Rusty Water

Where red or rusty water occurs, it almost always comes from the hot water faucets. The water is discolored because of the rusting of the inside of the hot water piping in the house and is not dirt or foreign matter, for if it were then both the hot and cold water would be discolored. The hot water piping in some houses causes more rust than in others, due to the galvanized coating of the pipes being of poorer quality. When placing new or repairing old water piping, insist on your plumber using the best grade of galvanized iron pipe of not less than three-fourths inch diameter.

Where rusty hot water is especially bad it can be remedied to a considerable extent by having a plumber attach an inexpensive device to the water pipe entering the hot water coil or stove-back for the introduction of a small amount of lime each week. The lime added to the hot water will largely prevent the formation of rust in the hot water pipes, but it will make the water somewhat harder and require more soap. Don't heat your hot water supply too hot. A temperature of 110 degrees is sufficient for all ordinary uses of hot water and to exceed this causes trouble. Flush the rust out of the bottom of your hot water tank at least once a week. Every hot water tank should have a faucet for this purpose.

BIG SAWMILL TO BE BUILT NEAR SILVERTON

Silver Falls Timber Company Will Start Construction at Once—Ow's Much Timber

SILVERTON, Feb. 26.—A modern sawmill will be built by the Silver Falls Timber Company at Silverton this spring at a cost of approximately $500,000.

The plant will be operated in connection with the logging camps of the same company near Silverton.

M. C. Woodard, general manager of the company, has just returned from the east, where he purchased the necessary machinery and equipment for the mill.

The plant will be built at the edge of Silverton, which is on the Springfield branch of the Southern Pacific, eighty-six miles north of Eugene. A first-class logging road, about twenty-six miles in length, connects the town with the camps.

The company owns about 35,000 acres of timber land in Marion and Clackamas counties, tapped by this logging road.

It is estimated that this timber tract contains more than 3,000,000,000 feet of fir. Heretofore the company has cut its timber and sold the logs to other mills. For about eighteen months, however, owing to the depression in the lumber market, the camp has been idle.

Construction work on the new plant will be done by day labor under immediate direction of the company officials. It is planned to erect a complete mill, modern in every detail, sheds and loading facilities. The initial output of the plant will be about 250,000 feet per day of ten hours.

NEWS OF GARDINER

Events Along the Umpqua as Told by The Courier

The ladies of Gardiner are circulating a petition asking W. H. Hood, chief engineer of the S. P. railroad to name the station on the Perry place East Portland. Others have suggested the name of Perryville, but a rose will smell just as sweet with any name.

While at work rafting logs on Five Mile lake last week, Roy Reavis slipped and while endeavoring to prevent himself from falling, he ran a peavee hook through one of the fingers of his right hand.

The public wharf under the supervision of W. P. Reed, is nearing completion. When this is completed it will supply a long felt want in Gardiner, one for which the people of Gardiner have been striving for years.

James Hutcheson, who recently injured his foot in the saw mill, which necessitated his laying off from work, is able to be around on crutches, which he intends to throw away in a day or so.

NEW WATER SYSTEM

Progress of Work on Warren Reed's Clear Lake Project

The Clear Lake Water Company has over 700 feet of the tunnel completed and expects to complete the remainder of the 1100 feet in about six months. A fine tunnel 4x7 feet is being driven through solid sandstone, which will tap Clear Lake about 19 feet below the surface. Through the tunnel will be placed 24 inch steel pipe. From the outer portal the water will be conducted to Reedsport by the pipe which will gradually reduce to 14 inches. This will not only supply Reedsport with one of the best and purest water systems in the state, but will also supply the townsite of Winchester Bay with water. Peter Moran has charge of the work at the tunnel, and is making a splendid showing.—Gardiner Courier.

The Gold Beach Globe says: "J. R. Hill came to town a few days ago after a load of supplies. He brought us a nice home cured ham, and had it placed to his credit on subscription to the Globe, a precedent that other farmers might well follow and thereby save themselves a few dollars, gain a little free advertising for their produce and give the Globe force a square meal once in a while. The ham was certainly a dandy and leaves a taste in our mouth for more. Who will be the next to pay in the same manner?"

Warren Reed and Gardner Delegation Makes Appeal to Douglas County Court for Highway

ROSEBURG, Feb. 26.—Warren Reed and several other prominent Gardiner citizens appeared before the members of the county court, Monday, and asked that a road be constructed from Scottsburg to Reedsport. Maps showing the route of the proposed road were submitted to the consideration of the court in order that they might become conversant with the lay of the land in the locality where the proposed highway is to be constructed. The people of Gardiner are practically without roads at the present time, the traffic being carried on almost exclusively by water. By the construction of the road asked for by Mr. Reed and his associates, the trip from Roseburg to Winchester Bay could be made easily in a day.

FOREIGNERS TO BUY CALIFORNIA REDWOOD

Report That Big Syndicate Will Take Over Immense Holding for Reconstruction After the War

Proposals from a financial source of almost unlimited millions have recently come to the timber owners of California for the outright purchase of all the standing redwood and sugar pine in the state, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

The figure which has been quoted in this gigantic proposal is reported to have been $200,000,000. British and French interests are presumed to be behind the proposal and the purpose in view to be the market for lumber in the countries of Europe when the war is over.

Together with this disclosure comes the information that a similar proposition to unite the timber holdings of California in one purchase was well on the road to consummation at the time when the war came to put a stop to the negotiations.
