LOCAL BREVITIES

THE WEATHER REPORT (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) OREGON — Unsettled, probably showers; southwest-westerly winds. LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Apr. 20, by Benj. Ostlund, special government Meteorologist: Maximum 57 Minimum 31 At 4:43 a. m. 48 Precipitation .11 Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1915 77.06 Precipitation same period last year 61.32 Wind, Southwest, cloudy. SUNRISE AND SUNSET Thursday April 20.—Sun rises at 5:10 and sets at 6:48.

Will Be Married.—At Astoria has been issued a marriage license to Emil Mattson and Miss Mabel King, the latter of Marshfield.

Choir Rehearsal Tonight.—The choir of the First Baptist church will rehearse for Easter at the church immediately after the evangelistic services, tonight.

Strawberries Are In.—The first strawberries of the season are in the local markets, having just arrived here via train. They are retailing at 15 cents a box.

Buy a Home.—George B. Sailor of the Buehner Lumber Co., has closed a deal for the purchase of the Roy Wernich home in North Bend. Mr. Wernich now lives in Astoria.

Can't Afford to Miss It.—Honest to Goodness, the Inter-high school county oratorical contest tomorrow night at the high school will be one of the best things this season. Come out and hear the orators.

Are Remodeling Building.—Car-

peners are at work remodeling the building, corner Central and Front streets, which is to be occupied very shortly by the Fourier Meat market. A cold storage plant is to be installed and the quarters will be quite large.

Get a Hand Chemical.—Mark H. Savage, of the Long Fire Engine Company of Portland, has returned from Myrtle Point. He sold to the city there a hand chemical fire apparatus, the tank of which contains about 45 gallons of chemical.

Left on Adeline.—At 10 o'clock last night the steamship Adeline left down for Oakland. On board as passengers were E. Vickor, Geo. Croop, Capt. Joe Bender, J. P. Sheridan, Charles Smith, John Hennessy, N.O. Donald, Fred Barlocker, and B. C. Swaggart.

Road Petitions In.—Charles Hall, president of the Good Roads Association, was in Coquille today. He went over with the petitions to the county court to have the road bond issue placed on the ballot for the May primaries, calling for an issue of $363,000 in bonds for good roads.

No Meeting Held.—Because several of the members could not attend there was no meeting last evening of the tax committees of the Marshfield and the North Bend Chambers of Commerce for the purpose of taking up the matter of a Tax Payers League. A meeting will be scheduled for a later date.

Gravel Taken Out.—The train yesterday morning for Reedsport took out four carloads of gravel that is to be used along the road for ballasting purposes. The entire line to the Umpqua, however, is not to be ballasted according to railroad men, until the gravel can be brought from Natron, the other side of Eugene.

Dyes Are Plentiful.—Local druggists state there is no scarcity of Easter egg dyes. It was reported in Portland that they are scarce. This is good news for the Easter bunnies as they were getting scared, so it is said, that the eggs this year were going to be nothing but pure white and with the red, green and purple left off.

Lots of Mail.—The mail clerks aboard the Reedsport train state that Marshfield gets as much mail as all the other parts of the county put together. The mail goes from here done in packages, arranged according to state. It is sorted further after leaving Portland for the east. At any rate there is enough mail collected along the road to keep the two mail clerks busy all of their time enroute.

Look After Building.—A. C. Going arrived last evening from Portland on business connected with letting the contract for the handsome new building that is to be built at the corner of Anderson avenue and Broadway for the Going & Harvey company. Mr. Going is a prominent holder and dealer in Portland real estate and has great faith in the future of Coos Bay. He will remain on the Bay for some time.

Was Buried Alive.—Festus Walter, shoveling into a high sand bank in North Bend yesterday, was buried alive when the earth caved in. So suddenly did it come that he had not a chance to get out from under. He was buried up to his neck in the heavy sand, with a shovel pressed painfully across his legs. He let out a cry for help and Good Samaritans came and dug him up again. He was not injured.

Are Protecting Fill.—Property owners along Central avenue between Fourth and Eighth street are about with a petition protesting the filling of their street to grade this summer, as proposed by the city council. They maintain that the present fill has not had time enough in which to settle and that at least another year is needed. This section of the street is included in the big improvement the council has listed for Central avenue from Fourth to 14th streets.

Exceed Speed Limits.—Foodstuffs are exceeding the speed limit judging from the velocity they are traveling skyward. The local wholesalers today report another advance of 25 cents a hundred for sugar. The price has gone up several times of late and it is said the tendencies are that it will go even higher. Canned meats and fish, too, are doing a bit of aeroplaning, making altitude flights, and it is reported there are further advances on beans, rice and all sorts of canned goods. The war is blamed.

Case Coming Up.—Tomorrow it is expected that the case of C. A. Johnson versus the city and the port, will come up before Judge Hamilton, at Coquille. It is understood that City Attorney Brand will file a demurrer to the complaint of the plaintiffs. The action is to obtain $36,000 of alleged damages to west Marshfield land because of the flooding of the lands. The plaintiff claims that the box through the Mill Slough fill is not of sufficient size nor adequate to carry off the surplus water. Several other property owners that are claiming damages have assigned their claims to C. A. Johnson.

Recovers Umbrella.—Nick Oswald, of Englewood, while on his way to work the other morning found a lady's silk umbrella. Knowing The Times want column was clearing place for lost and found articles Mr. Oswald brought it to The Times office. A small found adv. was inserted that evening and the next day Miss Myrtle Tripp called and claimed the umbrella which she had lost on the street. This true tale proves two things—that honest men live in Englewood and that Times want ads get such quick results is because everybody on Coos Bay reads The Times.
