SUNRISE AND SUNSET
Saturday
March 25 - Sun rises at 5:54 and sets at 6:18.

Sprigs Up A Bit.--Decorators today are busy tinting the inside of the Smokehouse and putting "duds" about the wall. Jim Kjeland says they are flowers. At any rate the inside of the building is being muchly decorated.

S. P. Men Coming.--The work train this evening is expected to come in from Reedsport bringing a fairly good sized crew of Southern Pacific men to the dance to be held tonight at the depot. The men will probably return home on the train in the morning.

Contract is Let.--Bids were opened today for the building of the George Anderson bungalow on North Second street. Telander & Hibarger were the lowest bidders and were awarded the contract at $1875. This does not include the plumbing. That is to be let later.

To Get Dairy Data.--Letters are being sent out to every cheese factory and creamery in Coos County by J. W. Motley, of the Chamber of Commerce, to find out the number of pounds of butter and cheese produced here within the last year. He expects, after the information is received, to get out a pamphlet regarding dairying in Coos County.

It Blew Some.--Capt. Dunson came in this morning from the Cape Arago lighthouse. He said that last night was one awful blow. He said it was considerable heavier than the 50 miles an hour reported at Cape Blanco. He had read about the manzanita losing three men overboard. Captain Richardson, of the Manzanita, has been 40 years in the service.

Men Are Vain Too.--Charles Lando, who runs the only elevator in town, that in the Coke building, says that he notices men are even more vain than the women. Asked how he reached this startling conclusion, he insisted that from long observation he has noticed about nine out of every ten men getting into the elevator immediately start "priming" themselves in front of the glass. The women, he said, very seldom even cast a glance that way.

Eng'wood Service.--Victor P. Morris, of the Christian Church, will speak at the Englewood Sunday School at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Leave on Speedwell.--The following left on the Speedwell for the South: A. Olson, Mrs. Willey, H. H. McDonald, M. Delaney, J. J. Jones, D. F. Foulkes, Gus Almqvist, Pete Moline and Oscar Walgren.

To Talk Tomorrow.--At the Presbyterian church tomorrow C. R. Peck will talk on "The Church as a Business Institution." Supt. F. A. Tiedgen will give a short address on "The Church as a Social Factor in the Community," and Prin. Waite will discuss "The Church as a Moral and Spiritual Force."
