COOS BAY ASSISTED ALLOWED TO VOTE

WAS AMONG FIRST TO AID SAN FRANCISCO SUFFERERS

Big Fire and Earthquake Occurred Ten Years Ago Yesterday—Bread Sent From Here

Ten years ago yesterday the earthquake and fire occurred at San Francisco causing a loss of over two hundred million dollars. Since then the city has been built up again. The anniversary of the historic fire recalls some incidents on Coos Bay. The news of the disaster was received here over the Western Union wire and there was great excitement, most everyone here had friends or relatives in San Francisco and a number of local people were there at the time.

Coos Bay was quick to send aid to the sufferers. Dr. Straw who was mayor at the time went about the city and asked everybody to bake bread. Dr. Haydon was put in charge of receiving the food and clothing and had headquarters in the building where the Lockhart-Parsons drug store is now located.

Thousands of loaves of bread were collected and put in boxes and sent to the Red Cross at San Francisco. Bread and blankets were sent first. Every available blanket in town was sent away, all of those in the stores being gathered up. A large amount of clothing was also sent from this locality. Everybody who had anything in the way of clothing they could give contributed it and a great deal was purchased with funds that were raised.

Coos Bay was among the first localities to send aid to the stricken city.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS NOT NECESSARY FOR REGISTRATION

Such is Written Opinion of District Attorney in Case of Walter Richardson—Affects Many

Persons who have resided for years within the United States, who on their oath swear they have taken out citizenship papers, are to be allowed to register, despite the fact they may not be able to produce their papers for the registrar. This is the gist of a written opinion on the question by District Attorney Liljeqvist.

The opinion will make happy many prospective voters of the county who, having been here for years, have in some way lost their citizenship papers. The direct case referred to by Mr. Liljeqvist is that of Walter Richardson, of Marshfield. He had voted here for 25 years, but under the new permanent registration law was called upon to produce his father's papers, and could not do so as they were lost long since. Mr. Richardson can vote in the primaries by being sworn in at the polls.

"The object of the voting law is to preserve the purity of the ballot box and to guard against the abuse of the election franchise and is not to prevent any qualified elector from voting or to unnecessarily hinder or impair his privilege runs the opinion.

The position of the district attorney is that a born citizen of this country can go to the polls and needs no other qualifications than his own word that he is a citizen. On the other hand, he deems it an injustice to take the word of one and to require the naturalized citizens to bring their papers as further proof. "If any crookedness was in mind," he said, "everyone could only swear they are citizens and let it go at that."

The law says that "all persons heretofore registered in the same county as fully naturalized citizens, shall not be required to exhibit their citizenship papers when registering under this act."

Richardson came to this country from England with his father in 1864 and has lived here ever since that time.

The Golden Rule

FAVOR CANDIDATE

A. T. HAINES HIGHLY ENDORSED BY MANY FRIENDS AND PROMISES TO MAKE A GREAT CAMPAIGN IN THE COMING PRIMARIES

One of the big surprises in the recent development of political activity was the announcement of the prominent place taken by A. T. Haines whose many friends endorsed him and brought him out as the leading and popular candidate for the flour, grain, feed and hay business of Coos Bay. It was shown by friends endorsing his candidacy that many years experience on Coos Bay has thoroughly qualified him for the place. His large shipments of hay permits him to secure the lowest possible prices and this benefit is always shared with his customers and the same policy applies equally to wheat and other feed.

He will also get to women's vote by his excellent flour which means economy and good bread. Well Worth Money—By all means hear the County Oratorical contest at the high school Friday evening. It will be lively, interesting. Everyone come out.
