery. The mail, for the first time in about two weeks, is caught up. The first delay was because of the storms about Portland and the second because of the floods in Coos county. The carriers this morning had their hands full making deliveries.

Look Forward to Trip—Fast practice is the schedule of the Marshfield high school basketball team this week, getting into trim for the week-end trip to the Valley. The players expect to meet Myrtle Point and Bandon. The fact that Chairman may be lost to the local aggregation will mean much shifting about of the players and will bring Dresser into the game, and possibly Kramer or Jesse Franz. In the four games already played this season the boys have not lost a game and still retain their .1000 percent.

To Appoint Referees—Agreement was made by both parties in the case of Louis Knapp versus Silas Bond that three referees shall be chosen with power to designate the division of the 827-acre ranch owned by the two men near Port Orford. The case was argued before Judge Coke on Saturday afternoon. Also both parties agreed that the plaintiff is owner of seven-eighths and the defendant of one-eighth of the farm in question. The referees will make the division in this way so that the two owners can own their land apart and in peace. There are several other questions to be threshed out in the court later in connection with this matter.

"SIN" IS DEFINED

Many Men Attend Afternoon Meeting Yesterday at Presbyterian Church "How shall I lose the sin yet keep the sense, And love the offender, yet detesteth the offence." —Pope. "Sin" was definitely defined yesterday afternoon at a mass meeting of men held in the Presbyterian church under the leadership of the Rev. Stubblefield. "Badness" was the terse definition of the pastor for sin. He explained the Old Testament said of the world "Deviating from the Way" and the New Testament idea as "Missing the Mark." The men in the audience submitted written definitions as they understood the word. One man admitted the fact that Marshfield seems to be the headquarters for the word sin.

GARDEN SEASON ON

COMES THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN HOES ARE IN DEMAND

Spring Gardening Thrusts Spring Poet Aside—Tired Business Men Rub Aching Backs

"Come into the garden, Maud, For the black bat night, has flown: "Come into the garden, Maud, I am here at the gate alone." —Tennyson.

And now comes that time of the glad some year when the effervescing Spring Poet rolls his eyes skyward and recites, ever and anon, our friend Lowell's little song about "What is so rare" etc.

"Bunk," ralls the Tired Business Man and straightway hies himself to the hardware store to grab off a brand new rake and a hoe and returns to his back yard garden.

For this is the time of year when the little seedlets drop lightheartedly into the cool furrows underground to transfer themselves into all sorts of flowers and vegetables.

And so today all about the city, up one street and down another, were T. B. M's. who behind counters rubbed their various backs and growled, "Drat this business, anyhow. But the wife insists we must have a mess or two of green peas and radishes and the sweet peas have gotta be planted," and they said it with the conviction of martyrs.

On its no joke. The garden era is on us, the season of preparedness for the fruits of the late spring and early summer.

HENRY HUGGINS ONE OF PARTY IN TROUBLE

Assists Young Ladies Who Have Hard Trip from Bay to County Seat

DELIRIOUS The bulleest nurse you ever knew, She's the girl to pull you through; She's the girl to hold your paw, Grip, grip, hurrah! Grip, grip hurrah! —HENRY HUGGINS.

Henry Huggins of this city who is now on the clerical force in the sheriff's office is reported to have had a very difficult time in escorting a party of young ladies on a hard trip to the county seat. "The Coquille Herald tells the story as follows:

A party of Coquille young ladies who were over on the Bay, started for home yesterday morning. They got as far as Coaledo where the progress of the train came to a stop. They boarded a gasoline launch and the launch balked and could not be persuaded to go again, so they were put ashore at John Youakum's place and secured a team to bring them in the remaining five miles. But it seems that fate was against them for after traveling some distance up the road they encountered a slide which filled the road and blocked further progress. So there was nothing left to do but walk the remaining distance, which they did. They arrived here at 5 p. m. They had eaten nothing since early in the morning and a more tired, hungry, footsore and dejected set of young ladies would be hard to find.

Those in the party were: Edna Asplund, Edith Thomas, Elvira Fri-zeen, and Dorothy Watson. It is also stated that Henry Huggins was with the party and assisted the ladies in their difficulty.

WATERFRONT NEWS

Word was received late today stating that the steamship Kilburn will be in early enough from the south tomorrow morning to get away for Portland at 10 a. m.

The steamer Hardy arrived yesterday morning at 7 o'clock and will load lumber at the Simpson mill. The steamer Yellowstone sailed yesterday afternoon for the south with a cargo of lumber from the North Bend Mill & Lumber Co.

The steamship F. A. Kilburn is expected in tomorrow from San Francisco and Eureka, having been delayed one day in her schedule on account of the heavy southwest wind encountered on the trip south.

Not until Wednesday is the steamship Nann Smith due here from Oakland.
