NEWSPAPER'S BEST SERVICE.

THE biggest service that the newspaper can render the community is to serve human welfare," said Marshall N. Dana, writer on the Oregon Journal. "A newspaper can be the betrayer of public trust, it can be a deceiver, it can apneal to baser human passion to enfare of the community."

GOOD SUGGESTION.

THE Pendleton high school has adopted a limit of $7.50 as the price to pay for graduating into the residence districts, gowns. Some sense to that. Why shouldn't high school graduates wear caps and gowns and save the usual expense and bother connected with date by making good roads as an the graduation celebration.
