JOHNNIE BAKER LEAVES CINDER PATH FOR BUSINESS. One of the fastest 100 and 220 Yard Runners in Northwest—Formerly Pride of O. A. C. Johnnie Baker, one of the fastest sprinters who ever donned the spiked shoes in the northwest came in last evening on the stage from Portland on a business trip. He graduated last year from O. A. C. where for four years he was the pride of Coach Doc Stewart's heart and the safe bet of the collegians.

Captain at Corvallis. In 1914 he was captain of the Corvallis track team. He finished the four years of cinder track work with a record that showed mighty few defeats, and none at all toward the last. This is his first trip in here. He expects to go down to Handon and return to Portland again within a few days. This morning he went over to the Hub to visit a bit with Gordon Rasmussen, an old friend of his when they were both in school at O. A. C.

WENDLING MILL STARTS Booth-Kelly Company Is Again in Operation. EUGENE, Feb. 17. — The Booth-Kelly mill at Wendling will reopen at once and supply work for about 200 men, according to A. C. Dixon, manager of the company. The mill has been closed for the last month on account of the heavy snow in the mountains. The snow in that section of the county has now practically disappeared.

NOT A FAILURE University Men Says Ford Expedition Had a Result. EUGENE, Feb. 17. — The Henry Ford peace expedition has only begun its real work. Results lie in the future and depend on the work of the neutral conference which the expedition has secured. This is the opinion of Lamar Toozze, University of Oregon delegate on the peace mission, who returned to college yesterday morning. "The two principal purposes of the mission were to attract worldwide attention to the cause of peace, and to enlist the support of the neutral countries of Europe. I am convinced that this far the mission has accomplished all it set out to do," said Mr. Toozze, "even though newspaper readers laughed."

HOLD TAX IS DUE HONOR WASHINGTON

IMPORTANT DECISION IN SOUTH ERN OREGON CASE Judge Hamilton in Douglas County Circuit Court Holds That Taxes Are Delinquent

CASE IS SIMILAR TO ONE IN COOS COUNTY The case in Douglas county is similar to the situation in Coos county in regard to the delinquent taxes. ROSEBURG, Ore., Feb. 17.—By a decree handed down in the circuit court here, Judge Hamilton has decided that the taxes due on the holdings of the Southern Oregon Company and situated in Douglas county, are delinquent for the year 1909, and that the lands on which the taxes are assessed are subject to being sold in the same manner as other property where the taxes have become delinquent.

Suit To Recover Taxes The suit against the Southern Oregon company originated some time ago when District Attorney George Neuner filed an action to recover taxes which he alleged were due from the company for the year 1909. The Southern Oregon company later filed an answer in which it was claimed that the lands in dispute were not subject to taxation for the reason that the title was in litigation. It was also charged that the assessments against the land were irregular. In a third clause the company asked that the United States be made a party to the defense for the reason that the government was making an attempt to forfeit title to the lands contained in the original grant. District Attorney Neuner filed a demurrer to the answer of the defending company and the same was sustained by Judge Hamilton following a hearing there some time ago.

THE CLAIMS MADE In the recent hearing the attorneys present arguments for and against three distinct issues set out in the original answer of the defending company. These issues included a denial that the taxes were a lien against the land, or that they remained due and unpaid on the date of reaching their delinquency. It was also denied by the defendants that the certificates of delinquency were filed with the clerk on December 16, 1913, as required by law. Will Appeal Case District Attorney Neuner introduced in evidence the original certificates on which he based his suit, and these were held sufficient by the court. Attorney Gearin for the Southern Oregon company announced that he would carry the case to the Oregon Supreme court, and if necessary, to the highest tribunal in the United States. Much Is Involved The suit in question not only involves approximately $30,000, which is now due Douglas county for the year 1909, but will also decide the status of the company's taxes for the succeeding years as they become delinquent. The questions involved in this suit are said to be parallel with the propositions embraced in the collection of the taxes due from the Oregon & California railroad lands. The only new question raised by Attorney Gearin was the contention that the company had no interest in the lands other than $2.50 an acre, as decreed by the Federal courts. As a result it was claimed that all of the tax assessments are void and without effect.

