BEAT THE LANDLORD The laws or Oregon are very strict in protecting landlords, but now and then some man gets the best of the landlord and gets away with it.

Albert Kinney has adopted a safe method by buying a lot in 'Sunnyvale,' in fact he bought three so as to have ample room for a garden spot. He proceeded immediately to erect a comfortable tent house thereon expecting later to build a permanent home. By so doing the money he had been paying the landlord each month for rent is not only keeping up the payment on the lots but leaving him a little nest egg besides. If you are interested in this plan of beating the landlord just "see Reid about it," and let him show you how it can be done.

To Go on Trip.—The Marshfield basket ball team leaves tomorrow for a two days' trip to Myrtle Point and Bandon where they will meet the high school teams of those two towns. So far this season the local quintet has not lost a game and still retains its 1000 percent.

Plan Play—Ed Meade and his sister, Mrs. Harvey, and his nieces and nephews are planning to put on a home talent play here soon for the purpose of raising funds to publish Mr. Meade's book. The definite plans have not been completed as yet.

Have Smoke Helmets.—The firemen are expecting two smoke helmets here on the next Kilburn as an addition to the modern fire fighting apparatus of the local department. These helmets are of a late type, and equipped with oxygen tanks. They can be strapped to one's shoulders, thus making it possible to go into a smoke laden room without danger of being overcome.

To Hold Hearing.—County Judge James Watson is coming over tomorrow morning for the purpose of holding a hearing for William Smith, the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith in Bunker Hill. It is said that the boy got into trouble recently in regard to a piece of jewelry. Hark Dunham today served citations to the parties concerned to appear before Judge Watson tomorrow.

Farmers to Attend.—A. J. Stephan of Kentuck Inlet and an officer of the Farmers' Union, has been asked to aid in getting as many farmers as possible out for the cannery meeting to be held in the Chamber of Commerce room on Saturday morning. There is no time to send them each a card through the mail, but most of them will be reached via the telephone.

Goes to Roseburg.—Judge John S. Coke, of the circuit bench, returned last night from Coquille and left today for Roseburg where he goes to relieve Judge Hamilton. He will be there for the opening of the jury term of court on Monday and probably will be detained on legal business for two or more weeks. Judge Hamilton felt that he was disqualified from hearing some of the cases that are up for trial.

Cherrians Coming To.—James W. Watt is in receipt of a letter from Ivan G. Martin, a relative in Salem, who is a member of the Cherrian band. This is the organization of the Salem Commercial club. Mr. Martin states that the Cherrians intend to come here in a body when the celebration is held at the opening of train service on the Willamette-Pacific. The band will also come, he says, as well as the commercial organizations from Albany and Eugene.

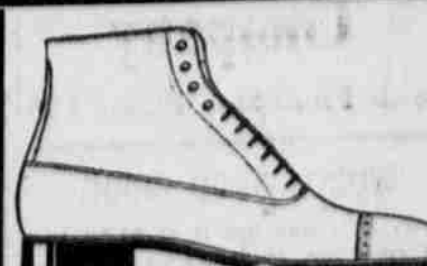

Long in Business.—Mrs. Nellie Owen, who has just disposed of her Ladies' Emporium stock to Mrs. Mattie Blain, who moved it to North Bend, says that she opened the first business establishment on Central, moving into the Donaldson block seventeen years ago when it was first built for the postoffice. Then the Rogers block had not been built, there being a pile of rock there. Mrs. Owen will be greatly missed as she is one of the best known business women of this section.

ing from Bandon to Coquille with Mr. May in an auto stage that overturned. Both men were injured. Mr. Mitchell still has a couple of knuckles on his right hand that refuse to work exactly as they used to, as a result of the accident.

Picnic Time Is Here.—On Saturday some of the pupils in the upper grades of the Central school are planning a picnic up one of the Coos River branches. This is the first picnic time of the year and it is expected there will be many parties going down to the beach on Sunday. As yet the roads are not in shape for auto travel to South Inlet and Sunset Bay and probably will not be for some weeks yet, though the stages get through daily to Empire. The road, however, is being improved and will be in good shape for summer.
