SCHOOL NEWS HONOR WASHINGTON SCHOOLS TO HOLD FITTING EXERCISES TOMORROW Banks Will Be Closed—Postoffice to Make no Deliveries but Window Open for One Hour Tomorrow is George Washington's birthday. The banks will be closed and in the afternoon the schools of the city will celebrate the occasion, though they will not be closed for the day as this is not a school holiday in Oregon. The postoffice will be closed except between 11 and 12 o'clock, after the morning mail has been distributed, when the general delivery window will be open. There will be no collections or deliveries in the city though during this hour mail may be obtained at the postoffice. At two o'clock in the high school there is to be a program. The G. A. R. veterans will be the guests of honor. At the Central school there will be a lengthy program, the children participating, and the Spanish-American war veterans will there be the guests of honor.

CAPT. NELSON DEAD MARINER WELL KNOWN HERE SUCCUMBS IN JAPAN For Many Years Was Master of Arcata, M. F. Plant and Nann Smith SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Captain H. C. Nelson, commander of the former Jensen steamer Mavorick, at present interned at Batavia by the Dutch government as being in the service of the Germans, died January 12 in Yokohama, according to word received here yesterday. Captain Nelson formerly was in command of the M. F. Plant and the Arcata. He was 60 years old. WELL KNOWN HERE Capt. Nelson Was Pioneer Among Mariners on Coos Bay The news of Capt. Nelson's death will come as a shock to the many acquaintances of the well known mariner here. He was, until a few years ago, one of the best known mariners entering Coos Bay. He was for years in command of the vessels of the Goodall, Perkins Co., which sold First Addition and Libby mine to the Reynolds Development Company a few years ago. He retired from that firm to enter the C. A. Smith company's employ, going to Newport News to bring the Nann Smith to Coos Bay on her maiden voyage. He was captain of her a few years, being succeeded by Capt. Olson now of the Adeline Smith.

OFFICE ABOLISHED COUNTY COURT DOES AWAY WITH FRUIT INSPECTOR Claim Made There is No Present Demand for Such Office— Saving of $105 Monthly Made The office of fruit inspector has been discontinued in Coos county by action of the county court. The services of Nick Johnson were dispensed with in this connection some time ago. Judge Watson said that the court felt sure there is no need at the present time for such an office at the rate of $105 a month and that it would be economy to do away with it. "There were conditional recommendations and no action," he said in discussing the action of the court, though he in no way reflected upon the official work of Mr. Johnson. "An orchard would be looked at. If there was anything wrong a recommendation would be made that something should be done and that was the end of the matter. The county court had not the time to follow out each one of these cases. There should have been some way of getting things done without these recommendations." And so the office is chopped off until a demand may be made that there is a necessity for it to be continued again. The duties of the fruit inspector was to inspect orchards in the county to see whether or not they were afflicted with scale of any kind. Fruit and vegetables coming in here from outside the state also came under this inspection and any produce sold in markets could be condemned if found to be afflicted with any fruit disease.

EDLUND ARRESTED FORMER PROPRIETOR OF SVEA BAR CHARGED Pleads Not Guilty and Puts up $500 Cash Bond—E. Edson Furnished Necessary Evidence Otto Edlund, former proprietor of the Svea Bar, was arrested shortly before noon today and charged with bootlegging. He pleaded not guilty in Judge Pennock's court and put up $500 cash ball for his appearance later. It was on the evidence furnished by E. Edson, returned here from Portland, that the arrest was made. Chief Carter said this morning that Edlund rooms at the home of Charles Howard, on Commercial avenue, and that watch has been kept of the place for some time past. He said that men made frequent trips in and out of the place. Edson swears that he had acted as a "go between," having bought liquor for Burwell, a logger, from Edlund. Edlund left on the Kilburn last Tuesday for Portland. The vessel was fogbound until the next morning and a boat from Empire arrived alongside with a deputy just as Capt. McLellan had his anchor up. He refused to stop. Deputy Sheriff Laird was aboard and via the wireless was instructed to bring Edson back.

CO SCHOOL DISTRICT ASSESSORS FAVORING ELIMINATION OF SMALL SUB-DIVISIONS Think Expense of Schools Could be Reduced—Assessor Thrift and Tolman Return T. J. Thrift, county assessor of Coos county, and Wm. Tolman, county assessor of Curry county, arrived here last night enroute to their homes from Salem where they attended the convention of Oregon Assessors. Twenty-seven counties were represented. Mr. Thrift said that the assessors went on record in favor of having the school taxes levied by the county instead of by small districts. The plan is to have a county school board to look after the financial end of it and merely district directors to look after the other details of each school. The idea was to reduce expenses, the assessors feeling that in some cases rural districts voted a heavy school tax because non-resident tax payers had to bear the brunt of it. Mr. Thrift said that he believed that Coos county had the highest tax levy of any county in the state. He suggested that it might be well for the county to drop the road taxes for one year and levy a tax that would pay all the outstanding warrants, thereby cutting off the interest expense. This he felt sure would be for the best in the end. Mr. Thrift left Portland at one o'clock Sunday morning and reached Marshfield at 8 o'clock last night, making one of the quickest trips of the season.

