Show This to Your Parents

Parents:--

Buy a bicycle for your daughter and you won't have to pay for Dr. Medico's automobile. It is not a fact that many children have to race home at night, bolt a sandwich and hurry back to school in order to sit at their desks when the school bell rings? Hardly. With a Bicycle, on the contrary, your daughter can wheel securely home, eat and enjoy a sufficient luncheon and return to the school house with plenty of time to spare. No hurry, no boiling of food and no tired nervous feeling with which to begin the afternoon's studies. There are also hygienic reasons which will occur to mothers without further comment. In at least two large schools in California, the directors have caused staples to be driven in the walls of the basement which bicycles can be locked during school hours. All that is required is an ordinary staple driven into the wall at a height corresponding to the top of a bicycle frame. A cheap bicycle cannot fall over or be taken away. Does your daughter eat a cold lunch while huddled in a corner? And is she nervous and irritable after school hours? If she is not, those conditions have a tendency to make

After three hours at a desk, what could be more refreshing than a ten-minute bicycle ride? Then a dainty lunch, leisurely eaten. Who ever heard of a dainty lunch in a basket, or wrapped in a paper?

Now Girls:--

Tell your parents that the Marshfield Cyclery will oil and pump your wheels, pump up the tires and generally look after your Bicycle, provided you buy

SUNRISE AND SUNSET
Wednesday
March 1.—Sun rises at 6:36 and sets at 5:49.

Receives Honors.—Word has been received here that Warren Hunter, of Bandon, has just been elected secretary-treasurer of the freshman class at Albany College, Albany.

Father of the Dead.—Frank Alciati, engineer at the Chandler, has just received a letter telling of the death of his father, aged over seventy, at the old home in Northern Italy.

Sister is Ill.—Mrs. Alice Kruse who is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Sarah A. Moore, at Redlands, Calif., writes that Mrs. Moore has been in rather poor health for some time. Mrs. Moore formerly resided on the Bay.

Recovers Pin.—One insertion of a lost ad in The Times restored to Mrs. Otis H. Wilson an agate pin which she prized highly. It was found by D. J. Rees, who promptly notified The Times and brought the pin in today.

Now Cutting Spruce.—Johnson Wasson, of South Inlet, has opened up his camp and is getting out some spruce for the box factory in North Bend. It is expected that very shortly several other small camps will be opened.

Bertram to Move.—F. W. Bertram intends to move his jewelry store from the present location on North Front street to Central avenue, going into the storeroom recently occupied by the Otis Wilson Jewelry store. The change is to be made very shortly.

Brother Hurt.—I Lando has received word that his brother, Isaac Lando, who has resided at Honolulu a number of years, sustained a broken leg in an accident there recently on the street car line on which he is employed. Mr. Lando left here a number of years ago.

Chamber to Meet.—The regular monthly meeting of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce is to be held Friday evening. At that time all of the committees appointed at the first of the year will be called upon to make their reports. There are several other matters that will come up at the same time for discussion.

Fear Typhoid.—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Conner, of Eastport, is sick in bed and it is feared he is coming down with typhoid fever. Also the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Gosney, of Eastport, is displaying symptoms of typhoid fever, though the doctor has not yet definitely labeled it the dread fever.

Seek Edward Blake.—The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from E. R. Miller, adjuster and claim agent of Chicago, asking the whereabouts of Edward Everett Blake. The communication says he is supposed to be here and that the company holds a package of some sort that had been addressed to him.

Laird Gets Ford.—James Laird, of Sitkum, well known in Marshfield, will receive a new Ford tomorrow. I. R. Tower, local Ford representative is receiving two Fords on the Yellowstone, and one goes to Mr. Laird, who figures the Ford is the best car for the Coos county roads.

Gidley Buys Lot.—Seventh Terrace in Perham Park is growing in popularity. Today Mr. A. B. Gidley purchased, through W. A. Reid, two lots on this Terrace bordering on the city park. This is the second sale within a week in this immediate district, the other location being purchased by Mr. Tom James. There is a growing demand for close-in property, Mr. Reid says.

Freak Exhibit.—Cell Ireland is showing a freak of nature which has been preserved by a taxidermist. It was brought to him by Mr. Carey, who is logging the Tom Lawhorne timber above Allegany. The freak is two calf heads grown together, and from appearance of the exhibit the calf must have lived some time with the two heads which are perfectly developed.

To Meet at Bandon.—On Saturday afternoon the good roads enthusiasts of the county will meet in Bandon, this point having been selected after considerable discussion. The Coos and Curry county courts will be present as well as the officers of the Coos Good Roads Association and many other boosters. E. I. Cantine, deputy State Highway Engineer, will also be in attendance.

To Make Repairs.—George J. Lemanski, of the Royal Theatre, has finally secured permission to do what extra wiring is needed at the theatre and is to open up very shortly. The permission was granted by the Fire and Water committee of the council. The extra wiring is to be in conduits from the outside to the lamp house where the movie machine is to be placed. Also he will reinforce the balcony by putting in stanchions underneath.

Doing Good Business.—Returning visitors from Powers of late have been telling of the wonderful banking business being done there by the institution of which John D. Goss, of Marshfield, is president. It is said that though the capital stock amounts to $10,000 and the bank has been organized less than three months, that the deposits are now in the neighborhood of $35,000, which is considered especially good. E. J. Loney, formerly of Port Orford, is cashier of the Bank of Powers.

Fashion Day Coming Up.—March 10 is National Salmon Day. Three or four years ago the plan was started on the Pacific coast and strenuous efforts are being made to have this day well recognized over the United States. A letter from the Portland Chamber of Commerce says that this industry means $6,500,000 a year to the state of Oregon and it is important that the industry be pushed. Fifty carloads of salmon left Astoria a few days ago, bound east, where it will arrive well before the 10th of March.

River Shoals.—Capt. E. George Smith, of the Rainbow, reports that Coos River has shoaled badly in places as a result of the recent freshets. One of the worst is in front of A. E. Seaman's dock, across from the Maze. It will probably be necessary to dredge the channel at a number of places soon.

Tax Notices Come.—The first tax notices have been received from the sheriff's office at Coquille. This is the start of a new system, whereby the owners of property are personally notified of the taxes being due. Judging from the expressed opinions and the exclamations heard about the streets there has been a general raising in taxes over the rates of last year. Taxes, at least half of them, must be paid by April 5 and the remainder is due on October 5, at which time they become delinquent and penalties are attached.

Mother Died in East.—Mrs. S. Peterson, of the Java Coffee House, returned on the last Kilburn from Oshkosh, Wisconsin, where she was called by the fatal illness of her mother who died there on New Year's day. Mrs. Peterson arrived at her old home to see her mother before she died. She spent two months in the east. On her way home she arrived in Portland the day after the Kilburn left. This was during the bad weather and she waited there eleven days for the boat to return.

Travels Far to Vote.—J. E. Cooley has just found that despite the fact he lives in Eastport that he must go down to the State Mill in Ferndale to cast his vote. This is under the new districts made out at the installation of the permanent voting law. There are about 30 other families in Eastport, he says, that live in this disputed area. Al Myers, agent of the Reynolds Development company, will take the matter up with the county court in an effort to have the district changed so that those voters may cast their ballot in Eastport, as they have been doing heretofore.

Committee to Meet.—This evening at 7:30 several men who are interested in the new movement to secure a recreational center for the young boys, will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne, at the Myrtle Arms, to outline new plans of procedure. At the first meeting held a week ago there were about 100 boys present and all of them were enthusiastic over the forming of the "Young Americans" club.
