

EASTER SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Church Bells Call You

How many of us attend church on Christmas day? And why not? Of all the days in all the year Christmas is the most appropriate for one to go to church and unite with his neighbors and friends in giving thanks and praise unto him who died that you and I should live. Christmas is his birthday, and above all things one should hear a short sermon and offer a prayer of thanks for the fortunes that the past has showered on him and ask forgiveness of all sins. One should go to church feeling that it is a pleasure and a privilege and not consider it a duty. It will furnish inspiration that will make one capable of better enjoying the day and at nightfall be a great deal happier.

AT Sunday is Easter Sunday and it will be a day of music in the churches, most of which prepared special music for the day. Some will have elaborate services on which the singers have worked for some time past.

There is much fine local talent in Coos Bay and the musical features of the Easter services promise to be highly attractive. There will be special music in the Christian Church, the Swedish Lutheran congregations of Marshfield and Coos Bay. Some have not prepared any music as their new pastor, Herman Lind, is to conduct the service on Easter for the first time. Some are given some of the services as arranged for Sunday:

Methodist Church
Special services for Easter and which have been arranged for Marshfield Methodist church, of Rev. Joseph Knotts is pastor. The order of the services at church follows:

Your Easter Sunday Stroll Thru Englewood

Tomorrow afternoon take advantage of the beautiful day and walk out thru the Englewood Section. Note the good streets; the well kept appearance of the lawns and gardens; the many homes that have been established and the new ones being built; the general air of progress that prevails.

Its the home owners section of Coos Bay where the natural advantages of rich soil and sunny slopes have been enhanced by improved streets, city water, electric light, telephone and jitney service.

Look over these 50 x 120 foot lots that can be bought for $300 each on your own terms.

Easter In Church Let the Spirit of Devotion Rule You

EVERY church in this community should be filled to overflowing on Easter Sunday. It is one of the great feast days of the year. It is the day of the risen Lord. It marks the end of the season of sackcloth and ashes. It is a time when heaven and earth rejoice,

It should not be necessary to urge any one to GO TO CHURCH on this day. This is just a reminder to the careless or the indifferent. Join in the hosannas.

Easter plainly is a day of joy. Add to the joyousness of the occasion by GOING TO CHURCH.