CANTINE IS COMING DEPUTY STATE HIGHWAY ENGINEER HERE TOMORROW To Make Reconnaissance of County Roads—County Court Asked to Call Road Bond Election A reconnaissance survey of Coos Co. roads is to be made by Deputy State Highway Engineer E. I. Cantine who is expected here tomorrow from Florence. The move is to determine which roads of the county are of the greatest commercial use, which ones are to be "feeders." This work is being done at the expense of the state. At the March meeting of the county court the members will be asked to call an election to decide on the $270,000 road bonds. Inasmuch as such an election would be expensive, it is proposed to hold it at the same time of the May primaries. The court has the power to call such an election. The reconnaissance work was taken up with Mr. Cantine by Pres. Hall when he was here several months ago. He agreed that it is necessary and this is the reason for his return here. With this survey accomplished and, if the bonds are passed, there is a strong possibility that Coos will secure state aid in the building of county roads. Issue An Appeal President Hall and the other officers of the Coos County Good Roads Association have issued a circular letter asking all citizens of the county to use their influence with the county court to forward this movement. CLOSE HALIBUT SEASON May Stop Halibut Fishing in Pacific Two Months [By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 21.—Senator Johnson of Maine, chairman of the fisheries committee today introduced a bill to make December and January each year closed season for halibut on the Pacific coast. don, missed three fouls in a line and lost the chance of winning the game. Throughout the battle was fast and above all, clean, say the returning players. Both teams played gamely and only the final whistle decided the victory. For Marshfield, Burrows at forward, played a good offensive game, with Dresser and Seaman at their best on the defensive. The following is the line-up of the two teams: Marshfield Position Bandon Burrows (18) L. Pullen (15) Forward Watters (2) Armstrong, L. Pollen Forward Seaman (2) Gallier (2) Center McDonald Webb (2) Guard Dresser Johnson Guard Have Two More Games Marshfield has two more games, one here next Friday night with Bandon and another later with North Bend. If the locals should lose both the battles they would tie with Bandon for the county championship, but the present indications are that Marshfield has won the pennant of the Coos county high school league. TELLS OF SUCCESS PLANK BEACH ROAD TO IMPROVE HIGHWAY FROM NORTH BEND TO SUNSET BAY Work Has Already Started and Will Be Rushed as Rapidly as Material Can Be Secured County Roadmaster Murdock returned to Coquille yesterday, after spending a couple of days inspecting the road from North Bend to Sunset Bay and arranging to expedite the improvement of the highway. Plans have been made to complete the plank of the highway for practically the entire distance, a number of stretches of the road already being improved by planks. The first work will be beyond South Inlet. The plank for the has already been ordered, but the mill has been a little slow in supplying the material. When the project is completed, all of the bad places on the road will be planked, a few stretches of dirt road which are already in good shape being left. Plank to Empire. Mr. Murdock also stated that the road would be planked from North Bend to Empire. He said it was impractical to consider hard paving on this road for two or three years as the big fills would continue to settle for a long period. Mr. Murdock recently made a trip from Coquille to Marshfield on horseback to get a close view of the road at its worst, to give him a better idea of what work would be necessary to keep it open to travel a greater period of the year. MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN REVIVAL MEETING Second Week of Services Brings Attendance—Continued for Still Another Week The second week of the union revival meetings has developed a much larger attendance and deeper interest. The Rev. Mr. Knotts spoke Friday evening upon "Decision." It was an earnest and forceful presentation of the crises of life and necessity of decision all along the way. The necessity of choice in spiritual things was clearly portrayed, for even the Christ had to choose his way and follow it even to the cross. The topic announced for Saturday evening was "Neglect." Sunday at 2:30 a meeting for men only was held in the Methodist church, where all the meetings have been held the past week. Sunday night at 7:30 the subject was "God's Argument with Man." A fine musical program was rendered. This week, beginning with Monday evening, all the services will be held in the Baptist church. Cards are out announcing the topics for each evening. Many are urging that a strong evangelist be secured to follow up these meetings.

COURT GIVES CONSENT FOR GIRL TO MARRY Miss Nora Coffin, Aged 16 Years, to Become Bride of Jack Mann— Judge's Consent Gained While here on Saturday Judge James Watson gave his consent to the marriage of Nora Coffin, aged 16 years, of South Inlet, to become the bride of Jack Mann, aged 20 years. This clears away any legal obstruction that may have existed by reason of the fact that an order had been made in the juvenile court taking the seven children of the Coffin family from the parents on the grounds that they were not properly cared for. Charles Coffin, father of the family, asked the judge to rescind the entire order, claiming that he has now moved to Eastside and has secured work. The 18 year old son is also at work, he said. The petition was not granted.

