and four children, Miss Lydia Dodge of Marshfield, Norman Dodge, of Myrtle Point and Mrs. C. E. Russell and Miss Orva Dodge who were in Indiana with her. Burial was in La Grange.

Tears Down Barn. — Recognizing the efforts of the City Beautiful campaign E. A. Anderson is having torn down a large and unsightly barn that borders the waterfront on North Front street. The building was a very old one.

Need Miners. — Will Hennessey was in from Delmar yesterday. He reports that coal miners are getting scarce now. Three miners are moving here with their families from Oklahoma and will take positions at Delmar.

May Talk Again. — City Recorder John W. Butler said this morning that the vehicle ordinance will again be before the council on Monday evening and owners of vehicles can again appear and express their opinions. A change is being made in the first draft that was presented last Monday evening. The license will be payable annually instead of semi-annually.

Young Captain Christened. — The younger son of Captain and Mrs. William Arthur Magee was christened yesterday by the Rector of the Episcopal church, the Rev. Robert Evans Browning. James Bernard was the name conferred upon this future sea captain, and the God-parents who stood up for him were Miss Mabel Wickman of Empire, and Charles Bernard Magee, a brother of Captain Magee.

of the mills? How about dairying? Your harbor?" and innumerable other questions are asked. Accurate figures will be sent the members and they will have several months in which to "study up." The Portland Journal also announces that the local Chamber of Commerce that it will send its special train here until the time of the big celebration to be held on Coos Bay.

Visits Bandon. — A. Barrows, head filer at one of the Smith mills at Coos Bay, came to Bandon Monday to spend a few days with his family at their home on Ninth street west. — Bandon World.

Killed By Snow. — W. R. Parker, aged 70 years, a pioneer of Lane county who was fatally injured when a barn collapsed under its weight of snow, was an uncle of E. R. Parker, the father of Verlin Parker well known here and now connected with engineering work at Bandon.

Fish Prove Easier. — Coos River fish were hungry yesterday. This fact is evidenced by the big catch made on the river near the forks by a party yesterday that brought back very close to 150 trout. In the party were Billy Cox, Gordon Smith, Charles Matson, W. J. Ritz, and Ed Graef. This is by far the largest catch so far this season.

Will Give Dance. — The Millicoma club has issued announcements for an informal dance, Friday evening in the club rooms for members only.

Party Night Changed. — Owing to the school entertainment on Friday evening the young people's class of the Christian church will give their St. Patrick's party on Saturday night instead of Friday as planned.

Are For Harrigan. — J. T. Harrigan, candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner, was waited on by quite a delegation of ranchers from Haynes Inlet last week and assured of their support in the primaries.

Locate Cannery Site. — S. B. Cathcart, city engineer of Eastside, tomorrow expects to take his surveying instruments and definitely locate a cannery site on Isthmus Inlet. The city owns a small piece of ground there that is to be offered as a practically free site for a cannery.

Demerits "Hit a Lick." — Saturday the Democrats and Republicans evenly numbered in registration before Justice Pennock. He counted over the cards at the end of the day and found that six of each had signed up while one man refused to take either side, hence lost his chance to vote at the primaries.

Mother Dies. — Miss Lydia Dodge of Dr. E. Mings' office has received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Allen M. Dodge, at La Grange, Ind. Her death was rather sudden, following an illness of a complication of fits. Mrs. Dodge went to Indiana a little over a year ago to visit relatives. She is survived by her husband, A. M. Dodge of Myrtle Point

Hold Business Meeting. — A business meeting of the Baptist church members will be held this evening at 7:30 to talk over several matters of importance. The Rev. Foskett is now awaiting news from New York regarding his appointment as general missionary in Alaska. He will probably leave here in April.

We Ought to Be Glad. — In a letter received from Pocatello, Idaho, lately came the word that court business there is so crowded with bootlegging cases that the circuit judge has little time for anything else. A local man wrote there regarding a civil case and this was the answer. A Pocatello really man wrote back there were nearly 100 bootlegging cases on the docket.

Would Be Assessor. — Many football fans here remember Carl Fenton, one of the best all around athletes the University of Oregon ever had, especially on the football field. A friend here has received word that he is to be a democratic candidate for the nomination for county assessor of Polk county this spring. He is now teaching manual training in the Eugene high school.

Ford
 THE UNIVERSAL CAR.

You want to know what your motor car will do. The million-car Ford performance answers your question. Supplying the motor car needs of all classes, the Ford is operated and maintained in city or country for about two cents a mile—with universal Ford service behind it. Touring Car, $525; Runabout $475.

Isaac R. Tower
 "THE GUNNERY."

Lik's South. — J. A. Blatt in a letter to The Times says that he and Mrs. Blatt and their daughter, Miss Louise Blatt, are enjoying their stay at Los Angeles very much, meeting many old friends from the Black Hills there. He did not say when they intended to return to the Bay.

Map Shows Rainfall. — Harry Butler has just completed a very interesting graphical representation of the daily rainfall since 1902. The greatest annual rainfall was from Sept. 1, 1903 to Sept. 1, 1904 and was 80.35 inches. It is interesting to note that the following year, taken between these same 12 months, show the minimum rainfall of 14 years, namely, 55.22 inches. For 1914-1915 the rainfall was 68.81 and the average for the 14 years was 66.1 inches. Since last September 67.76 inches of moisture have fallen on Coos Bay and the end is not in sight.

Le'ave to Win. — According to parties from Coquille, it is expected that J. H. Leneve will receive his appointment as postmaster there this week. The commission of Postmaster Linegar has already expired.

Bought in Camp. — Sheriff Johnson, who was here this morning, said that John A. Moore, of Moore Bros., has bought in the personal effects of the Cologue logging camp, which was sold by him as sheriff last week. Moore bid it in for about $29,000 and Moore Bros., who have the Geo. W. Moore mill, had claims against it for about $35,000. The camp is now in operation.

Ask Our Resources. — The Portland Chamber of Commerce expects to send a large delegation to Coos Bay with the advent of the first train from Eugene. They are now asking definite information on the resources of this country that they may study up ahead of time. "What is the standing timber? The output

Aids With Records. — L. A. Whereat, engineer on the division of the Coos Bay, Roseburg and Eastern railroad, has been in Portland since March 8, aiding the Portland engineers of the Southern Pacific in getting up records in connection with the line between Marshfield and Myrtle Point. He expects to be there until the later part of this month. He is registered at the Hotel Saint Paul.

Many On Picnics. — In spite of the heavy fog that prevailed yesterday morning there were a great many picnics held yesterday. The early boats up Coos River carried a good quota and there were many autos that went through to Sunset Bay. In most places they found the roads in fair shape, with the exception of a bad mudhole this side of Charleston Bay that proved the end of several trips.

Win Much Candy. — Enough candy and chocolates to start a small store has been won by several North Bend high school students in the ticket selling campaign for the debate held there Friday evening. Horace Byler, with 51 tickets, took first place, winning a five pound box. The row of eight senior boys in the assembly sold the largest number of tickets per pupil and the row of the freshmen girls, 12 in number, the largest number of tickets for the rows. On Saturday night Jefferson high school defeated Astoria and must meet Klamath Falls. The winner of this debate meets North Bend on April 8, the local team taking the negative side of the question.
