FLORENCE TO HAVE CARNIVAL MAY 27

Annual Rhododendron Festival Which Has Become Quite Famous Is to Be Repeated

FLORENCE, Ore., May 1.—The annual rhododendron festival will be held here May 27. A committee consisting of W. H. Weatherston, J. W. Bergman and W. Safley was appointed to have complete charge of arrangements. The crab and clam bake that was so popular last year will be repeated. Complete details of program, etc., are being worked out by the committee in charge and will be announced later.

PORT OF UMPQUA TO OPEN BIDS TONIGHT

Two Local Bids for $200,000 Issue of Port Bonds Will Be Made

The Port of Umpqua will tonight open bids for the purchase of $200,000 port bonds. Dorsey Kreitzer and W. U. Douglas went from here today to make a bid for the First National bank of this city and it is understood that P. E. Conway of this city may also have a bid submitted.

Attorney C. R. Peck of this city who is port attorney went to Gardiner this morning to be present at the opening of bids.

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE

One Is Formed by Some People at Florence

The Florence West Says: A number of the heaviest property owners of Florence met in the office of the Harbor-Sound Investment Co., last Saturday evening, and organized the Florence Taxpayers' League.

C. C. Behnke was elected president, J. W. Bergman, vice president and W. H. O'Kelly, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Edwards, R. T. F. Smith and J. W. Bergman were appointed a committee on bylaws.

ANOTHER CAR ADDED

Business on the Railroad Is Showing an Increase

A third passenger coach has been added to the train from Eugene to Umpqua river on the line to Coos Bay, says the Florence West. This is because of the increase in the business requiring the extra car. The train has been made up of four cars, two passenger coaches, a baggage and express car and combination mail and baggage car. It is said by trainmen that this train handles as much or more than any other train out of Eugene.

RESIDENCE BURNED

The residence of A. A. Miner in Glenada was burned to the ground and nearly all the contents lost. Mr. Miller was carrying some insurance which was about enough to cover the value of the contents of the building.—Florence West.

SHOWS AN INCREASE MAY GROW IT HERE TO REPEAT SERMON

REGISTRATION THIS YEAR IS TEN THOUSAND GREATER

Although Books Are Closed All the Counties Have Not Yet Made Returns

SALEM, Ore., May 1.—Reports of county clerks from all over Oregon show that the registration for the May primary election is over 240,000, according to Chief Deputy Kozor of Secretary of State Olcott's office. Complete reports have not been received from all the counties, although registration closed April 18. The registration of 18 counties is known to be complete, however, and the returns received from the other counties are close to the exact figures.

The registration for the primary election two years ago was 229,601, so there is an increase this year of over 10,000. The registration of Republicans two years ago was 136,282, while this year complete figures will show over 161,000, according to Deputy Kozor.

The registration total for the general election two years ago was 305,000. This was due in a large measure to the interest taken in the prohibition fight.

Mr. Watt came to Marshfield in 1895 aboard the old steamer Farralone. Capt. Roberts, on his way from San Francisco to Newport, first class for $5, he aid.

HAS HARD LUCK

The following story of a series of misfortunes is told by the Port Orford Tribune:

M. L. Barrett, who left here with his family for Eastern Oregon a few weeks ago, seems to be playing in hard luck. At Myrtle Point he foundered his valuable team. Getting as far as Brewster Valley, with the aid of a third horse, one of his team horses died and becoming discouraged with that mode of traveling Mr. Barrett sold his wagon and some of his stuff for what he could get for it and started by stage to complete his journey. To add to his troubles, some personal property that he left behind at this place has been attacked to cover some obligations that it is alleged he left without satisfying.

WILL GET SEWER

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says: The long felt want, a sewer system for Myrtle Point is soon to be realized; the city council, at a special meeting called for that purpose, last Monday evening adopted an ordinance instructing the City Recorder to issue a call for bids on the construction of the proposed system in Myrtle Point Sewer District No. 1.

HAS BAD LUCK

The Coquille Sentinel says: City Engineer Henderson came home after making a short business trip to Eugene and Portland. He says he has just received word that our former county roadmaster, P. M. Hall-Lewis had the hard luck to be burned out of house and home at Chico, California, one day lately.

