SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Saturday
May 6. — Sun rises at 4:47 and sets at 7:06.

To Speak Tuesday.—Mrs. Myers, ex-president of the Mothers' Congress will lecture Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Guild hall.

New Road Map.—The road map which has been published by the Good Roads Association was made from a tracing taken from the new county map drawn by Engineer D. L. Buckingham.

Parish Dinner.—A dinner is to be given in honor of Bishop Sumner this evening at 6 o'clock by the Parish. All members of the Parish are cordially invited.

Communion Service Earlier.—Tomorrow the Holy Communion service in Emmanuel church will be at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock a. m. Bishop Sumner will officiate.

Want to Know Us Better.—So many inquiries have come to the Commercial Club at Nyssa, Oregon, regarding the Coos Bay country that Yesterday the secretary of the association wrote the Chamber of Commerce here for some literature. This will be sent him immediately.

Premium Lists Ready.—According to C. Milton Schulz, of the Coos-Curry Fair Board, who was here last evening, the premium lists for the fair to be held at Myrtle Point next fall, are now ready. These may be secured, he said, by writing J. O. Stemmler, of Myrtle Point, who is secretary of the organization.

Look Over Deposits.—The State Bureau of Mines has sent word that within a few days one of their mining experts will come to Coos county for the purpose of looking into the copper and iron deposits reported in the vicinity of Powers. He will probably be here for several days, poking about in the hills.

Not Much Better.—Charles H. Coddling has not improved any, according to Capt. B. W. Olson, of the Adeline Smith, who visited him at Bay Point, near San Francisco, when there this last trip. The captain said that Mr. Coddling seems to be slowly sinking and little hope is expressed for his recovery. His family is there with him.

Suits Are Filed.—Three suits have been filed in the justice court. A. S. Diment is suing R. D. Hall for the collection of $23.75 alleged to be due him. Fourier Brothers have filed suit against T. H. Barry for $64.25 and E. H. Joehnk would collect $35 from Fred Nieme. Joehnk garnisheed McDonald and Condon, employers of Nieme.

Liked Coos Bay.—J. M. Shelley of the Eugene Mill and Elevator Company who made a visit to this locality, is quoted in a Eugene paper as follows: "I was very much pleased with the Coos country. Although it is a little early for any real business in that section of the country, I believe there are good possibilities. With Coos Bay so closely connected by railroad we regard this now as part of the Eugene territory in a business way."

May Get Him Here.—Dr. W. A. Toye is a very good friend of Woldeimar Lind, leader of the Portland Symphony Orchestra. He is now trying, through Lind, to get the organization of 60 pieces to come here for a concert. It is possible that this may be arranged, inasmuch as the musicians could make their trip over a week end and return to their work again on a Monday.

Swedish Services.—Tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Swedish Lutheran church will be held services in English by the Rev. Herman Lind, and at 11 a. m. there will be services in Swedish. English services are held every other Sunday evening, though there will be none here tomorrow evening. Swedish services are to be held in North Bend at 3 p. m.

Two Are Arrested.—W. C. Brown was arrested on Front Street about nine last evening on a charge of drunkenness. He had $51 in his pocket, enough to put up $20 bail for himself and another $20 for William Ferrey who was arrested on the same charge along toward midnight. Ferrey had a whiskey bottle almost empty with him at the time. This morning Brown pleaded guilty and was fined $5. Ferrey was not in a presentable shape and his hearing was put off until 4:30. This is the second time he has been arrested within 10 days on a charge of drunkenness.

Argue Boundary Case.—Dennis McCarthy went to Coquille today for the purpose of pushing a boundary case against the Port of Bandon, his contention being that the Port is overstepping its jurisdiction in taxing properties which he claims are within the watershed of the Port of Coos Bay. When the Port of Myrtle Point was established a strip of land lying between the property of the Port of Myrtle Point and the Port of Coos Bay was left out of either body. Immediately the Port of Bandon stepped in and took over the territory. The allegation is made that the Port ran no true lines. There are several tracts involved in addition to the land owned by Mr. McCarthy.
