For Men, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00

Shoe style authority is determined in part by sources of style information, such as Paris, Vienna, New York, etc., and in part by the success of the manufacturer in representing the general style trend in patterns and models that win the favor of the greatest number of individual men.

Remember that Walk-Over sources of style information are more numerous and better than those of any other manufacturers, because they have branches in all the world's largest cities, and are continually receiving reports from these sources.

CHARGES ARE MANY

Mrs. Faye Mostellar is suing Frank Mostellar, an employe of the Porter Mill, for divorce, the paper being served today. They were married in North Bend in 1909. The wife asks the custody of the three minor children, also a share in property listed as worth $1000. The complaint alleges the husband has deserted his family, has failed to provide, refused to pay debts, that he was often intoxicated and that he has been consorting with immoral women, one of whom is known as "Peaches."

BRUCE EVANS HERE NORTH BEND LOSES

WITH PARTY STARTS REVIVAL IN MARSHFIELD.

Makes Fine Impression and Wins the Hearts of Children Whom He Meets.

(By Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.)
"I want you to sing 244, and the first person I see not singing, I'm going to hit him with a book," said Evangelist Bruce Evans last evening in the union evangelistic campaign which opened at the Methodist Episcopal church.

"Come, now, throw her in on high and give her all the gas she will take, and I don't care what tune you sing or how you sing, but I want you to sing, yes, just raise the roof," shouted the evangelist. Then the audience which filled every available space in the church did sing and there was no reason to throw a book at anyone.

Questions Children.

Almost before the song was finished, he turned to the front row where the children sat, and first question after question at them and they responded promptly to each question except one. "How many books in the Bible? How many in the New Testament. How many in the Old Testament, who are they?" were some of the questions. One could easily see that Bruce Evans was at home with the children. This information was gained in the afternoon meeting held for children yesterday.

Jollies the Little Ones.

They all know Bruce now. At the afternoon meeting the children became so interested in him and his message that some of them stood up, forgetting their rock seats. "Sit down sister, you'll rock the boat," he said to one little girl, and to a little colored fellow who was standing up entirely absorbed, he said, "Look out Buster, you'll fall over the banister."

Anyway, the people found out last night who Bruce Evans is and they were all pleased with the spirit of the man. His party consists of Bruce Evans, evangelist; Mrs. Bruce Evans, pianist, who is just on her first trip with the party; and "Jack" Thompson, singer and chorus leader, all of whom are good in the part they have in the work.

Text a Trapeze.

"We're going to have a revival in Marshfield if you will stand by me," said the evangelist last night, "or we're going to have a funeral. We'll have a revival anyway whether you stand by me or not, but you better get in and stand by now, for after we have it, if you didn't, you'll look like 20 cents Mex. I sometimes take a text which I use as a trapeze to swing out to my audience with, but I'm going to stick to my audience whether I stick to my text or not."

Sings His Own Song.

The evangelist sang one of his own musical compositions to close with, which song was dedicated to his mother. Many were in tears while he related as a prelude to the song his account of his last recollections of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans are occupying suite No. 1 at the Broadway apartments, where they will be at home to all who wish to call.

Other Meetings.

At three o'clock Tuesday, Evans speaks to the older folks in the Presbyterian church. At 4 p. m. a children's meeting will be held in the Baptist church. At 7 p. m., Mr. Thompson leads a Personal Workers' class in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. At 7:30 p. m. a big mass meeting will be held at the Methodist church. Evans speaks at all the meetings except the 10 o'clock meetings in the morning.

GET NEW SERVICE

WESTERN UNION INSTALLED IN NORTH BEND TODAY.

Plea of Months Is Appeared—Line Installed in Southern Pacific Depot—Very Convenient.

For weeks, months and years the people of North Bend have clamored for a Western Union office. Today they have one, and are satisfied. The new service started this morning at the North Bend depot where a wire of the telegraph company has been installed with H. B. Wray, an old time Western Union man and now station agent, in charge.

This obviates the post, both coming to Marshfield with telegraph messages, though under some circumstances it has been possible to telephone them, but never so satisfactory. Delivery of messages can also be made in North Bend now. It was said this morning that the office there will probably be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

SALEM—The Oregon state land board today leased 320 acres of mineral land near Culver to Frank Melvin, of Portland, for 20 years and he announced that he would build a plant costing $100,000 on the site, with which to extract gold from the soil.

