EUROPEAN WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

February 18, 1915. Emperor William arrives at Wilhelmshaven to personally direct the blockade of the British Isles.

PLEASE DON'T PUBLISH

EVERY newspaper is familiar with the request, "Please don't publish anything about it."

There are a few things the public ought to keep in mind in the matter of a newspaper's relation to the printing of news.

In the first place, a newspaper owes an obligation to its whole circle of readers to print a fair, comprehensive report of the day's happenings.

When a newly married woman discovers that by following the directions in the cook-book she can produce a perfectly good mess of concrete she begins to place less faith in the gas range and more faith in the can opener.

Every once in a while you meet a Coos Bay man who wears a No. 8 hat and whose brain would just about fill a thimble.

When a Coos Bay young man tells a girl he will love her forever no doubt he believes it.

Occasionally a Coos Bay man is foolish enough to try to run an automobile on a bicycle income.

Some Coos Bay people are kept poor because they spend so much money pretending they are not.

When a Coos Bay man acts like a hog when he eats and sleeps he always attributes it to his clear conscience.

A Coos Bay man will accept anything else that he needs, but he usually draws the line on advice.

For the first two weeks lovey will stay home every night with honey and seem to enjoy it.

Such confidence is rarely abused, and assuredly never by any newspaper that makes a profession of decency or has regard for ethics.

THE LONDON TIMES declares that it is idle to talk of peace, excepting on terms of German defeat, with all that means.

Germany will never concede to any such peace until the empire is whipped to its knees.

There will have to be several decisive battles before peace will be seriously considered.

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING

The essence of true nobility is neglect of self. Let the thought of self pass in, and the beauty of a great action is gone—like the bloom from a soiled flower.—Froude.

AFTER WE GO

After we go To sleep beneath the starlight and the snow, How many hearts will grieve that then they know—

After we go

Where God's white daisies shall not dread to grow, Even still unknown, it shall be better so—

After we go

No tears to flow For years of yearning, and the undreamed woe! Life knew us not. Of what avail to know

After we go —Frank L. Stanton.

Even a married man's love is apt to grow cold if his dinners are not kept warm for him.

TODAY'S ADVICE

This good advice George Cook commands, So listen to it, sonny; If you would always keep your friends

Just let them keep their money.

THE WAGES OF SIN ARE PUBLICITY

He surely is a lazy pup, His actions make me frown; He waits for something to turn up

And always gets turned down.

The best way to keep a secret is to forget it.

Before he gets her he wonders why nature neglected to give her wings and a halo.

Hello! You with Coughs Here's Speedy Relief

Stop the racking and hacking, raise the phlegm, heal the soreness with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

"Just like oil on troubled waters," is the way one grateful woman describes the benefit of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

It spreads a soothing, healing coating over the raw inflamed throat—it loosens the hack—raises the phlegm—and really works wonders.

Why hack, hack, hack—driving everybody almost crazy, using up your strength, weakening your vitality and leaving serious sickness when there's speedy, soothing, sure relief in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

"After using medicine from the doctor, without results, for my grandchildren, who were visiting me," says Mr. J. A. Shanks, of Levensburg, Ind., "I had to get up and get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound out of my store and give them. After a few doses were given they went to sleep and slept throughout the night without coughing. I have handed Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for more than eight years and always recommend it."

You'll find Foley's Honey and Tar at your druggists. Be sure to ask for Foley's and see that you get the yellow package. Nothing else will do the work that Foley's Honey and Tar will do. 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes.
