BANDON IS BEATEN LOST ONE BLADE TO ENLARGE PLANT

MARSHFIELD CLINCHES COUNTY BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeats Bandon by Score of 35 to 12—Burrows Is Star With 25 Points

Marshfield clinched the basketball championship of Coos county late yesterday when the final whistle of the timekeeper found the quintet from Bandon defeated by a score of 35 to 12. Through the Bandon five had innumerable chances at baskets the men seemed totally unable to plunk the center of the ring. Tonight Bandon plays in North Bend.

Through the seven games that have been played this season the proteges of Coach Royal Nile have gone triumphantly and with banners waving. Their 1000 percent has not been marred. There remains one more game on the schedule, that with North Bend over there next Friday evening. The local five feel confident of the result.

Kept Lead Through Game
One minute after the start of the game yesterday Marshfield scored a basket. A foul and another basket soon after gave to them a lead that was untouched through the rest of the battle.

Bandon flashed streaks of brilliant playing, dribbling and passing the ball well into their territory only to miss the basket time and again. Too often the men delayed the ball before shooting it to the basket, a case of too much passing.

Visitors Hard Players
But despite this fact the visitors played a strong game and even when they were hopelessly beaten, kept in the game with everything they had.

Burrows, at forward for the locals, was easily the star performer of the matinee. His unerring aim accumulated 25 points for Marshfield. But at the same time it can not be said that the remainder of the team was not doing its best.

"Feeders" for Burrows
Time and again the guards swept the ball out of the enemy's territory "feeding" it into the hands of Burrows. Mussen, a new man at center, played a wonderfully good game, and Seaman, playing forward, played a fast and heady game, except for "a bonehead" when, under the shadow of Marshfield's basket, he passed the ball into the hands of L. Pullen, of Bandon.

The lineup follows:
Marshfield Bandon
Burrows, (25)L. Pullen (10)
Forward
Seaman (6)I. Pullen—
Forward
Mussen (4)R. Gallier—
McDonaldWebb (2)

OPEN BLANCO HOTEL MARCH 1

N. MOON COMPLETES OVERHAULING OF WELL KNOWN MARSHFIELD HOSTLERY—WILL HAVE PUBLIC SERVICE FEATURES

N. Moon, who recently leased the Blanco Hotel, announces that he has practically completed the overhauling of the place and will open it to the public again March 1st.

The entire building has been thoroughly improved, new paper and paint in practically all the rooms, new bedding, new baths, toilets, etc. Mr. Moon has endeavored to make it one of the best popular priced hotels and is arranging for superior accommodation for his guests.

Mr. Moon is also arranging a number of public service features which will be of general benefit, not only to the guests of the Blanco but to the community generally. One of these will be an employment bulletin which will list the different firms and places desiring labor and employes and the kind one wanted, making sort of a free employment bureau.

As soon as he erects the new building on Broadway other features will be inaugurated.

PRaise JOHN FERGUSON

On Lincoln's birthday, students of the Commercial Department visited the First National Bank and were shown the accounting system. This was done in a very efficient manner by John Ferguson who gave generously of his holiday for the class. Instructor Baragar and the members of the class were generous in their praise of the good results of the trip. This visit to the bank is the first of a series of visits to other institutions in the city by the students of the Commercial Department.

ADELINE SMITH TO BE DELAYED HERE A DAY BY ACCIDENT

Mr. Johnson, Mr. Garrigues and C. A. Smith, Who Were Expected Delayed Again—Mill News

The Adeline Smith, which arrived in early this morning made the last leg of the trip from San Francisco minus one propeller blade. While off the lightship, below Eureka, the propeller blade dropped off. They were in smooth water at the time and there was no apparent cause for the loss. The accident will delay the Adeline here a day this time.

Party Comes Later

Mr. Johnson, who on March 1 succeeds Samuel Bloss as active head of the creditors' committee of the C. A. Smith companies, and Mr. Garrigues, Mr. Smith's financial representative, who were expected here on the Adeline today, were delayed at Oakland by important matters coming up the next few days. There is the transfer of the management from Mr. Bloss and also the transfer of the redwood and Alsea Bay timber holdings to the Poole syndicate. Mr. Smith also remained there for that reason. They will probably be up soon.

No Change Yet

So far there have been no definite official advices concerning the charter of the Nann Smith. It is believed here that the proposed charter will be called off.

W. J. CONRAD AND OTHERS BUY INTO OREGON WOOD

Plan to Further Develop Business and Will Employ Thirty Men With the Night Shift Soon

It was announced today that W. J. Conrad and others had purchased the controlling interest in the Oregon Wood Products Company which recently started a wood working plant at the Old Stave Mill between Marshfield and North Bend. They purchased the issued stock of the company and the other stockholders are Elmer Russell, mayor of North Bend, and H. O. Frye, foreman of the plant.

They are now manufacturing boxes, box shooks, broom handles and shingles. They are now employing about fifteen men and expect to increase the force to thirty soon and later put on a night shift. The addition to the company brings in additional capital which will enable them to enlarge to meet increased orders.

Goes Ranching.—Capt. Joe Butler, who has long been with the tug Gleaner of Gardiner and recently as captain, announced while here yesterday that he has purchased a ranch on Smith River, above Gardiner, and will move there, giving up the sea. Who will succeed him as master of the Gleaner is not announced.

