Pay $5

for your next pair of shoes—it's like making an investment—in footwear. The initial outlay for a pair of Florsheims may be more than you have been paying for shoes but the returns will show a larger percentage in length of service, added comfort and individual style. You will be proud of your feet and well satisfied if you wear better shoes of the Florsheim kind.

Has Operation.—Mrs. J. C. Neer, of Myrtle Point, underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital yesterday and is reported to be doing nicely.

Story Hour Tomorrow.—Mrs. A. J. M. Robertson will have charge of the story hour at the library from 10 to 11 tomorrow morning and will tell Kipling's animal story.

Wedded Here.—Joseph M. Rankin, one of the construction engineers on the Southern Pacific bridge, and Miss Rosabelle M. Bolding, were married in North Bend.

Service at Empire.—The Rev. Robert Browning announced that there will be a service in St. Luke's Church at Empire on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

New Boat Service.—Norman Savage will operate the launch Telephone on the North Coos River run this summer carrying milk for the North Bend condenser.

Raze Tannery.—The old tannery building, erected thirty years ago by T. M. Dimmick, has been razed, the lumber being used for other purposes.

Goes to New Orleans.—In a letter received by The Times Dr. Bartle, now in Eugene, says he is leaving for New Orleans and requests The Times sent him there, care of Tulane University.

Wed in San Francisco.—Mrs. S. A. Yoakum has received word of the marriage of her daughter Mary Krick to Ray Burnham of Chico, Calif., at San Francisco, February 21. The news came as a surprise. They will reside at Chico.

Many at Sing.—There were many out last evening in attendance at the community sing held in the high school auditorium. The singing was in charge of Miss Anna Volz, instructor in drawing and singing in the local schools.

Much Lumber Shipments.—The total of the lumber shipments sent out from Coos Bay via boat during the month of January amounted to 13,578,986 feet, according to the official figures compiled from the reports of the mills on the bay.

Postpone Session.—The Coos County Knights of the Grip have postponed their big session and initiation, which was to have been held tonight, until a week from tonight, when Albert Seelig and others will be given the "steenth degree."

Gets New Car.—Claude C. Ford was here from Coquille yesterday and secured a new Dodge car from George Goodrum, trading in his old car. Last year his brother purchased a Dodge. They will probably operate a line between Bandon and Coquille this season.

Survey Siuslaw Bar.—Capt. James Polhemus, junior U. S. engineer, accompanied by Verlin Parker, left this morning for the Siuslaw. They will be there several days making a survey of the Siuslaw bar where jetty work is now in progress. About the first of March a survey of the Coos Bay bar is also to be made.

Bartie's Trip.—Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Bartie of North Bend, arrived in Eugene last night on their way to New Orleans and other eastern points. While in the east Dr. Bartie will take post-graduate work in his profession. They will visit here several days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Bartie of this city.—Eugene Register.

Debate March 4.—The Astoria High School Debating Team will come to North Bend March 4 to debate with North Bend for the eastern Oregon championship, the winner of which will contest for state honors. North Bend will have the affirmative of the question "Should the Swiss Military System be adopted by the United States?"

North Bend Lecture.—Dr. Conklin of Oregon State University will deliver a lecture at the North Bend high school the evening of March 7 under the auspices of the North Bend Mothers' and Teachers' club. Dr. Conklin is head of the Department of Psychology, and is an able speaker. A musical program will also be given and all are urged to attend the meeting.

Died in Portland.—Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Catherine Parker in Portland the day before yesterday after an illness of ten weeks. She was seventy-six years old and left here six years ago. Mrs. Willard Russell, Mrs. Newkirk, John and James Parker of Loon Lake and Mrs. Ackerman of Portland, at whose home she died, are the surviving children.

Pratt is Better.—C. C. Pratt, a well-known Marshfield man, and father of Vince Pratt, was able to be down today for the first time in two months, owing to a siege of la grippe. He was warmly welcomed by the many friends that his sunshine and good cheer have won. He is about eighty years old and for a long time, up until his illness, made a point to come to The Times office every evening for his paper.
