MANY AT FUNERAL PAYS FINE TRIBUTE PLAN CELEBRATION

BURIAL OF LATE J. M. UPTON TAKES PLACE TODAY

Services Are Held at the Episcopal Church—Members of Bar Association Take Action

The funeral of the late J. M. Upton was held from the Episcopal church in this city at 10:30 o'clock this morning. There was a large attendance of old friends. Many of the lawyers were at the funeral but the bar association could not attend in a body as most of the members were held at Coquille at the session of court.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Robert E. Browning, the rector of the church. The full vested choir gave the music. There were many floral offerings from friends and the Easter decorations were still in the church.

The burial was at the Odd Fellow's cemetery.

The Pall Bearers
The honorary pallbearers were J. W. Bennett, Judge John S. Coke, C. A. Seibred, W. T. Stoll, J. J. Stanley.

The active pallbearers were W. A. Ackerman, C. R. Peck, Hugh Barclay, Ben Fisher, Bennett Swanton and A. H. Derbyshire.

From Out of Town
Among those from out of town attending were J. J. Stanley, J. S. Lawrence and L. H. Hazard of Coquille and Col. R. H. Rosa, of Bandon.

Bar Association Act
At an impromptu meeting of the Coos County Bar Association held last evening in the court room at Coquille, following adjournment of court, resolutions of sympathy were passed regarding the death of Judge Upton, who was a former president of the organization.

There was a recess of an hour in the circuit court this morning.

ROSEBURG PAPER TELLS OF LATE J. M. UPTON

Editor of the News Gives His Personal Feelings Regarding Well Known Man Buried Today

IS READ BY MINISTER
AT THE SERVICE TODAY
During the course of his brief address the Rev. Robt. Browning, who conducted the funeral of Mr. Upton read the tribute which is given below.

A beautiful tribute to the late J. M. Upton whose funeral was held today is published in the Roseburg News of which M. J. Shoemaker is one of the editors and proprietors. Mr. Shoemaker and Judge Upton were close friends and the editorial is therefore the expression of a personal feeling. It is as follows:

"The passing away of Judge Upton, almost over night, came as a distinct shock to the many friends he had made during his all too brief stay among us here. A man of superior attainments, expanded and broadened by reading and research, his versatile mind delved into the most abstruse subjects, and he was a veritable mine of information on cults and creeds and dogmas. He was a lover of nature, of its sturdy forests and sloping hills, its spreading fields and winding streams, and to him, the flowers and buds and ripening grain were emblems of an immortality continuous and unceasing through all the ages of time.

"At times a dreamer, with his head above the clouds, he viewed the actions of his fellow men from the heights, and passed judgment on their frailties with tender mercy. Hating all forms of hypocrisy and deceit and subterfuge, he was a soul of honor, and regarded truth as the foundation of all morals. A gentleman ever, in all his dealings with the world and man, he leaves behind him a pang of regret in all with whom he came in contact, while to those of us whose privilege it was to be numbered among his intimate friends, the personal loss is keenly felt. This gentleman had such a store of virtues, such a love for humanity and hatred of wrong, that these will cover and hide the frailties from which none of us are immune, and the memory of his kindly deeds will ever remain fresh with those who love him. Peace to his ashes."

BISHOP IS COMING

WILL CONFIRM CLASS AT MARSHFIELD EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Rt. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner is to visit Coos County Churches Next Week

The Rt. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner, the bishop of the Oregon diocese of the Episcopal church, will visit this part of the state soon. He will be at Reedsport Tuesday, May 2, and from there will come to Marshfield and on the following Sunday will hold confirmation services at the church in the city. There will be quite a large class to confirm.

While the bishop is here other engagements will be made for him and he will visit Bandon and other points in the county.

UMPQUA PEOPLE WILL HAVE BIG TIME ON FOURTH

Invite Coos Bay to Attend—New Road to the Willamette Pacific Will Be Built

The people of the Umpqua river cities are planning to have a big Fourth of July celebration and they are going to invite Coos Bay to attend. Fred Assenheimer, one of the Gardiner boosters, who was in the city cut his visit short in order to get back in time to attend a banquet at which time arrangements for the Fourth were to be made. He says that Coos Bay will be invited and expected to come to the Umpqua river on the Fourth, and in return Gardiner and Reedsport and vicinity will come to Coos Bay with a strong force on the occasion of the railroad celebration.

Will Have Good Road

The people of Gardiner are to have a road from that city to the railroad. The county court of Douglas county was petitioned and a guarantee was made that the road would not cost over $11,000 and that amount has been allowed by the court for the road work. Eugene Robinson of Marshfield will do the engineering work and left for Gardiner yesterday for that purpose.

Mr. Assenheimer while in Marshfield said that the Gardiner people were all anxious for the road as it will give them easy access to the railroad. Part of the road will be planked and it will put Gardiner only a mile and a half from the railroad.

H. B. DONAHAY IS SEEKING DIVORCE

Complainant Is Traveling Man Well Known to Many in This Locality

H. B. Donahay, well known traveling man who has made this territory for a long time past and who has many friends in Coos county, has started suit for divorce. The Eugene Register prints the following regarding the case:

"H. B. Donahay has started suit in the circuit court against his wife, Lillian P. Donahay, for divorce. According to his complaint, they were married at Ontario, Ore., June 16, 1895, and have the following children: Basil, aged 20; Raymond, aged 18; Berne, aged 16; and Harold, aged 7.

The plaintiff alleges that his wife has always been dissatisfied with the amount of his income and has continually nagged and scolded him about his income, using vile and violent language.

He says in his complaint that his wife left him while they were living in Eugene and took their son Harold to Vale, Ore., falling to write to him since. He asks for an absolute divorce and that the minor children be permitted to elect for themselves with which parent they shall live.

Donahay, in his complaint, says he is a traveling salesman for the Blumauer-Frank Drug company of Portland, and has been residing in Eugene for some time past.

stateroom on the steamer going to Alaska so that they will have proper feed and every advantage of care while the trip is being made. They are as tame as kittens, have thick black fur and are quite pretty. It is said that as they grow older in a cold climate their fur becomes very beautiful. The fur is not used extensively in the United States but is one of the high priced furs in Europe.

First Experiment There

Rohf and Martin are not going to Alaska entirely to raise Siberian hares but expect to do some prospecting and engage in other ventures but they thought they would try the hares as a side line. It will be the first time that such an attempt has been made in Alaska.

BIG JOB ON HANDS

COUNTY ASSESSOR THRIFT IS BUSY MAN NOW

Will Not Be Able to Give Assessed Valuation of County Until Sometime in September

(Special to The Times)
COQUILLE, Ore., April 26.—County Assessor T. J. Thrift and his deputies are plunged deeply into the business of transferring the schedules prepared by his six field deputies into the 1916 assessment rolls, which later are to be turned over to the sheriff office for the preparation of the taxes to be collected next spring.

As yet, and not until September in fact, will he be able to state exactly what the assessed valuation of the county is under the new figures. All of the records are now being checked over, a long and tedious job which will take months.