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL TAKES DEBATING HONORS

Vote Is Unanimous—Local Talkers Had Negative Side of Swiss Military Question

North Bend lost her debate Saturday evening to the Jefferson high school by a unanimous vote, and thereby lost the chance at the state debating championship. The team composed of Merle Chappell and Alex Brandt, accompanied by Prof. Grubbs, returned from Jefferson yesterday afternoon on the train.

"They treated us royally and we had a good trip; the boys did better than they ever did before, but they were not on the popular side of the question," is the way Prof. Grubbs explained the matter this morning. After five victories, the debaters took their defeat quite gamely, saying that they had no regrets as they had done their best.

The Jefferson debaters were Miss Mary Chase and Levant Pease. The judges, appointed by the executive committee of the state, were Prof. Bechtold and Pennent, of O. A. C., and Supt. Kirk, of the Corvallis public schools.

The question was, "Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt the Swiss Military System." A survey of the debates through the state in the last few months shows that the affirmative of this question has been the most popular one.

MANY AT WEDDING

THREE HUNDRED GUESTS AT TEND AT FINNISH HALL

Alfred Nystram and Miss Signe Stora Married Saturday Evening by Rev. J. Richard Olson

One of the most elaborate weddings occurring in Marshfield for several years took place Saturday evening at the Finnish hall when at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Signe Stora and Mr. Alfred Nystram were joined in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Richard Olson, of Portland, before about three hundred guests. The hall was beautifully decorated with greens, the main feature being a beautiful arch of cedar and fruit blossoms, with a large white bell of the same flowers suspended from the top, under which the couple stood.

The Bride's Gown

The young bride was handsomely gowned in a creation of white pussy-willow taffeta with bead trimmings. She wore a long filmy veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. The maid of honor, Miss Agnes Hendrickson, was beautifully gowned in white silk crepe. Mr. Warner Brunell was best man.

The Bridal Party

The following were other members of the bridal party: Misses Sigrid Stora, Estrid Nylund, Malinda Anderson, Gerta Gunnell, Esther Reichar, Eleanor Hendrickson, Ida Reichar, and Messrs: Reuben Hendrickson, Manasse Stora, Albert Gunnell, Ellis Fordell, Arthur Stora, Warren Kronquist, and Tury Stora.

Delightful selections were rendered by a male quartet, following the ceremony, after which the guests indulged in dancing until midnight when an elaborate supper was served. Music was furnished by the seven piece Swedish orchestra.

To Live on Coos River

The bride is the popular young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stora of Coos River, where for years she has made her home. The groom is recently from Portland, but his home is in Finland. The young couple will make their home on Coos River. Many are the expressions of congratulations and best wishes extended this young couple by a host of friends and acquaintances.

BLUE RIDGE TIGERS WIN

Take First Baseball Game of Season From Hatchery—13 to 9

"The batteries for the Blue Ridge Tigers, ladies and gentlemen, are Sager and Gulliams, and for the Coos River Hatchery, Otto and Christenson. Play ball," yelled the "umps" on the diamond at Camp 1 yesterday afternoon and the first base ball game of the season was on. When it was off, and the smoke of battle had cleared away, the score of the Tigers was added up to 13 and the Hatchery had but 9 tallies on the book.

The battle throughout was a slug fest and the hitting of Sanderson and Goodman were features of the game. There was a good sized crowd present.

BANDON SHIPYARD DEAL NOT YET CLOSED

BANDON, April 8.—While a deal for the sale or lease of the Bandon shipyard has not yet been closed, indications are growing more favorable and it is believed a definite proposition will be reached within a few days, says the Bandon Western World.

Chris. Motley, of Portland, who claims to have contracts for two large vessels, arrived in the city the first of the week to look over the plant and take up the matter of securing the lumber. He has conferred with Geo. W. Moore and although he would not state definitely that satisfactory arrangements have been made, it is believed an understanding has been reached.

Use Part of Docks.

The Moore mill has in the past used a portion of the shipyard's dock but Mr. Moore has instructed the yard man to leave that space vacant as the owners of the yard expect to occupy it soon. Mr. Motley has since left for San Francisco.
