DAHLIA CLUB SESSION

Roll call was again responded to with current events by the members of the Dahlia Club who met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Conner. The home of the hostess was prettily arranged with bouquets of the season's flowers. Mrs. M. C. Wood gave an interesting reading, during the afternoon which was passed as usual in fancy work and chat. Towards evening, Mrs. H. E. Reanier assisted Mrs. Conner in serving a tempting repast to Mrs. C. O. Gosney, Mrs. A. Oleson, Mrs. J. E. Cooley, Mrs. E. Yake and Mrs. M. C. Wood. Mrs. Gosney will entertain the club at its next meeting in two weeks.

FOR BISHOP SUMNER

The Rt. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner was honor guest at a parish reception given for him last Thursday evening by the members of the Marshfield Episcopal church at Guild hall. The hall was especially pretty with its adornment of greens, snowballs and lilacs. Mr. B. B. Ostlund and Mr. H. E.

Bultmann accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Horsfall Jr., rendered delightful vocal solos and Miss Clara Isabel Myren gave a number of excellent piano selections in her usual pleasing manner. Appropriate and interesting addresses were made by Rev. Browning, J. W. Bennett and Dr. J. T. McCormac and a response was given by Bishop Sumner. There was a large number present, and the reception was pronounced a decided success. At a late hour, ice cream and cake were served by some of the young ladies of the church.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

The North Bend Card Club will meet again Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stephenson.

RAINBOW CLUB MEETING

The ladies of the Rainbow Club met for their regular meeting, Thursday at the club house on South Coos River, and spent the day in a delightful manner. The hostesses were Mrs. Lorenzo Cutlip and Miss Ada Clinkenbeard. A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Ruth Dyer, who has been seriously ill for a long time, but who is now reported as getting along nicely. The club room and table were beautifully decorated with pink and white roses which called forth admiration from the ladies. At noon, the hostesses served a delicious dinner, and this was followed by the business session during which, the name of Mrs. Barkley was added to the membership roll. In two weeks the club will meet again at the club house.

The ladies out this week were: Mrs. Childers, Mrs. P. Radford, Mrs. J. A. Goodwill, Mrs. Wm. Richards, Mrs. J. A. Smith, Mrs. L. D. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Morgan, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. Jennie Landrith, Mrs. J. J. Clinkenbeard, Mrs. James Landrith, Mrs. Lorenzo Cutlip, Mrs. Bell Chambers, Mrs. H. E. Bessey, and the Misses Blanch Cutlip and Ada Clinkenbeard.

CLUB MEETING POSTPONED

There was no meeting this week of the Alpha Delphin Society, the affair being postponed until next Monday evening, when the members will meet at the home of Mrs. Kate Lando, at which time they will begin a review of the work studied up to this time. The members of the club have decided not to meet during the months of July and August.

DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE PARTY

Last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. G. A. Bennett was hostess at a very delightful bridge party, at which seven tables were played. Mrs. W. S. Nicholson won trophy for high score and the consolation was awarded to Mrs. C. K. Perry. The pretty home of the hostess was artistically decorated with greens and lilacs. At four o'clock, dainty refreshments were served.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES' AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met for their regular session Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eva Gammil on South Ninth street. No matters of special importance were transacted. In two weeks, the auxiliary will meet again at the home of Mrs. C. R. Peck. The members present this week were: Mrs. D. Ferguson, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, Mrs. Reuben Lyons, Mrs. Henry O'Mara, Mrs. A. J. M. Robertson, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman, Mrs. I. S. Smith, Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield, Mrs. Lynn Schmitz, Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mrs. A. K. Peck, Mrs. Emma Savage, Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Ross. The visitors out were: Mrs. J. W. Davis, Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. George Ayre.

C. W. B. M. MEETS

Though only a few ladies were present, an interesting program of missionary topics was given at the C. W. B. M. meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Christian church parlors. Mrs. D. C. McCarty was in charge of the program. Mrs. W. B. Cox read an interesting article about the first missionary and a very fine article entitled "Solomon's Temple" was read by Mrs. C. A. Schibrede. The ladies decided to postpone the Mothers' Day Program until a week from tomorrow. The next regular meet will be the first Tuesday in June at the home of Mrs. J. C. Jones, and will be given as a picnic. The ladies out this week were: Mrs. W. B. Cox, Mrs. D. C. McCarty, Mrs. L. E. Hendrix, Mrs. C. A. Schibrede and Mrs. E. L. Hopson.

PRISCILLA CLUB MEETING

The Priscilla Club of Bunker Hill enjoyed a pleasant session Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. F. Bush, and the entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Gred Grinolds. Sewing and conversation during the afternoon were followed by a dainty luncheon, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. A. Simpson. The club will meet again on May 17th, with Mrs. Grinolds, and the entertainment will be furnished by Mrs. Duncan. Those present were: Mrs. Ray Simpson, Mrs. A. Simpson, Mrs. Wm. Phillips, Mrs. Dan Orr, Mrs. Ed Duncan, Mrs. T. C. Young, Mrs. L. Christensen, Mrs. H. M. Albee and Mrs. Fred Grinolds.

LADIES ART CLUB

A delightful session of the Ladies' Art Club was held on Friday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Charles La Chapelle, the ladies spending the social hours in fancy work and informal chat. Special guests present were: Mrs. W. S. Brown, Mrs. C. T. Waugh, Mrs. F. H. Storey. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. La Chapelle assisted by Mrs. Brown served appetizing dainties to her guests. Next Friday afternoon, the club will meet with Mrs. J. W. McInturff.