HIGHWAY READY AGAIN THIS YEAR FOR AUTO TRAVEL

E. I. Cantine and County Roadmaster Murdock Find Conditions Favorable—Go to Bandon

The road to Sunset Bay is in shape for the first auto travel of the year and it is expected that tomorrow there will be a pilgrimage of autos to the ocean. E. I. Cantine, deputy state highway engineer, and Roadmaster Murdock, returned from there in a buggy last evening after inspecting the roads beyond North Bend. An auto driver who came back from there yesterday said that he found the road in fairly good shape, especially for this time of the year.

The grading and alignment of the Sunset Bay road is very good, believes Mr. Cantine. He said Road Supervisors Nichols and Roseke have men working the highway and that they have done considerable good work so far this season.

Good weather has been the main factor in getting the road into a travelable shape. Mr. Cantine spent this morning going over the roads around Marshfield, leaving this afternoon for Coquille. He will go down to Bandon on Monday as far as the Curry County line, returning here the latter part of the week for the meeting of the good roads enthusiasts at a special conference to lay out a campaign of procedure for this year.

George Goodrum drove down to Sunset Bay yesterday. He said the road now is practically in a better shape than it is in the summer because there has as yet been no traffic this year to develop chuck holes.

The entire stretch has dried up, he said. Road crews have scraped and dragged the highway and travel to South Inlet and Sunset Bay tomorrow will undoubtedly be plentiful.

COWBOY IS TO TALK

PHILLIP DESCHNER SPEAKS AT BAPTIST CHURCH TOMORROW

Former Lariat Artist and Broncho Buster Will Address Marshfield Church Gathering

The men's meeting, announced previously for Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church, will be changed to a mass meeting instead. Phillip Deschner, the cowboy, who roped 'em on the O'Conner ranch of 127,000 acres down near the Mexican line, will address the meeting.

Mr. Deschner has unusual platform gifts and his address will be well worth hearing. "What he says is born of a love for the down-fallen. He takes a crack at things from an angle that makes you see." Don't miss this service, at 2:30 in the Baptist Church, tomorrow afternoon.

BAD BOYS GOT AWAY

DUNHAM'S CHARGES MADE ESCAPE AT CUSHMAN

Coos County Probation Officer Finally Rounded Lads Up Again—Took Advantage of Him

The following experience of Hark Dunham, Coos County probation officer with the three Marshfield boys whom he was taking to the Oregon Reform School as told by the Eugene Register, will be of interest here:

"While at Cushman Tuesday three boys being taken to the reform school at Salem by H. W. Dunham, probation officer from Marshfield, escaped across the railroad bridge at that point and before the officer could follow them the draw opened. Dunham secured a gasoline tug, crossed the river and caught the boys as they were about to reach a clump of woods near by.

"Dunham and his charges arrived in the city last night on the Willamette Pacific on their way to Salem. The boys are Henry Lloyd, William Smith and Oren Bonebrake. They were found guilty recently of stealing about $1500 worth of brass and diamonds from a boat in the harbor at Marshfield and committed to the reform school at Salem.

"On their way here they had dinner at Cushman and during the meal the boys tried to make their escape."

HONOR J W BENNETT

NAMED CHAIRMAN OF OREGON BAR ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE

Well Known Marshfield Attorney Chosen By President Fulton to Direct Work

J. W. Bennett received a telegram today from ex-Senator C. W. Fulton, president of the Oregon State Bar Association, announcing that he had been selected as chairman of a new committee just chosen.

The new committee is on "Legal Education and Admission to the Bar." The personnel of the committee is as follows: Chairman, J. W. Bennett, of Marshfield; Porter J. Ness, of Medford; W. C. Woodcock, of Eugene; Jas. H. Nichols, of Baker and John H. Hall, of Portland.

The appointment is a decided honor to Mr. Bennett, of which his many friends feel more than proud.

WATERFRONT NEWS

Before seven o'clock this morning the steamship Adeline arrived from Oakland and today is loading at the C. A. Smith mill for the return south early tomorrow.

The steamship Kilburn crossed in at 7:20 this morning from San Francisco and left out early this afternoon for Portland.

This afternoon the steam schooner Speedwell got away for the south, carrying a load of railroad ties and several passengers.

BIG SHIPMENT OF FORDS DUE SOON

KILBURN WILL BRING CONSIGNMENT OF LEADING CAR SUPPLY COOS COUNTY FROM NEW AGENCIES FOR AUTOISTS' NEEDS.

The steamer Kilburn next will bring I. R. Tower, southern Oregon representative of the Ford Motor Company, a big shipment of Ford cars. This will be the consignment of the season and at an opportune time as will enable him to supply all who desire for the first good roads of year immediately.

Mr. Tower left in a Ford for Coquille to get first hand information regarding the road.

Mr. Tower says that so far he has been unable to locate any Ford cars for sale although he has made a number of requests for used but Ford owners appear loath to sell their cars. Any one having a Ford for sale or trade is requested by Mr. Tower to once.

In order to provide for the needs of Ford owners and to them prompt service in this territory, Mr. Tower is this week sending complete stocks of Ford parts to Ford agencies in Bandon and the Point. The Coquille Ford agency already has a complete supply of the Gold Beach agency will join with them within thirty days.

The demand for Ford cars in Coos county this year will probably exceed all past records and Mr. Tower has already signed purchase a number of machines for early delivery.
