EUROPEAN WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Feb. 17, 1915

Germany makes reply to the warning of the United States regarding American ships.

Berlin reports that 59,000 Russians were taken prisoners in the nine day battle in East Prussia.

KEEP A GOIN'

NEVER should the people of Coos Bay forget that this community is largely what the people make it.

This has been abundantly proved in hundreds of American cities.

There are many towns in Oregon and some of them advantageously situated. Within the next decade several of these towns are going to grow.

Coos Bay energy and Coos Bay wide-awake-ness have done much for the community in the past.

Don't let that spirit go to sleep or get coated too thick with the bark of conservatism.

Coos Bay is such a good community that we should make it bigger and better.

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING

Every war involves a greater or less relapse into barbarism. War, indeed, in its details is the essence of inhumanity.

—Hovee.

THE WINTER DAY

Blue sky to brim the winter day, And what care we for stain or scar!

The night brings back the golden star.

The tingling blood is sweet with song, The muscles taut, the sinews strong.

Blue sky to brim the winter day.

New strength to meet the charging flood.

New grace to lift the gleaming blade! There is music in the blood.

As down they go on dancing feet— Blue sky and winter day!

—Selected.

GRAVE

To his vocation he's a slave; He always knows his place.

We all love the good listener.

It doesn't pay to own things you owe for.

The worse a reputation the harder it is to lose.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY

Why does the self made man never suffer from remorse?

Some Coos Bay people who are wedded on a marriage license lead a dog's life afterward.

It's a poor rule that don't work both ways, but it's a rotten rule that doesn't work our way.

There are some Coos Bay spongers who think he laughs best who laughs least.

An excellent way to flatter a Coos Bay woman is to keep still and listen.

Too many Coos Bay people get into an argument who have nothing to say.

The most unpopular woman in a neighborhood is the one who never does anything that the other neighbors can gossip about.

Every time a Coos Bay woman sees a mirror she thinks it time for reflection.

COOS COUNTY PEOPLE NOW IN PORTLAND

(Special to The Times) PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 17.—D. M. Averill formerly in the dry goods business at Bandon has a proposition on hand whereby he probably will go to China some time during the coming year representing a line of American goods.

E. S. Tuttle, of Rasmussen Bros. & Tuttle of Bandon, came to Portland on January 25 and spent two days with J. D. Mills at the Hotel St. Paul then left for Walla Walla, Wash., to visit his parents, returning to Portland February 13 and is visiting his brother here.

Karl E. Averill formerly of Bandon is city salesman for the Hicks-Chattem Engraving Co., Portland, Ore.

Sol Israel the hat man, is spending a few days in Portland and is at the Imperial hotel. Sol lost his home when the Hotel Multnomah closed its doors.

W. C. Laird and William Shoup after delivering the four men at Salem were storm bound at Portland two days the latter part of January. They were guests at the St. Paul Hotel.

KICKING

"A chronic kicker," said friend Ben "Was grouchy Amos Rucker; He kicked his way through life And then he kicked the bucket."

STOCK LOSSES BIG

Many Cattle and Sheep Die in Curry County

Reports reach us almost daily of the hardships suffered by the stock in Curry county during the severe weather, says the Coquille Herald. It is said that two-thirds of all the cattle and sheep in that county are dead as a result of the freezing weather.

FLOOD AIDS LOGGING. Operations at the Siuslaw River Now at Their Height.

FLORENCE, Ore., Feb. 16.—Logging operations on Siuslaw river are at their height. The river can be used for running logs only during high water and during the recent flood thousands of the logs have been floated to the mills below, where they are being held for operations in the spring.

MAY LOCATE IN COOS

S. J. Mater and W. B. Mater of Caspar, Wyoming, arrived at this place. They are looking for a suitable ranch to purchase with the object of making their home here in the future.—Coquille Herald.

NOTICE OF SALE OF IMPROVEMENT BONDS.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the Finance committee of the Common Council of the City of Marshfield, Coos county, Oregon, at the office of the City Recorder of said City of Marshfield, in the City Hall of said city, until half past 7 o'clock p. m. on Monday, the 28th day of February, 1916, for the purchase of street improvement bonds of the City of Marshfield, Coos county, Oregon, to the amount of $79,75.

All of said improvement bonds to be in denominations not exceeding $500.00 and bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date thereof, payable semi-annually; said bonds to be dated the day of issuance and to mature in ten years thereafter, with prepayment option thereon at face value and accrued interest to date of any semi-annual coupon period at, or after, one year from the date of said bonds upon giving notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Coos county, Oregon, such notice to be published not less than twice during the month preceding such semi-annual period at which such prepayment thereof will be made. The right is expressly reserved to reject any and all bids and upon all or any such bids, or proposals being rejected, if there should remain any bonds unsold, the said bonds may be thereafter sold at private sale by said Common Council of said City of Marshfield, Oregon, but in no event to be sold at less than par and accrued interest. Said bonds are authorized by the laws of the State of Oregon, and ordi-

Illustration of a woman in a dress and hat, possibly a saleswoman, with text: Here's a Good Salesman

Here's a Good Salesman People passing cannot help but see your show windows—make them so attractive that they will stop. No clerk, however efficient, can work as does a well-illuminated window. It sees everybody on the streets—it makes sales at a lower cost and never tires of working.

Electric Light will help you display your goods so as to do this. The latest Mazda C type of lamp is even more efficient than anything heretofore offered. It will allow you to illuminate your windows brighter than ever before at no greater cost. We will be very glad to advise you regarding any kind of illumination. This service is offered without obligation.