NO LIQUOR POWDER MAY NOT BE SOLD TO QUENCH ALCOHOLIC DESIRES Are in Violation of State Prohibition Law Is Word Received Here by District Attorney No more may the dry tipster lie himself to a store and buy the magic powders named "Zanol" that, when mixed with water, produce "the most delicious, mellow liquor you ever tasted." It is unlawful to sell the powders in this state, "forist" the prohibition law, according to the word received by District Attorney Liljeqvist from Attorney General Brown. Several weeks ago it was brought to the attention of Mr. Liljeqvist that these powders were being sold at Powers and that several husky "toots" had been the result. He immediately started an investigation, found it was so, and sent the facts to Attorney General Brown for his opinion. Hereafter, any one found selling these powders will be arrested and prosecuted under the prohibition law.

STRUCK IN MOUTH BALL HITS LLANUS JOHNSON WHILE PRACTICING Lip Is Split, Four Teeth Are Missing and Several Jarred Loose From Roots—Season Starts Llanus Johnson, aged 16 years, was struck square in the mouth yesterday with a base ball while playing in Bunker Hill. The upper lip was split and four teeth were knocked out, while several others were jarred loose from the roots. The young man was at once given medical attention and is getting along very well today. The boy is a student of the eighth grade of the Bunker Hill school and an enthusiastic base ball player. A liner came sailing off the bat, taking him entirely unawares. In the last few days of good weather the base ball bug, along with the spring gardening bug, came out of its winter hibernation and Young America has again taken to the back sand lots with base balls and bats.

WIN BY ONE POINT 22 TO 21 IS FINAL IN BASKETBALL GAME IN BANDON Locals Take Both Games of Trip and 1000 Percent Still Intact—Battle Is Hard Fought Throwing by Burrows of seven consecutive fouls straight through the basket rims, on Saturday night at Bandon won a hotly contested game for Marshfield, 22 to 21. The local quintet returned yesterday bringing two more victories with them with their 1000 percent still intact. Until the last minute or two of the game Bandon was one point in the lead. The crowd went wild, made so much noise that the players were bewildered. Pullen, forward for Bandon, was the star of the game. Times want ads bring results.

WATERFRONT NEWS The tow boat Ida W., of San Francisco, was towed in here yesterday by the Yellowstone, all the way from San Francisco. The tug will make minor repairs here and continue to the Siuslaw where she is to tow rock barges on the jetty work. She was towed because she has not the fuel capacity for a long run. The steam schooner A. M. Simpson arrived in yesterday afternoon at 3 p. m., from San Francisco. This morning at 10 o'clock the Adeline arrived in the upper bay from Oakland and today is loading lumber again. The Westerner left out yesterday about 12:30 p. m. for San Francisco with a lumber cargo. Early yesterday morning the steamship Kilburn arrived in from Portland with a fair passenger list and about 500 tons of freight. She discharged through the day and left this morning after 10 o'clock for San Francisco. The steam schooner Yellowstone arrived yesterday from San Francisco, bringing a cargo of freight. She is loading lumber today at the Swayne & Hoyt mill.

CANARY BIRD IS LOST Skipper Bemoans Fate of Singer That Sailed With Him Seven Years Ago Fire, starting from an overheated smokestack, set fire to the steamship Greystoke, in Portland harbor a few days ago. Before it had been discovered and extinguished by a steward it had blazed into Captain Kelly's quarters and killed a pet canary bird. The little singer had accompanied him on trips around the world for the last seven years. NEW SUITS FILED The following are new suits filed in the circuit court: Charles Heisner vs Carrie M. Heisner. Today was the fourth day Snow was at work in his position, having recently resigned at the Smith mill. He is at Mercy Hosue was not granted at that time, but today Judge Watson called up R. O. Graves saying that he had changed his mind and the children will be returned to their parents.

REFUSE EVIDENCE OF STOOL PIGEONS Judge Skipworth Will Not Accept Such Testimony in Bootlegging Case Judge Skipworth, holding court at Toledo, would not receive the testimony of stool pigeon witness. A press telegram from that place says: "There were quite a number of indictments for violation of the prohibition law, four of which were tried, all resulting in acquittal. The others were postponed and probably will be dismissed, as Lincoln county jurymen have refused to give credence to the testimony of stool pigeons. "It is estimated that the prosecutions arising from the evidence they secured will cost the county more than $3000. Only one small fine of $50 was recovered, from a young farmer who pleaded guilty of giving liquor to a minor." Times Want Ads Get Results.