WOULD KILL DOGS VANDALS PLACE STRYCHNINED MEAT ABOUT FOR ANIMALS

Another Dog Is Poisoned—Neither Owners Nor Police Have Idea Who Is Putting Out Meat Vandals have tried to wreak their vengeance of late on several blooded dogs by placing strychnined meat about in yards where the animals can get hold of it. An owner of a valuable Boston bull terrier over on Commercial avenue found the animal yesterday suffering with violent cramps, supposedly to have been caused from eating some of this meat, treated with strychnine. It was only a short time ago that one of Frank D. Cohan's bull dogs ate some of the meat and only speedy medical assistance saved the creature from dying. Police say they have no idea who is putting out the poison but say it will go hard with anyone caught. The law on this point is particularly severe and the owners of the dogs say that they, too, are not disposed toward gentleness in the treatment of anyone caught about their premises putting out tainted meat. Inasmuch as two dogs have already been poisoned, it is believed that someone has started a crusade against the animals and that further depredations may follow.

BILL IS FAVORED WOULD PROVIDE FOR COOS COUNTY ROADS IS BELIEF

Draft of Congressional Measure Received Here—To Tax Forest Reserves for Road Building. Copy of a bill now in congress and which, if passed, will be directly beneficial to the good roads movement of Coos county, was received this morning from the Eugene Chamber of Commerce. With it came a copy of the resolutions passed by Eugene citizens favoring the bill and asking action of the local Chamber of Commerce. The bill is now before congress. The measure would afford the counties in which the forest reserves of America are situated, up to 10 per cent of the fixed valuation of the forests for the building of roads and trails within the reserves and for highways contiguous to them. There are in Coos all or sections of five or six forest reserves, totaling 150,000 acres. Charles Hall, president of the Good Roads association, is interested in the measure and action will probably be taken by the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce some time tomorrow with a view toward recommending the passage of the bill. Dr. D. C. Vaughan, Dentist, Room 26, First National Bank building Don't miss the promenade concert at Eagles Hall Friday evening.

AMONG THE SICK Little Glen Kinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kinney, on South Broadway, broke his left arm in two places yesterday as he was playing. He was immediately rushed to the doctor's and the arm was placed in a cast.

Mrs. Robert McCann, of Eastside, is sick. She has a serious case of typhoid fever though it is not believed that her condition is dangerous.

MILL MEN UNLOAD LONGSHOREMEN STILL REFUSE TO WORK NANN SMITH.

Vessel Arrives in With 451 Tons of Freight—250 Tons Is Rails For Smith-Powers Co.

Longshoremen again refused to work the Nann Smith when she arrived on the bay last evening and for the second time men were brought over from the Smith mill to load and unload the boats. The vessel arrived in late yesterday with 451 tons of freight, 250 tons of this being railway steel and equipment for the Smith-Powers Logging company. Inasmuch as the demands of the local Longshoremen's Union have not been complied with they say they are through with the boats. The men wanted to have charge of unloading the Nann and more work in the loading of both the Nann and the Adeline. This was refused them by the mill officials on the ground that there were men employed at the mill who had to be supplied with work and that they had always before aided in the loading of the ships. The Nann Smith after unloading went to the C. A. Smith dock to take on a lumber cargo and is due to sail again Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Captain Skog, formerly of the Kramer, is acting first mate of the Nann while First Officer Erickson has a vacation.

MAKES COUNTY DRY PENNSYLVANIA JUDGE HALTS SALOONS IN 20 MINUTES.

Interesting Account of Method Used Received By Charles Hall, Whose Town Suffered. In Oregon it used to take a majority vote in any county to send it dry; it took a majority vote to make the entire state dry. Charles Hall, president of the telephone company, has received a clipping from Brookville, Penna., showing how a judge, single handed, put every saloon and brewery in his county out of business in one ruling. In that state all liquor licenses are granted by the circuit court judges and not by the city councils. Judge Charles Corbett had been elected by voters who leaned pretty much toward a dry county. Refuses All Licenses. Inasmuch as the refusing of all licenses is a matter of court decision, it was impossible for the judge to announce his belief in this matter before the election. At the opening of the court session, so the account runs, there were 44 applications before the judge. In turn each application was taken up and refused and in 20 minutes the entire county had been placed on the dry list and there was no appealing from the decisions.

A Distinctive Reason What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder? There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders. This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders. There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO New York
