COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY.

LACK of feeling of responsibility on the part of citizens in general is responsible for the indifference to communal welfare. Every citizen should feel an interest, a sort of individual interest—in all community affairs and what he tells about his community should not be to its detriment.

A story is told of a new comer in a community who asked a resident what kind of people lived in it. The resident answered by asking the question—"What kind of people were in the community you have just left?"

It has been the lot of the writer to live in a number of different communities, and he thinks he can say without qualification that as a whole, the people in all of them have been very kind and hospitable to new comers.

HOW TO BEAUTIFY MARSHFIELD.

By Ralph Rehfield. THE people of Marshfield could make this city one of the most beautiful cities in Oregon or on the Pacific coast.

If you have ever been in a California town, you have some idea of what a beautiful city looks like. Marshfield could look as well, if not better.

A few of Marshfield's prominent men could get together and form a committee and give different prizes for the best looking yards; then the people would be more anxious to make their yards look decent.

TREADGOLD BUYS CAR

Al Garfield reports that yesterday he sold a Studebaker Four, 40 H. P., 1917 model, to G. T. Treadgold. The car will arrive on the next Kilburn.

If you want a Coos Bay Man to agree with you start in causing the high cost of living and the high taxes. Most of us want a lot of things that we don't need and need a lot of things we don't want.

LAND GRANT TITLE.

Editor Times: The statement in The Times, Feb. 28, in regard to the land taken up by F. A. Baker and Perley Crowley was not quite correct, and we wish to correct it.

The amount of land taken by Baker and Crowley was 160 acres, the delinquent taxes on same amounting to about $350.

Further, the land was not valuable timber land, as stated, but agricultural land.

The delinquent tax certificates which Baker and Crowley bought, guarantee that the county shall return to the purchasers, the amount of money paid and six per cent interest on same, in case the company pays up the back taxes.

Baker and Crowley feel that they are in no danger of losing any money, even if they should not be able to retain possession of the land.

F. A. BAKER, PERLEY CROWLEY.

AS GOOD AS A CHEW OF "SPEAR HEAD"

That Means the Supreme Degree of Rich, Luscious Tobacco Flavor

NO OTHER CHEW EQUALS IT

Nature varies the flavor she puts into the different grades of tobacco leaf—and the best of all is the flavor of choice red Burley that pleases you so mightily when you chew Spear Head.

The delicious fruity flavor of a chew of Spear Head is a revelation to the man who has never chewed or who has been chewing near-good tobacco.

For chewing is the one way to get all the wholesome, healthful, appetizing flavor of the tobacco leaf—providing you chew a high-grade plug like Spear Head.

You get more savory sweetness in a chew of Spear Head than in a whole plug of ordinary tobacco.

Includes 'Test It For Yourself!' section and 'VELVET'S two years' ageing in hogsheads brings out all of Burley tobacco's natural superiorities.'
