SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Friday

April 14.—Sun rises at 5:21 and sets at 6:40.

Holy Week.—Next Sunday is Palm Sunday. Next week is Holy week in the church calendar and the following Sunday is Easter Sunday.

Sunday School on Sunday.—There will be Sunday school at the Swedish Lutheran church on Sunday at 9:30 but no other services.

Move to North Bend.—Albert Johnson and family have moved from Coquille to North Bend where they will make their home.

Will Use Tank.—The swimming tank at the North Bend high school is to be used one day each week by a number of girls in that city.

May Have Coast Jetney.—It is reported from Curry county that Jerry Kinney may put on a jetney service to Crescent City, Cal., by way of Curry county.

Death Reported.—Word has been received that John Hengvorald, formerly an employe of the Porter mill and a resident of North Bend, died at Linton, Ore., recently.

Surprises Her Daughter.—Mrs. F. M. Eisinger of San Diego is at North Bend to visit her daughter, Louise, until the latter has finished her school year. Mrs. Eisinger's arrival was a surprise to her daughter.

Overhaul Old Engine.—The North Bend firemen are overhauling the first and only gas fire fighting engine in the city and say it is in good order and that they will use it on the hydrants to give auxiliary pressure.

To Have Story Hour.—Miss Reta Cowan will have charge of the story hour at the Carnegie Public Library tomorrow morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. She will talk on "The Other Wise Man" and "The Flower Legend."

New Mail Man.—Fred J. Holmes will take over the delivery of the Bunker Hill, Flagstaff and Libby mail route next Monday. It is possible that the time of delivery may be changed from afternoon to morning.

Pres. Kerr May Come.—President W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College, in a letter to C. F. McKnight, regrets that he can not be here this month to speak before the Fellowship Club, but states he will be glad to come sometime in May. In all probability a date will be fixed for him and a meeting scheduled at that time.

To Have Good Schoolhouse.—Despite the troubles that have occurred in the Two Mile school district, near Bandon, the vote has carried for a new schoolhouse and the plans are now ready for the contractors, Ben Ostlund, architect, went down this morning to look after them. He says the school is to be a two roomed affair with all the modern conveniences that such a school building should have.

Burns Old Ruins.—Last night was fire practice night. Part of the fire department with two hose carts hurried to the ruins of the Gregg home on eighth street, set them on fire and cleared away a spot that for months has been a drawback to the appearance of north eighth street. The home burned about a year ago, but part of the basement and charred that time.

Out on Track.—For the first time in two weeks or more the athletes of the Marshfield high school track squad were out on the racetrack yesterday afternoon dashing about here and there. The track has been so soft the men could not run on it. The county track meet does not occur until the middle of May, the date not having been settled upon as yet.

Makes Several Speeches.—James Montgomery made several speeches before the English class at the high school, explaining to them the value of good roads and the need of carrying a bond issue. He explained also exactly what bonds are, how they look and what they can do. This is so the students will understand the road situation in writing their essays on good roads in the present contest.

Palm Sunday.—This coming Sunday, known in the church calendar as "Palm Sunday," will be made the occasion for a beautiful, inspiring service in the Episcopal church here, in preparation for the festival of Easter, and the rector of the parish is earnestly hoping for a large attendance on the part of the communicants. A special musical program will appear in tomorrow's paper.

Blanco Hotel.—The Blanco Hotel, 227 North Front street, Marshfield, Oregon, is just being thoroughly renovated and opened to the public March 15, 1916. Some of the features of this old hostelry are, free entertainment bureau, free sewing room, information bulletin and kind treatment. The patronage of the public is solicited.
