10 and 11 a. m. on account of the funeral of the late J. M. Upton.

Attend Case Today.—A. R. O'Brien and O. W. Briggs went to Coquille again today to be present at the Treadgold damage case.

Paving Men Visit Valley.—W. E. Arnold and W. W. Ashby of the Warren Construction company went to Coquille this morning on business.

Meet Friday Night.—The Young People's society of the Norwegian Lutheran church will meet at the Gjerdrum Conservatory, Friday evening.

Will Testify.—Node Burwell, who is a witness in the Edlund bootlegging case, went to Coquille again this morning. He will be before the grand jury.

Leave for the South.—L. J. Simpson and Capt. Edgar Simpson left today for San Francisco on the train. L. J. Simpson expects to return in about ten days.

Will Meet Family.—Harry Winkler left this morning for Reedsport to meet the family of the late J. M. Upton who are accompanying the remains to this city.

Shoemaker Coming.—Carl D. Shoemaker, the state game and fish warden, is expected to arrive on the train this evening. He has been at Eugene for the past few days.

Looking for Location.—Fred L. Parker of Vancouver, Wash., a retired rancher, is looking over the country and if he is satisfied he may remain here.

Here to Reside.—Mrs. Henry Beuhner, wife of one of the heads of the Beuhner Lumber Company, and Mrs. Albert Briggs, have arrived from Portland to take up their home at North Bend.

Buy a Chevrolet.—C. H. Hoskins of Bandon was in the city today and purchased from George Goodrum a Chevrolet car. Mr. Hoskins started out today to drive the car home by way of Coquille.

Breaks His Arm.—E. Schroeder of Broadbent had his arm broken last week while working in the creamery. His horse got frightened at some steam and threw him. Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder expect to come to Marshfield tomorrow to attend the Evangelistic meetings.

Speaks at Broadbent.—G. L. Hall of the "Life-Line" returned from Powers and Broadbent this morning, having gone over Sunday. Rev. Hall held services at Broadbent Sunday and last evening conducted a community "sing," at that place, the building being crowded.

Called to Portland.—Mrs. J. E. Ford left this morning to see her husband who is ill in Portland. Mr. Ford left here to visit his parents in Michigan and when he got as far as Portland suffered an attack of ptomaine poisoning. As he is still sick Mrs. Ford thought it best to join him.

Motor to Beach.—Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rood, were host and hostess to Evangelist and Mrs. Bruce Evans and Singer Jack Thompson on a motoring trip to the beach today. The party made the trip in Mr. Rood's car. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinman also went in their car and had as guests Miss Mary C. Ayres, Rev. H. B. Foskett and Rev. Joseph Knotts.

Will Survey Road.—Eugene Robinson, who has been in the city, left this morning for the Umpqua river to resume work there. He is to survey the new road from Gardiner to the railroad and also will survey the road from Winchester Bay south to the Coos county line which was recommended by Engineer Cantine in his report.

Has New Position.—Friends of W. W. Ashby, of the Warren Construction company, are congratulating him on his new position. He has just been assigned the Southern Oregon territory for his company, taking the place of W. E. Arnold who goes to represent the Warren Construction company in Montana. Mr. Arnold is now here, but expects to leave very shortly.

Give a Salute.—When the Adelino Smith sailed from the Smith mill yesterday R. Nerdrum and his wife were aboard, leaving for Los Angeles from which place they will go east and sail for Sweden. Mr. Nerdrum was formerly one of the managers of the pulp mill and when the vessel passed Marshfield a number of salutes were given by the boat. Many of Mr. Nerdrum's friends were on the wharf to wave him a farewell.

Three Make Bids.—Three local contractors sent in bids for the building of the naval radio station in this city. They were P. M. Tolly, J. W. Wright and Ladd and Harrison. The Chamber of Commerce had wired the commandant at Mare Island Navy Yards asking for the plans so they would be here in time for the local contractors to make bids. The plan came and otherwise the local men would not have had time to have gotten in their bids.

Have Weirle Roast.—The young people of the town escorted by Evangelist and Mrs. Bruce Evans and the singer, Jack Thompson will make the trip to Telegraph Hill after the services tomorrow night and will have a bon fire and weirle and marshmallow roast. All the young people are invited to join the party. Last evening, a reception was tendered the evangelistic party at the Methodist hall, and a large crowd of young people were present. A short program was given, refreshments served and a rousing good time enjoyed by all. A skating party is being planned for the near future.

No Sunday Mail.—The fact that there is no Sunday mail for the smaller places between Eugene and Coos Bay is an inconvenience but the local postoffice has been trying to remedy the conditions. On Sunday there is no mail clerk on the trains and the only mail which comes and goes are through sacks for Marshfield, North Bend, Coquille, Bandon and Myrtle Point. Last Sunday some sacks were filled for North Lake and Reedsport in the local postoffice and arrangements made with the baggage man to throw them off the train. It is believed that soon mail clerks for Sunday trains will be provided so that the smaller places can get mail every day.
