WANTS RAID TEXAS TOWNS

Cavalrymen and Boy Killed and Two Men Kidnapped

BOYS IN PURSUIT

Expedition Is Probably Over Border Chasing the Band

WENT FLED TO INTERIOR

Band Made Up of Seventy Men Visit American Settlements in Glenn Springs, Deerners and Boquillas Last Friday

MEMBERS ARE STARTED IN PURSUIT OF BANDITS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—A new American expedition may already be across the Mexican border in pursuit of bandits who raided the Texas towns Friday. Secretary Baker said he received a report from Gen. Funston as to the steps taken in that direction, but declined to reveal its contents.

RECENTS TEXAS, MAY 8.—Fleeing with the wild mess of northern men, 70 or more bandits who had the American settlements of Glenn Springs, Deerners and Boquillas, killing three cavalrymen, a nine-year-old boy, and kidnapping two other men, are believed to be heading into the interior today, 100 miles from the scene of their depredations.

Reports Differ

Reports from Marathon and a detachment of 23 troopers of the Fourth Cavalry are said to have followed the trail of the Mexicans into the interior, while other reports have it that the Americans have not forded the Grande, 95 miles from here, are waiting at the river for reinforcements.

Storekeeper Killed

Confirmed information says J. J. Goss, a storekeeper at Boquillas, was shot dead on the Mexican side of the border. His clerk, named Peterson, who was captured with Goss, is believed to have met the same fate.

One Man Missing

Nothing has been heard from Private Romeo Tyree, who was last seen as he ran from an adobe house, and his eight companions were seen long hours fought against the Mexicans and then fled because of the house was set afire by the bandits.

Women Probably Escape

Several women are known to be scattered on ranches in the border country, but there is nothing to indicate that they have been molested. The bodies of the three men killed in the Glenn Springs raid will be sent to their homes today.

Soldiers Arrive

Companies A and B of the Eighth Cavalry, under Major Longhorne, arrived today from El Paso and immediately started southwest toward Glenn Springs. Two troops of the Fourth Cavalry are expected to arrive tomorrow and will follow Longhorne's men.

Drain-Elkton Route MAY BE KEPT UP

Representative Hawley Files Strong Protest With the Postoffice Department at Washington

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—

Representative Hawley has filed a strong protest with the postoffice department against the recent abandonment of the star route between Drain and Elkton, Ore.

Representative Hawley Files Strong Protest With the Postoffice Department at Washington

"Should this route be permanently discontinued," says Mr. Hawley, "it would not only deprive practically 150 persons of their usual mail supply afforded by box delivery from this route, it would also deprive the patrons of the Elkton postoffice of the expeditions daily service they have been accustomed to from Drain."

Mr. Hawley said the substitute service which the department proposed to inaugurate, from Gardiner, was not satisfactory, and as the community of Elkton is going forward rather than backward, he insisted that its mail facilities be not reduced.

FUNSTON IS SILENT

SAYS IT IS NOT PROPER FOR HIM TO TALK

Admits, However, That Expedition Has Not Yet Crossed the Border

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
EL PASO, Texas, May 8.—General Funston said today it would not be proper for him to disclose whether an expeditionary force was going into Coahuila in pursuit of the Mexican bandits. He did not deny that there would be such a movement.

He said, however, he believed the troops had not yet crossed the border. Marathon, on the Southern Pacific railway, almost 10 miles north of the international line, will be the base of operations.

Has None To Send
Asked today if he intended sending troops into the Big Bend district additional to those already on their way, General Funston said, "I have not any to send."

HAS THE AUTHORITY

FUNSTON CAN CROSS BORDER WHEN NEED COMES

Report Is That Carranza Approves Scott-Oregon Plan to Co-operate

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—Secretary Baker said Funston's orders stood, and that they gave him the authority to cross whenever the need arose. Secretary Lansing has forwarded a report to the de facto government calling attention to its latest bandit activities.

The war department has heard informally that Carranza approved the Scott-Oregon plan, with minor exceptions, for cooperation along the border.

COUNTY COURT TO AID CORN GROWING IN COOS COUNTY

Agrees To Send Man and Boy Raising Best Corn in Three Districts to Farmers' Week at O. A. C.

Six round trips to the Farmers' Week conference at O. A. C. next January are the prizes offered by the county court to the man and the boy in each of three districts within the county who have the best corn exhibits at the Coos-Curry fair in Myrtle Point next September.

The three districts are Coos Bay, Coquille Valley and Myrtle Point. The purpose is to stimulate interest in the growing of corn, a campaign for which was started last year by County Agriculturist J. L. Smith, who organized the county show which attracted so much attention last fall.

In addition to this the county court has also agreed to send a Coos County exhibit to the state fair at Salem next fall, following the fair at Myrtle Point. This will be the first time this has been done.

It is now understood, also, that one of the displays will be about a carload of cheese and butter sent there from the Coos-Curry Cheese Association.

IS AUTHOR OF PLAY

Roger Goss Wrote Production for University of California

Part of the festivities in connection with the commencement at the University of California will be the presentation of a class play entitled "Absence on Leave" which was written by Hazel Havermale of El Centro and Los Angeles, and Roger Goss, son of Attorney John D. Goss of Marshfield. The play has been set to music by others of the senior class and is said to be a very clever production.

PLENTY MAPLE SUGAR

When Miss C. Esther Whitney bethought herself of the old home back in Vermont and the wonderful maple sugar that used to be raised on the farm she straightway sent an order back. This morning she received a 125 pound box which was opened over in the Ollivant and Nasburg grocery. She took out her share and in a very short time the remainder of the sugar had been spoken for.
