

Announcement

Mr. C. F. Pankow, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, arrived yesterday to take charge of the sundry and supply end of my garage. Mr. Pankow is an experienced supply and tire man and will be at your service at all times. I found that I could not give the automobile end of the business the proper attention as long as I had to look after the supply end too, so for this reason we will begin remodeling the supply department Monday and just as soon as possible will have a complete stock of sundries of all kinds—a stock unsurpassed this side of Portland. Having Mr. Pankow to look after the supplies exclusively and myself the automobiles exclusively will enable me to give the people of Coos County service like they have never gotten before. We expect to keep the garage open all night just as soon as the roads open up, so in doing this, we will be able to wash cars at night and give people a 24 hours service. I would like to have you drop in and get acquainted with Mr. Pankow, so when I am not in, you will feel absolutely at home. I expect to make the BUICK, DODGE and CHEVROLET more popular, as I'll do nothing else but look after car sales and car service. I hope all automobile owners will realize the big advantages I am going to give them and that you all will give me your patronage. The more business that comes to Goodrum's Garage, the more efficient service I will be able to give you. The roads are all O. K. to Coquille, Myrtle Point and to the beach, so don't forget to drop in before taking your trip tomorrow.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Saturday April 8. — Sun rises at 5:30 and sets at 6:34.

BORN

LARSON—Born to Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Larson of Allegany, yesterday, April 7th, a girl, at the Mercy Hospital.

Communion Service.—There will be a service of Holy Communion in St. Mary's Chapel, North Bend, tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

Will Commence Sunday.—The union revival services in charge of Bruce Evans will commence Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Conducted Story Hour.—Miss Gwendolfe Tower conducted the story hour at the public library this morning. Her subject dealt with the Uncle Remus stories.

Starts New Parlor.—E. E. Smith, proprietor of the North Lake Hotel, is starting an ice cream parlor at North Lake. R. M. Sarter went up this morning on the train and will help him in getting the business under way, returning home on Monday.

To Distribute Booklets.—When the Exposition closed down in San Francisco there was still on hand an entire box of Coos county booklets. The Swayne and Hoyt company writes that it has turned them over to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and that they will be distributed by that body.

Looks Us Over.—"I have heard so much about the Coos Bay country that I just had to see what it is like," said Mrs. F. O. Mason, of Portland, today. She is a little elderly lady, who came down yesterday from her home and left again this morning for the north, declaring that she is well satisfied with her trip.

And Still It Comes.—As rivers flow year by year into the bay, so do the booze shipments come boat by boat from California. The steamship Breakwater yesterday brought a heavy supply of liquid refreshments. The Wells Fargo Express company received about nine large chests, filled with many individual orders.

Will Locate Here.—Mrs. Geraldine Morris, who left Coos County about two years ago, and who has been residing in Portland following her profession of giving piano lessons, will locate here. She has secured Ten Days To Get Name on Registration Books.

sons and vocal culture, according to a message from Portland started for Coos Bay and expects to remain here permanently and resume her classes. She waited until she could come to Marshfield by train.

Lively at El Paso.—Dick Rogers formerly of Coos Bay, writes to friends here from El Paso, Texas. He says that the place is very lively with warlike preparations on account of the troops in Mexico. Dick sent some of his friends photos of the dead body of Gen. Lopez, a Villa leader killed by the American soldiers.

To Finish Next Week.—The total assessing of Coos county property will be completed within a week, according to County Assessor T. J. Thrift, who was here today from Coquille. He said that the figures will total about the same as they did last year. The Board of Equalization will be in session at Coquille in September, at which time the Central avenue property holders are going over "enmasse" to make their protest against their assessments.

Glasses Are Returned.—A pair of glasses were found in the Englewood jitney the other evening and the finder brought them promptly to The Times office, the recognized clearing house on Coos Bay for lost and found articles. A small want adv. was placed in The Times want column and the glasses were claimed by and restored to Mrs. Thomas Howard. Times want ads. get results because everyone on Coos Bay reads The Times.

Roads in Good Shape.—Autoists report that the roads to Sunset Bay are in the best shape now that they have been in this season. It is expected that tomorrow a great many owners of machines will take advantage of the opportunity and get down to the beach. Also now that the trains are running out to North Lake it will be possible for outing parties to leave Marshfield about 9:30 a. m. and have several hours at the popular resort before returning on the afternoon train.

Want Continual Peace.—William H. Taft, possibly by means of a rubber stamp, has signed a letter to the local Chamber of Commerce calling attention to the fact that in Washington, D. C., May 26 and 27 will be held the annual meeting of the League to Enforce Peace. Of interest is a measure now advocated, that is, to get all nations to agree that providing any two of them go to war without first at least letting a tribunal act on their troubles, the remaining countries shall refuse to have any commercial or financial intercourse with the warring parties.

They Have Plenty of Them.—Practically every mail coming into the Chamber of Commerce for the past week has brought appeals for financial aid, appeals from various societies in England who want to do something for their blind and maimed warriors. The injured are legion, say the letters, and something will have to be done to make at least part of the men self supporting, while others will have to be cared for the rest of their lives. Recently there have been chain letters in this country for the purpose of raising Red Cross funds.

CANDIDATE ANYWAY.

To Times readers: The political pot is beginning to simmer and it appears that my opponent's wheel-horses, W. J. Conrad and Jess Barton are advertising extensively in a local weekly. I am glad they appreciate the value of ad space in that stern molder of public opinion, and besides the editor needs the money. But even though this weekly is against me, I shall be a candidate for republican nomination for representative at the coming primaries.

Very truly,
ARTHUR K. PECK.

"The day of freak fashions is no more; no one wants to rival the get-up of a circus clown. Clean-cut, dignified style, such as you'll find in Kuppenheimer and Royal Tailored Clothes, is what well dressed men insist upon."