BROCCOLI YIELDS LARGE RETURNS PER ACRE IS SHOWN

Coos Bay Has Proper Climate For It—Farmers Take Interest In Looking Into Subject

Considerable interest is being shown among the farmers as to the growing here of broccoli, a vegetable very much like the cauliflower and which is said to be much finer. It returns large yields per acre, clearing as much as $250 an acre during the good seasons, according to figures from Roseburg where broccoli has been very successful.

Inasmuch as the growing of the product necessitates rich land and a cool climate, it is believed that the Coos Bay region is especially adaptable and experiments are to be made in this connection.

It is especially interesting to note that last year the farmers near Roseburg shipped out no less than 54 carloads of the broccoli from 194 acres and have contracted to supply a full 150 carloads this next season to John Nix and company, Chicago. The rate paid was $1.35 a crate and with as high as 500 crates to the acre. It takes 400 crates to fill a car.

H. A. Hinshaw, general freight agent for the Southern Pacific, is seeking to cooperate with the farmers in getting the industry started here. He says that at the same time it will furnish freight and profits.

KILBURN IS HERE

WATERFRONT NEWS

The gasoline schooner Patsy arrived yesterday from Portland with overflow freight which the Tillamook could not bring, and will sail tonight for Bandon. Putting in here is not profitable for the Patsy but representatives of the company say they want to give the local shippers the best service possible.

So foggy was it this morning on the bar that had there been any vessels out there they could not have crossed in much before noon time. The Kilburn arrived from the south shortly after noon and was not delayed by the fog. She probably will get away for Portland late today.

Tomorrow the Yellowstone is due in from San Francisco.

LOST HIS NEW BARGE

Capt. Hammer, of Noyo, From Coos Bay With Barge, Has Worrying Experience

When the steam schooner Noyo, Capt. Hammer, left Coos Bay a few days ago for San Francisco, it had in tow hopper barge No. 3 for the Hercules Powder Company's kelp reapers, a barge built at the Kruse and Banks shipyards.

Everything went all right and the boats tied up along side the dock and a watchman was left in charge. The watchman was so busy reading the morning papers that he failed to see a tug boat sneak up, and start across to Oakland with the barge. For hours Capt. Hammer scoured the waterfront looking for the tug and it was not until about sundown that he found one of the company's boats had taken the new barge to Oakland. He was somewhat relieved.

EVANGELIST WILL TALK ON DANCING AGAIN TONIGHT

Attendance Last Night Largest Bruce Evans Has Had in This City

EVANS ECHOES
"If all there was to manhood was muscle there would be more manhood in the hind leg of a mule than in fifty men."
"A lot of ladies' aid societies are like chewing gum—A useless lot of energy."
"No man can be right with God and not right with his neighbor."
A hyphenated Christian is just as disgusting as a hyphenated American."
"You are either a 'Goer' or a 'goner.'"

The auditorium was packed as it never has been crowded before. The annex was filled clear to the back walls, extra chairs by the score had been carried in but in spite of all the preparation many had to stand and some were turned away from the Evans revival last night.

The sermon was without doubt the most dramatic the evangelist has preached. He swayed his audience at his will. The room was warm but the speaker held the undivided attention of the crowd from the moment he arrived until the last word was spoken.

Loudly Applauded

When Evans started to walk down the aisle thunderous applause broke out and continued until he took his seat on the platform. There can be no question but that the man has won a warm place in the hearts of those who have heard him.

At the solicitation of many who were unable to hear Mr. Evans speak on the subject of "Dancing" he has agreed to repeat the sermon on this amusement question. He will again give his views on the matter tonight. He no doubt will have a full house on that occasion.

Several went forward at the close of the meeting last night to show their determination to live a better life.

USED THEIR SHIPMENTS

William McKay, of Blue Ridge, and William Ferrey were arrested at 10:30 Saturday night by Officer Brockmueller on a charge of being drunk. Both men stated that they had had liquor shipments from the south of late. Each one put up $10 bail to appear this morning. McKay forfeited his. Ferrey could not be tried as the city attorney was absent from the city. His hearing was postponed.

NEWS OF PORT ORFORD

Geo. Wilson returned to his home on Middle Elk from a few days spent visiting old friends and relatives on Coos Bay.

Miss Florence Vale of Portland who recently completed a term of school at Langlois, is now engaged in teaching on the Sixes river.

Mrs. Geo. E. Banning of Roseburg and Mr. Walter Riddle of Elkton, are spending a few weeks visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bossen, of Langlois.
